Seniors Give Class Play At Chambers

The Senior class of the Chambers high school presented their class play, "Night of Terror," Friday evening. The class consists of the following: Dennis Walters, Karen Farrier, Delbert Fleck, Darrell Elkins, Judy Thomson, Roseanne Blake, Larry Swanson, Dean Smith, Art Wintermote and Douglas Jarman. One junior, Linda Rowe, participated in the play.

Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gibson, honoring several whose birthdays came during February, March and April, were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoffman and Carole, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gibson of O'Neill, Mr. Alvin Gibson of Neligh, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Gillette and Darrell Lee and Mrs. Jennie Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Harley report that their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bauer, who are missionaries in New Guinea, will soon be moving into another area some 15 miles from their present location. Mr. Bauer has been chosen missionary education officer. His duties will be to start a teacher training school for the natives in this area and to supervise the schools which have been started and are being taught by the trained natives. The Bauers have lived in a modern frame home for the past year but will move into a "bush" house made of woven bamboo. This is the type of home in which they lived when they went to New Guinea and until the frame house was built about a year ago.

The Baptist parsonage was sold Saturday at public auction to H. R. Farrier of Chambers. The building is to be moved from the premises within 30 days to allow construction work to begin on a new parsonage.

Lutheran Missionary
The Lutheran Missionary meeting was held Thursday. Pastor Roten led the devotionals and also the lesson, "Chosen to bear Fruit". Mrs. Dean Stevens presided at the business session in the absence of the president. It was voted to give $10 to the Lutheran hospital building fund.

Family Night
Family night was held Sunday evening at the Methodist church. The program opened with the singing of some hymns and then Rev. Cox conducted a study on "Foundation for Christian Living". A lunch and social hour followed.

Rev. and Mrs. Earl Schwenk and family moved into the house on Rainbow Ranch west of town owned by Lay Adams. They will live there while a new Baptist parsonage is being built.

The Methodist church Board met Monday evening. Mrs. Rena Deirking went to Wayne Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Phiel. Mrs. C. V. Robertson stayed with her father, John Walter, while Mrs. Deirking was gone.

Sunday guests in the Steve Shavlik home were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nelson and Jim of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hord and Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Hoke and Clayton of Dewing, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Switzer of Clearwater and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hubbard and family of Chambers.

Mrs. Ralph Blair returned Saturday from Omaha where she had spent two weeks visiting her sons. The Ben Blair family brought her home.

Garden Club
The Chambers Garden club met Wednesday with Mrs. Lloyd Wintermote. Twelve members gathered at the Park to plant trees. This is a start on our entry in the community beautification contest.

A report was given on the bake sale held April 1. It was voted to use the $24.30 to purchase more trees for the park.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Cooper received word that their niece, Mrs. Donald Grimes of Ft. Collins, Colo., and a friend had gone to Tucson, Ariz., to bring Mr. Cooper's sister, Mrs. Hattie Tibbets home. Mrs. Tibbets has spent the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Hale Osborne and family in Tucson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grimes and Mrs. T. E. Newhouse were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Grimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Miller and family drove to Royal Sunday to congratulate his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Curtis, who were celebrating their golden wedding.

Guests in the Lloyd Wintermote home for dinner Sunday, April 16 were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thorin of Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorin of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thorin of O'Neill, Mrs. Vernon Schleusener and LeRoy of Orchard and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wintermote and Art of Chambers. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Janet and Norma Wintermote. Evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Green and family of Albion.

Mrs. Bert Lybolt returned Sunday from Brunswick where she had spent the winter with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ansley Barret.

Rodney Elkins and Carolyn Prokop came from Wayne to spend the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Elkins and Darrell. The group attended the wedding in O'Neill of Jean Jackson and Bob Burival.
