Verdigre News

By Vac Randa

Arlie Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Nelson a senior was among 10 Nebraska Future Farmers to be recognized for outstanding achievement in purebred herd development. Arlie was presented a check for $50 from the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben.

The Verdigre chapter was recognized for its outstanding accomplishments in farm safety again this year and the chapter ranked third among 138 active chapters in the state. For this placing it received a blue ribbon award and in addition, the Omaha Chamber of Commerce presented Verdigre with a wall plaque.

Other honors received were: third place rating and gold medal certificate from the farm equipment industry in recognition of the corn harvesting safety program last fall, and a superior rating in the state association for its past year's activities. The official delegates of the chapter were Marvin Vonasek and Marvin Sucek, Arlie Nelson and James Iekler, alternate delegates. Jack Welch served during the convention as treasurer. Ted Ward is agriculture instructor.

On April 6 at the 33rd annual convention held in Lincoln, Marvin Vonasek, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Vonasek of Verdigre was presented a gold charm on the basis of leadership, cooperation, and supervised farming program accomplished while attending high school. Among those present were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Vonasek, Mrs. Bill Dufek, Mrs. Joseph Viterna and his Advisor, Ted Ward, all of Verdigre.

Ionic Lodge No. 47, AF & AM held a special communication at the Niobrara Temple April 12 with a large attendance. This communication was held for the purpose of conferring the entered apprentice degree on Irvin Sedivy, a native of Verdigre. Dayton Sells of Monowi and Leonard Havranek of Lynch, both members of Oak Leaf Lodge No. 312, were visitors. Attending from Verdigre were L. J. Kocina, Floyd Hildreth, Tony C. Paesl, Bolton Randa, Fred Marshall, Leonard Hainerach, Chester Tikalsky, Roscoe Groeling, Emil E. Sandoz, Alvin Fosterman, Irvin Sedivy and Vac Randa.

Superintendent Robert G. Sheckler of Verdigre high school, has announced that the Verdigre honor roll has 15 students on its fifth, six-week honor roll, and they are as follows: Seniors, JoAnn Chalupnik, Mary Kain, Kenneth Maly and Sharon Sonder; junior, Marlene Soucek; sophomores, Lavonne Hildreth, Darlene Van Buren and Lana Ruzicka; freshman, Karen Jacot. The Verdigre Board of Education has announced that nine Verdigre instructors have signed their contracts for the coming school term and they are: Superintendent Robert G. Sheckler, Ted D. Ward, voc ag. instructor; William Harder, principal and commercial; Harold E. Nott, social science and athletics; Mrs. Della Best, mathematics and science; Miss Mable Bruce, fifth and sixth; Miss Delores Belka, third and fourth; Mrs. Leonard Drobný, first and second and Mrs. Charles Schreier, kindergarten. This leaves three vacancies to be filled.
