Last Week's News

The Celia 4-H club met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schwindt. Most of the members and parents were present. Roll call was answered by "What We Would Like to do This Summer." A schedule was set up for subsequent meeting places. Awards and ribbons won at the Fair and not yet presented were given to the members. Games were played, sponsored by Mrs. Leroy Hoffman with Vanita Schwindt winning first place. Lunch was served.

Rodney Frickel was an overnight guest Sunday of Roger and Gary Frickel.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Meyer Jr. attended a business meeting Wednesday evening at the Assembly of God church in O'Neill. Vicki Sue, who has been having a siege of chicken pox, stayed with her grandmother, Mrs. Herman Meyer Sr.

Calves are arriving in pairs quite frequently at the Natchel Rzeszotarski ranch. Twins were born to one of Rzeszotarski's dairy cows about a month ago, and last Tuesday one of their stock cows had a set, both heifers. This incident is most unusual since it is the first stock cow to produce twins in the space of 50 years on this ranch. The ranch was previously operated by Mr. Rzeszotarski's father who ran a herd of 200 stock cows, none ever producing a set of twins.

"Grandpa" Blow, 86, father of Mrs. Charles Phipps, who makes his home in Atkinson with his son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Phipps, was honored on his birthday at a surprise party at the Wesleyan Methodist parsonage following prayer services Wednesday evening, March 15. A birthday cake for the occasion was baked and decorated by two members of the group, Mrs. Celia Backhaus and Mrs. Robert Slaymaker.

"Grandpa" Blow is crippled with rheumatism but is handy with hammer and saw and keeps busy most of the time in his work shop working with wood, producing useful and decorative articles.

Arlin Hendricks is all set to go fishing. He found a healthy grasshopper which he is keeping in "cold storage" until the day arrives when he can slip down to the fish pond and tempt some poor unsuspecting fellow to have a "snack".

Violet Neissin of Lake Preston, S. D. and her brother, Lloyd Blow of Pylupol, Wash., spent Saturday night at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Phipps, visiting their uncle, Mr. Blow.

Mr. and Mrs. Natchel Rzeszotarski were O'Neill visitors Saturday.

Mrs. J. B. Leago of Huston, Tex., arrived Saturday to spend two weeks visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Colfax, and to attend the wedding of her brother, Denton, and Miss Sandra Putnam, Sunday Mar. 26.

Michele Rzeszotarski was an overnight guest Thursday of Jean Marie Wewel in Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kilmurry of Atkinson were Saturday dinner guests at the home of their son, Frank Kilmurry and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Beck and family were dinner guests at the home of Duane's mother, Mrs. Helen Beck, in Atkinson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hendricks, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Phipps and Gerold O'Connell of Atkinson, attended the Youth banquet at O'Neill Monday evening. Robert was master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hendricks and family were supper guests Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Chaffin. The occasion was in honor of the 12th birthday of Linda Chaffin.

Mrs. Charles Phipps and Marita Klinger spent Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mark Hendricks helping tie a quilt for the missionaries.

Gale Sicheneder was an overnight guest Monday of Leila and Linda Heiser.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton McKathnie March 10 were Mrs. McKathnie's mother, Mrs. Blanche Rouse and Marvin and Mildred Keyes of Inman and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Risor and family of O'Neill. The occasion was in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Rouse. Mrs. Risor and Mrs. McKathnie are sisters.
