

Ewing News

By Mrs. Harold Harris

Sgt Marvin Carl, who has been stationed in Korea for the past year, is now home on a 30-day leave. On expiration of his leave he will be stationed at Fort Riley, Kan.

Weekend guest at the Ben Larsen home was James Clinch of Toledo, Ia. Mr. Clinch is a cousin of Mr. Larsen.

Mrs. Jessie Wunner and grand-daughter, Linda Standard of Omaha, came Saturday to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Halie Mahen, until Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Spittler was hostess for a family dinner Sunday evening at her home honoring the birthday anniversaries of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Regan, her son-in-law, Ray Funk, and his daughter, Shirley. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bartak and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Regan and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Funk and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright and sons Steven and George went to Bassett Saturday evening to attend the 25th wedding anniversary party of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roger.

Shirley Funk was surprised Monday by 15 classmates who helped her celebrate her birthday anniversary. Games were played with prizes for all. Shirley was presented gifts by her friends. Her brother, Ronald Funk had as his guests March 13, 12 classmates in honor of his birthday anniversary. Indoor games were played for entertainment. He received gifts.

Sunday afternoon guests at the George Jefferies home were Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith, Mrs. Masie Phillips, Mabel Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mahen, all of Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones and son of Clearwater were recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jefferies. A. E. Spittler was a Wednesday evening visitor at the Jefferies home.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Olson had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Olson and family of Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Suttcliffe of O'Neill were guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jefferies.

Mrs. Andrew Olson accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Greer Clark of Stanton, are on their way to Seattle, Wash., to be guests at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Allan York. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wilson took them to Omaha Tuesday where they left by train for their destination.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Angus had as their guests Thursday, her brother, Ward Wilcox and family and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Klug, all of Madison.

Lloyd Angus made a business trip to Omaha Tuesday. Mrs. James Good and son, Stevie, accompanied him. Stevie will enter St. Joseph's hospital for treatment again.

Mrs. Everett Ruby, who has been assisting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Beelaert and family for the past six weeks, is now back at her home in Ewing. Mrs. Beelaert is convalescing from a recent major operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williamson and family of Norfolk spent the weekend at the parental homes of Delbert Carl sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Williamson.

Mrs. Mabel Maulding and Mrs. Floyd Miller of Neligh were afternoon guests on Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Butler.

George Nickolite returned home from the Veterans hospital at Grand Island last week where he had been a surgical patient for some time.

Family night will be held Sunday evening at the parlors of the Ewing Methodist church. Ray Sedivy, layman, will be in charge of the devotional service and the Methodist Youth Fellowship, the recreation. A no-host lunch will be served. The Rev. W. W. Elliott, pastor, extends a special invitation to parents and their families to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Larsen drove to Lynch Saturday to visit his cousin, Mrs. Inger Levi, who is hospitalized there.

Mrs. Mae Pruden and Mrs. Gary Schienost of O'Neill were dinner guests Sunday at the Ben Larsen home, the occasion was in honor of Mrs. Pruden's birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Ella Ziems accompanied Ralph Van Horn and his daughter of O'Neill to Norfolk Sunday where they spent some time with Mrs. Van Horn, a patient at a Norfolk hospital.

Dorsey News

By Mrs. Harold Osborn

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graham and family and Curtis Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Barta and Evelyn were visitors at the Ted Crawford home Wednesday. They were shown the moving pictures of the anniversary dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Crawford in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Derickson and Jerry visited at the John Derickson home Sunday. Their children, who had with them from

Friday night until Sunday, returned home with them.

Rolland Hughes called at his folks Monday. He also stopped on his way home at the John Derickson home.

Beverly Carson visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood this weekend while with her parents, the Edward Carsons.

Mrs. Gordon Barta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn to the Wilbur Mitchell home Thursday to attend a party.

Several of the pupils from the different districts around here motored to O'Neill Saturday for a science exhibition which was reported to be interesting and educational.

Ruth Osborn is home for a few days as Wayne State Teachers College is having an Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiscocks were guests at the T. J. and Howard Graham home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady took several of the children from District 4 to O'Neill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Millard and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Millard and Faye, all of Sioux City, stopped at the Harold Osborn home Sunday morning and had breakfast with them.

They left for Spencer to call on Mrs. Kirwan who isn't feeling well at this writing. They also intended to call on Mr. and Mrs. Drickey and family. Mrs. Kirwan is the mother of James Millard.

Howard Slack is suffering from a severe cold.

Larry Lanman and Ted Zack of Verdel helped with work at the Harold Osborn home Saturday. Claude Pickering shelled corn there that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were Norfolk visitors Thursday and overnight guests in the Herman Koll home near Winside returning home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Charley Kolar and Mary returned home Thursday after visiting in the Frank Lewis home several days last week.

Lina Johnson visited in the Frank Lewis home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Christensen are visiting relatives in Winona, Minn.

Steve Vican and John Chvala were business callers in Butte Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and family and Jim and Dale Eiler of Verdel were Sunday visitors in the Rudy Eiler home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGeorge and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ertz and son were business callers in Butte Monday afternoon.

Friday night until Sunday, returned home with them.

Rolland Hughes called at his folks Monday. He also stopped on his way home at the John Derickson home.

Beverly Carson visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood this weekend while with her parents, the Edward Carsons.

Mrs. Gordon Barta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn to the Wilbur Mitchell home Thursday to attend a party.

Several of the pupils from the different districts around here motored to O'Neill Saturday for a science exhibition which was reported to be interesting and educational.

Ruth Osborn is home for a few days as Wayne State Teachers College is having an Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiscocks were guests at the T. J. and Howard Graham home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady took several of the children from District 4 to O'Neill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Millard and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Millard and Faye, all of Sioux City, stopped at the Harold Osborn home Sunday morning and had breakfast with them.

They left for Spencer to call on Mrs. Kirwan who isn't feeling well at this writing. They also intended to call on Mr. and Mrs. Drickey and family. Mrs. Kirwan is the mother of James Millard.

Howard Slack is suffering from a severe cold.

Larry Lanman and Ted Zack of Verdel helped with work at the Harold Osborn home Saturday. Claude Pickering shelled corn there that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were Norfolk visitors Thursday and overnight guests in the Herman Koll home near Winside returning home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Charley Kolar and Mary returned home Thursday after visiting in the Frank Lewis home several days last week.

Lina Johnson visited in the Frank Lewis home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Christensen are visiting relatives in Winona, Minn.

Steve Vican and John Chvala were business callers in Butte Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and family and Jim and Dale Eiler of Verdel were Sunday visitors in the Rudy Eiler home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGeorge and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ertz and son were business callers in Butte Monday afternoon.

Friday night until Sunday, returned home with them.

Rolland Hughes called at his folks Monday. He also stopped on his way home at the John Derickson home.

Beverly Carson visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood this weekend while with her parents, the Edward Carsons.

Mrs. Gordon Barta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn to the Wilbur Mitchell home Thursday to attend a party.

Several of the pupils from the different districts around here motored to O'Neill Saturday for a science exhibition which was reported to be interesting and educational.

Ruth Osborn is home for a few days as Wayne State Teachers College is having an Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiscocks were guests at the T. J. and Howard Graham home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady took several of the children from District 4 to O'Neill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Millard and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Millard and Faye, all of Sioux City, stopped at the Harold Osborn home Sunday morning and had breakfast with them.

They left for Spencer to call on Mrs. Kirwan who isn't feeling well at this writing. They also intended to call on Mr. and Mrs. Drickey and family. Mrs. Kirwan is the mother of James Millard.

Howard Slack is suffering from a severe cold.

Larry Lanman and Ted Zack of Verdel helped with work at the Harold Osborn home Saturday. Claude Pickering shelled corn there that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were Norfolk visitors Thursday and overnight guests in the Herman Koll home near Winside returning home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Charley Kolar and Mary returned home Thursday after visiting in the Frank Lewis home several days last week.

Lina Johnson visited in the Frank Lewis home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Christensen are visiting relatives in Winona, Minn.

Steve Vican and John Chvala were business callers in Butte Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and family and Jim and Dale Eiler of Verdel were Sunday visitors in the Rudy Eiler home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGeorge and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ertz and son were business callers in Butte Monday afternoon.

Friday night until Sunday, returned home with them.

Rolland Hughes called at his folks Monday. He also stopped on his way home at the John Derickson home.

Beverly Carson visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood this weekend while with her parents, the Edward Carsons.

Mrs. Gordon Barta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn to the Wilbur Mitchell home Thursday to attend a party.

Several of the pupils from the different districts around here motored to O'Neill Saturday for a science exhibition which was reported to be interesting and educational.

Ruth Osborn is home for a few days as Wayne State Teachers College is having an Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiscocks were guests at the T. J. and Howard Graham home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady took several of the children from District 4 to O'Neill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Millard and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Millard and Faye, all of Sioux City, stopped at the Harold Osborn home Sunday morning and had breakfast with them.

They left for Spencer to call on Mrs. Kirwan who isn't feeling well at this writing. They also intended to call on Mr. and Mrs. Drickey and family. Mrs. Kirwan is the mother of James Millard.

Howard Slack is suffering from a severe cold.

Larry Lanman and Ted Zack of Verdel helped with work at the Harold Osborn home Saturday. Claude Pickering shelled corn there that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were Norfolk visitors Thursday and overnight guests in the Herman Koll home near Winside returning home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Charley Kolar and Mary returned home Thursday after visiting in the Frank Lewis home several days last week.

Lina Johnson visited in the Frank Lewis home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Christensen are visiting relatives in Winona, Minn.

Steve Vican and John Chvala were business callers in Butte Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and family and Jim and Dale Eiler of Verdel were Sunday visitors in the Rudy Eiler home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGeorge and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ertz and son were business callers in Butte Monday afternoon.

Friday night until Sunday, returned home with them.

Rolland Hughes called at his folks Monday. He also stopped on his way home at the John Derickson home.

Beverly Carson visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood this weekend while with her parents, the Edward Carsons.

Mrs. Gordon Barta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn to the Wilbur Mitchell home Thursday to attend a party.

Several of the pupils from the different districts around here motored to O'Neill Saturday for a science exhibition which was reported to be interesting and educational.

Ruth Osborn is home for a few days as Wayne State Teachers College is having an Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiscocks were guests at the T. J. and Howard Graham home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady took several of the children from District 4 to O'Neill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Millard and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Millard and Faye, all of Sioux City, stopped at the Harold Osborn home Sunday morning and had breakfast with them.

They left for Spencer to call on Mrs. Kirwan who isn't feeling well at this writing. They also intended to call on Mr. and Mrs. Drickey and family. Mrs. Kirwan is the mother of James Millard.

Howard Slack is suffering from a severe cold.

Larry Lanman and Ted Zack of Verdel helped with work at the Harold Osborn home Saturday. Claude Pickering shelled corn there that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were Norfolk visitors Thursday and overnight guests in the Herman Koll home near Winside returning home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Charley Kolar and Mary returned home Thursday after visiting in the Frank Lewis home several days last week.

Lina Johnson visited in the Frank Lewis home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Christensen are visiting relatives in Winona, Minn.

Steve Vican and John Chvala were business callers in Butte Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and family and Jim and Dale Eiler of Verdel were Sunday visitors in the Rudy Eiler home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGeorge and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ertz and son were business callers in Butte Monday afternoon.

Friday night until Sunday, returned home with them.

Rolland Hughes called at his folks Monday. He also stopped on his way home at the John Derickson home.

Beverly Carson visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood this weekend while with her parents, the Edward Carsons.

Mrs. Gordon Barta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn to the Wilbur Mitchell home Thursday to attend a party.

Several of the pupils from the different districts around here motored to O'Neill Saturday for a science exhibition which was reported to be interesting and educational.

Ruth Osborn is home for a few days as Wayne State Teachers College is having an Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiscocks were guests at the T. J. and Howard Graham home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady took several of the children from District 4 to O'Neill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Millard and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Millard and Faye, all of Sioux City, stopped at the Harold Osborn home Sunday morning and had breakfast with them.

They left for Spencer to call on Mrs. Kirwan who isn't feeling well at this writing. They also intended to call on Mr. and Mrs. Drickey and family. Mrs. Kirwan is the mother of James Millard.

Howard Slack is suffering from a severe cold.

Larry Lanman and Ted Zack of Verdel helped with work at the Harold Osborn home Saturday. Claude Pickering shelled corn there that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were Norfolk visitors Thursday and overnight guests in the Herman Koll home near Winside returning home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Charley Kolar and Mary returned home Thursday after visiting in the Frank Lewis home several days last week.

Lina Johnson visited in the Frank Lewis home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Christensen are visiting relatives in Winona, Minn.

Steve Vican and John Chvala were business callers in Butte Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and family and Jim and Dale Eiler of Verdel were Sunday visitors in the Rudy Eiler home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGeorge and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ertz and son were business callers in Butte Monday afternoon.

Friday night until Sunday, returned home with them.

Rolland Hughes called at his folks Monday. He also stopped on his way home at the John Derickson home.

Beverly Carson visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood this weekend while with her parents, the Edward Carsons.

Mrs. Gordon Barta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn to the Wilbur Mitchell home Thursday to attend a party.

Several of the pupils from the different districts around here motored to O'Neill Saturday for a science exhibition which was reported to be interesting and educational.

Ruth Osborn is home for a few days as Wayne State Teachers College is having an Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiscocks were guests at the T. J. and Howard Graham home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady took several of the children from District 4 to O'Neill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Millard and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Millard and Faye, all of Sioux City, stopped at the Harold Osborn home Sunday morning and had breakfast with them.

They left for Spencer to call on Mrs. Kirwan who isn't feeling well at this writing. They also intended to call on Mr. and Mrs. Drickey and family. Mrs. Kirwan is the mother of James Millard.

Howard Slack is suffering from a severe cold.

Larry Lanman and Ted Zack of Verdel helped with work at the Harold Osborn home Saturday. Claude Pickering shelled corn there that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were Norfolk visitors Thursday and overnight guests in the Herman Koll home near Winside returning home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Charley Kolar and Mary returned home Thursday after visiting in the Frank Lewis home several days last week.

Lina Johnson visited in the Frank Lewis home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Christensen are visiting relatives in Winona, Minn.

Steve Vican and John Chvala were business callers in Butte Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and family and Jim and Dale Eiler of Verdel were Sunday visitors in the Rudy Eiler home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGeorge and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ertz and son were business callers in Butte Monday afternoon.

Friday night until Sunday, returned home with them.

Rolland Hughes called at his folks Monday. He also stopped on his way home at the John Derickson home.

Beverly Carson visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood this weekend while with her parents, the Edward Carsons.

Mrs. Gordon Barta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn to the Wilbur Mitchell home Thursday to attend a party.

Several of the pupils from the different districts around here motored to O'Neill Saturday for a science exhibition which was reported to be interesting and educational.

Ruth Osborn is home for a few days as Wayne State Teachers College is having an Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiscocks were guests at the T. J. and Howard Graham home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady took several of the children from District 4 to O'Neill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Millard and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Millard and Faye, all of Sioux City, stopped at the Harold Osborn home Sunday morning and had breakfast with them.

They left for Spencer to call on Mrs. Kirwan who isn't feeling well at this writing. They also intended to call on Mr. and Mrs. Drickey and family. Mrs. Kirwan is the mother of James Millard.

Howard Slack is suffering from a severe cold.

Larry Lanman and Ted Zack of Verdel helped with work at the Harold Osborn home Saturday. Claude Pickering shelled corn there that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were Norfolk visitors Thursday and overnight guests in the Herman Koll home near Winside returning home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Charley Kolar and Mary returned home Thursday after visiting in the Frank Lewis home several days last week.

Lina Johnson visited in the Frank Lewis home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Christensen are visiting relatives in Winona, Minn.

Steve Vican and John Chvala were business callers in Butte Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zach and family and Jim and Dale Eiler of Verdel were Sunday visitors in the Rudy Eiler home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McGeorge and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ertz and son were business callers in Butte Monday afternoon.

Friday night until Sunday, returned home with them.

Rolland Hughes called at his folks Monday. He also stopped on his way home at the John Derickson home.

Beverly Carson visited friends and relatives in this neighborhood this weekend while with her parents, the Edward Carsons.

Mrs. Gordon Barta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn to the Wilbur Mitchell home Thursday to attend a party.

Several of the pupils from the different districts around here motored to O'Neill Saturday for a science exhibition which was reported to be interesting and educational.

Ruth Osborn is home for a few days as Wayne State Teachers College is having an Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hiscocks were guests at the T. J. and Howard Graham home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brady took several of the children from District 4 to O'Neill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Millard and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. James Millard and Faye, all of Sioux City, stopped at the Harold Osborn home Sunday morning and had breakfast with them.

They left for Spencer to call on Mrs. Kirwan who isn't feeling well at this writing. They also intended to call on Mr. and Mrs. Drickey and family. Mrs. Kirwan is the mother of James Millard.

Howard Slack is suffering from a severe cold.

Larry Lanman and Ted Zack of Verdel helped with work at the Harold Osborn home Saturday. Claude Pickering shelled corn there that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heiser were Norfolk visitors Thursday and overnight guests in the Herman Koll home near Winside returning home Friday afternoon.