

Carol Klinebode Weds
Dick Appleby Saturday

Miss Carol Klinebode of O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Klinebode of Butte, and Dick Appleby of O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Appleby, were married March 4 in the First Methodist church at Neigh.

The Rev. Leslie Mewmaw performed the double ring ceremony at 10:30 a.m.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Dean Klinebode of Clearwater, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over satin styled with a sweetheart neckline which was outlined with sequins. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a small sequin covered hat. She carried a floral arrangement of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Miss Conda Couch of Inman was maid of honor and she was attired in a red satin street length dress. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Clark Gaughenbaugh of O'Neill served as best man.

Following their wedding trip in western Nebraska, the couple are residing in O'Neill where Mr. Appleby is employed at the Seger Oil company.

To Attend Play

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Johnson will go to Vermillion, S. D., Friday where they will view a play, "Desire Under the Elms", which will be directed by their son, Jim Johnson, as a partial fulfillment towards his master of art degree. Jim attends the University of South Dakota and the play will be presented in Sledge auditorium by the University Theater Friday and Saturday. There are 15 members in the play cast.

Announce Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey C. Schaffer of O'Neill have announced the marriage March 11 of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to David William Young of Sidney, son of Mrs. T. C. Young of Minotola, N. J.

The ceremony took place in the First United Presbyterian church of North Platte. The Rev. George Olsen officiated. They were attended by Mrs. Michael V. Smith of Lincoln and Bertram Mineman.

The bride chose a street length gown of blue lace over matching poise de soie. Her attendant wore a similar gown of beige lace. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Members of the immediate families attended the ceremony, and the luncheon following, at the Pawnee Hotel.

Mrs. Young is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She taught physical education at Sheldon Jackson Junior college in Sitka, Alaska for one year and has since been employed by the Sidney public school system as girls physical education teacher and elementary physical education supervisor.

Mr. Young was graduated from the University of Wyoming. He was a member of Alpha Kappa Psi and of Sigma Chi Fraternity. He is general manager of Radio Station KSID in Sidney.

They will be at home in Sidney after March 18.

Percy Ipalook

Preparing for

Radio Position

Percy Ipalook, who graduated from O'Neill high school in 1958, is in New York City attending an 18-month study course preparing for civilian and military radio positions near the Arctic Circle.

Ipalook, an Alaskan Eskimo, stayed at the D. C. Schaffer home while attending school here and will be remembered by his many friends in O'Neill.

In his new studies, Ipalook is being sponsored by the Interior Department's Bureau of Indian Affairs. The Government is paying his living expenses and tuition at RCA Institutes, an electronic school. Following his training, Ipalook may work where he wishes, however, the Government hopes he will take a job in the "White Alice" communications system, which is the civilian and military radio telegraph in Alaska, or the Ballistics Missile Early Warning System in the Far North.
