

Sharon Hancock Weds Robert H. Eilers in Catholic Ceremony

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the scene for the wedding Saturday of Miss Sharon Hancock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Hancock, and Robert H. Eilers, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Eilers of Neligh.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. Timothy J. O'Sullivan at 11:30 a.m. Appropriate wedding music was played by Sister Flores at the organ.

The bride chose a floor length gown of silk organza. The basque bodice front was detailed with intricate embroidery, sprinkled with sequins and pearls. Embroidery enhanced the bracelet sleeves, skirt front and the sweeping chapel train. The double French illusion veil was held by a sparkling crystal crown. She carried a white prayer book centered with an arrangement of white roses and carnations.

Mrs. Robert Edwin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Susan Abart. They wore identical dresses of pink and aqua, respectively, which were styled in nylon organza ballerina length. Schiffler embroidery trimmed the bouffant skirts and the fitted V-neck bodices ended in Schiffler-trimmed cummerbunds. Matching crown shaped headpieces completed the outfits. They carried colonial bouquets of white pom poms with streamers.

James Hamill of Norfolk served as best man and Thomas Roth of Neligh was groomsman. Ushers were Francis Ruterberies of Oakdale and Robert Erwin.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the L & R cafe for the immediate family. In the afternoon a reception was attended by 92 guests at the cafe. A three-tier wedding cake centered the bride's table and it was cut and served by Mrs. Duane Booth. Mrs. Dwayne DeVall presided at the coffee service. Miss Mary Ann Eilers of Neligh was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. John Lee Farrier and Mrs. Owen Davis took care of the gifts. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Francis Ruterberies and Mrs. Keith Abart.

After returning April 23 from their wedding trip to New Mexico the couple will be at home east of Neligh.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill high school and has been employed as bookkeeper in the National Bank of Norfolk.

Mr. Eilers attended Neligh high school and is engaged in farming with his father.

Bernadette Shaffer Weds Donald Dickau At Atkinson Saturday

ATKINSON—A 10 a.m. ceremony in St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson was held Saturday for the marriage of Miss Bernadette Shaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shaffer of Atkinson, and Donald Dickau, of Valley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Dickau of Atkinson.

The Rev. R. Morocco performed the ceremony in the presence of over 100 guests.

A white lace and net over taffeta gown was chosen by the bride and it was designed with high neckline, long sleeves and a chapel train. Her bouquet was formed with an orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Joan Shaffer of Atkinson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Jan Gans of Lincoln was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of orchid nylon and lace over taffeta. They carried bouquets of carnations.

Raymond Shaffer of Atkinson, brother of the bride, served as best man, and Dale Doolittle of Amelia was groomsman. Mick Keets of Omaha and Dick Bogue of Atkinson were ushers.

Flower girl was Barbara Pospichal of Atkinson and ring bearer was Tommy Kohle of Stuart.

A wedding dinner was served at the Knights of Columbus hall at noon and at 2-4 p.m. a reception was held at the hall.

The couple will reside at Valley.

The bride was employed as receptionist at St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill before her marriage.
