

CHAMPIONS OF SIX TRACK MEETS this spring, the O'Neill high school track team poses with trophies which they have accumulated. Results of the district meet at O'Neill last week qualifies 11 of the members for the State track meet in Lincoln Thursday. Team members are (l. to r.) back row: Coach Jake Hawley, Ron Schmeichel, Jerry Dexter, Rich Hill, John Kurtz, Terry Kurtz, Leonard Havranek and Assistant Coach Don Kokrd. Front row: Darold Erner, Mike Hand, Jerry Kileoin, Bill Nelson, Curt Larson and Jack McGinn. Photo by O'Neill Photo Co.

Rural Schools Graduate 28 In Boyd County

BUTTE—Twenty-eight Boyd county rural eighth graders graduated during Music Festival ceremonies Friday at Butte.

Sixteen Districts were represented by the following graduates and teachers: District 1, Billie Adams and Margaret Hartsock, teacher Miss Dortha Anderson; 3, David Baker, Ronald Schumann and Kenneth Sallie, Mrs. Hilda Halbur; 6, Duane Neme, Mrs. Darlene Lechtenberg; 10, Randy Ellwanger, Mrs. Mavis Collins.

District 25, Judith Atkinson, Mrs. Lula Mae Reeking; 27, Beverly Havranek and Stanley Johnson, Milton Carter; 28, Marilyn Holmberg, Miss Dore Flinders; 30, Rosalind Loukota, Gordon Swanson, Cheryl Sinclair and Delores Soukup, Mrs. Gertrude Peterson; 40, Nancy Dye, Mrs. Vivian Kinsia.

District 41, Linda Christensen and Darrell Rihanek, Mrs. Alice Hanson; 47, Bonnie, Audrey and Gretchen Kaezer, Mrs. Betty Mashino; 50, Clyde Vogt, Mrs. Marie Cahoy; 61, Betty Scheinost, Mrs. Joyce Danielson; 69, Wayne Holmberg, Mrs. Vada Whetnam; 77, Lani and Rebecca Axberg, Mrs. Elaine Klaska, and 79, Robert George and Anna Chvala, Miss Joyce Holz.

Clayton Tumender of Bristow, who was killed in a tractor accident May 8, would have received his diploma with the students from District 20.

The teachers presented the diplomas to the graduates. Musical selections were presented by the graduates, the band, and by the rhythm bands. Choral accompaniment was by Mrs. Dorothy Lightfoot and Mrs. Joyce Danielson. A piano trio was played by Sharyn Teadtke, Linda Thorell and Beverly Swanson.

Junior Senior Banquet Held at Clearwater

CLEARWATER—The annual junior and senior banquet was held May 9 in the Concordia Lutheran church parlors where decorations were carried out in the "Old South" theme.

Participating in the program were Tom Wrenthold, Marie Tubbs, Carl Nore, Kathy Sehl, Ricky Wiegand and Paul McKee. Servers were Bonnie Damm, Sharon Mitchell, Cheryl Rice, Helen Snider, Richard Herley, Marvin Trease, Billy Alemang and Richard Twiss. A prom followed the banquet.

Thursday afternoon the students presented a Mother's Day program at the school.

Atkinson Youth Receives Honor

For top honor in the junior class at Creighton Cadet M/Sgt. John N. Ries of Atkinson was awarded the Chicago Tribune Academic Achievement medal at Creighton's parents day ceremonies on May 7.

The medal was presented Ries during the ROTC review.

Present for the exercises were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ries and family, Atkinson; grandmother, Mrs. John Pruss; O'Neill, and Philip Walter, teacher at Atkinson high.

Rotherham Named May Queen

EWING—At the May 9 meeting of the Catholic Council of student nurses, Beverly Rotherham S/N was elected May queen and she crowned the statue of the Blessed Virgin on the St. Elizabeth School of Nursing grounds Tuesday evening.

Miss Rotherham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rotherham of Ewing. Ann Warner was junior attendant and Rose Tordy, freshman.

Commencement Held At Royal Wednesday

ROYAL—Honors and certificates were presented at commencement exercises Wednesday at Royal high school.

Receiving awards were Jacqueline Meisner, Wayne State Teachers college and Carol Carlson, music scholarship, Emporia, Kansas School of Music.

Royal high school had only two graduates this year.

All graduation pictures in this issue of The Frontier were furnished through the courtesy of the O'Neill Photo company.

Butte High Holds Senior Banquet

BUTTE—"Moonlight and Roses" was the theme at the Butte high school junior and senior banquet May 6 which was held in the gymnasium decorated with blue streamers, stars, roses and balloons.

Taking part in the program were Darol Ellwanger, Russell Anderson, Gary Marcellus, James Allen and Gay Nelson. The banquet was prepared by mothers of the juniors and served by the following freshmen, Judy Lechtenberg, Mary Ann Kamunsky, Anita Ellwanger, Dorrinda Mohr, Marshall Luth, Duane Blomkamp, Marlin Caming and Ralph Zeisler.

The athletic banquet was held May 2 under the direction of Mrs. Allen Koskan and pep club members. Participating on the program were Helen Frasech, Russell Anderson, Patty Anderson, Karen Mayer and Janice Risor.

Supt. Galen Cheuvront, Larry Turner, Gary Marcellus, Allen Koskan and Gary Nelson, presented speeches. Helen Frasech served as mistress of ceremonies.

Ten Graduate At Clearwater

CLEARWATER—Ten seniors received diplomas at commencement exercises Wednesday evening at the Clearwater high school auditorium.

Warren Cook, Norfolk mayor, delivered the commencement address. The Rev. A. Lee Abramson of the Protestant Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints presented the invocation and benediction.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening with the Rev. Mr. Abramson as the speaker. The processional and recessional were played by Richard Twiss and vocal selections were given by the girls chorus.

Graduates of the 1961 class are Ara Hague, Beverly Harriman, Carl Nore, Thomas Patras, Joan Sabatka, Donna Sanne, Kathy Sehl, Gary Taylor, Ricky Wiegand and Shirley Ann Yates.

Thirty Six Receive 8th Grade Diplomas At St. Mary's

Thirty-six eighth graders at St. Mary's academy received graduation diplomas Wednesday morning at St. Patrick's church.

The graduates are as follows: Ellen Artus, Patrick H. Benze, Reynold A. Bosh, Patrick J. Carr, Sue A. Cavanaugh, Donald L. Conway, Eileen A. Corkle, Jerry J. Donohoe, Robert E. Devoy, Ann A. Fenton, Joseph M. Gilg, Mary E. Gondering, Vilja D. Gray.

Jim W. Grutsch, Dorothy L. Havranek, Francis P. Kamphaus, Paul H. Kamphaus, Patricia L. Kealey, Donna M. Langan, Michael A. Langan, Carol A. Lowery, James D. McCarthy, Joseph L. McCarville, Carolyn A. McKenzie, Michael J. McManus.

M. Gayle Murphy, Joan L. Peter, John R. Pruss, Owen J. Shoemaker, Wayne F. Sindelar, Renee J. Spittler, Ellen M. Stutz, Vera M. Thomson, Duane G. Winkler, Artus DeWitt and Dany E. Wolfe.

Naper High Holds Banquet

NAPER—"An Evening in Paris" was the theme for the annual junior and senior banquet May 6 held at the school auditorium.

Junior class president, Genene Kuhl, presented the welcome, and senior class president, Gwendolyn Putnam, read the class wills and expressed appreciation for the seniors. A gift was presented to Alma Brown. Program numbers were by Verne Mills, Dennis Wentz and Rollen Kibby. Class prophecies were given by Verne Mills and Rollen Kibby.

Named as Candidate

Marvin Miller, O'Neill high school principal, has been named as a candidate for presidency of District 3 Teachers association.

The officers will be voted on at the Norfolk convention next October.

Poppy Day Slated

CHAMBERS—Poppy Day will be observed in Chambers May 27.

The money from the sale of these poppies help with supplies for the Veterans hospitals.

Ewing High Graduates 19

EWING—There were 19 seniors in the processional Sunday evening when the baccalaureate services were held in the auditorium of the public school.

The Rev. W. W. Elliott of the First Methodist church, delivered the sermon. Dr. William H. Ross of the United Presbyterian gave the invocation and benediction. Vocal selections were presented by Joan Spangler and Kay Bergstrom, accompanied by Mrs. Wilbur Spangler.

Graduate in the class of 1961 are Mary Ann Bauer, Jerald Black, LaRoyce Blunt, Ben Bollwitt, Ronald Brion, Gene Daniels, Sharon Daniels, Bertha Harris, Sharon Johnston, Clifford Juracek, Karen Minarik, Richard Minarik, Owen Schmidt, Douglas Strader, Thelma Spangler, Judy Tinsley, Leonora Tuttle, Frederick Wright and David Ziem.

Rural Schools Graduate 110 In County

One hundred and ten Holt county rural eighth grade students received their diplomas from Alice L. French, county superintendent, in promotion exercises Friday at the O'Neill high school auditorium.

The Rev. Robert Linder gave the invocation and benediction. Processional music was played by Annette George, Diane Devall and Kathryn Devall. Other program numbers were as follows: Singing of "America" and flag salute, audience; piano solo by Susan Ellingson, District 15; vocal solo by Patricia Straka, District 74; saxophone solo by Nelda Quatt, District 142; group singing, District 131; vocal solo by Sharon Wiggins, District 206; piano solo, Joy Dvorak, District 210, and a demonstration by Robert Carlisle.

Receiving their diplomas were the following students: Judy Ann Addison, Larry Allyn, Roberta A. Asher, Vera D. Barlow, Evelyn M. Bearta, Michael Beckett, Mary Ellen Beha, Susan Becht, LeRoy M. Bollwitt, Bernard Bonenberger, Steven Brauer, Terry R. Brown, Larry D. Buri, Edith M. Chaffin, James A. Crumly, Nelda R. Quatt, Mary Jane DeGroot, Joy L. Dvorak, Susan A. Ellingson, Dennis Engler, Phyllis J. Eppenbach, Gary L. Evans, Burt Fauser, Jean Finley, Thomas A. Freichs, David L. Frickel, Vincent Fundus.

Dennis L. Funk, M. Elaine Funk, Julene Gilbert, Larry Gokke, Carolyn Goldfuss, James F. Hale, William H. Halstead, Pamela S. Hammerlund, Bonnie Hansen, Sherry Hansen, Jean Harkins, James L. Hawk, Sharon L. Hawk, Ralph E. Heiser.

Charles Hill, Marie Hoerle, Dean Holliday, Lawrence W. Hrbek, Janet Hubel, Barbara Hupp, Gary T. Kazzor, Max M. Kero, DeVos, Dennis D. Kliment, Larry L. Kliment, Francis G. Krieger, Eldon Krugman, Larry Le Munyan, Seal Luebeck, Michael Mahony, Thelma M. Mashino, Betty J. Miller, Harlan D. Miller, Roger Moeller, Sherry Dee Nelson, Patricia Newman, Arlene F. Pelletier, Arthur L. Pelletier, Dewayne Perry, Marlene F. Pickering, Monty R. Pickering.

Mavis Pinkerman, Dorothy Poessner, Michael Pospichal, Deloris C. Pribil, Richard J. Pribil, Dennis Richards, Brian M. Richter, Susan M. Rosno, Loraine K. Sandall, Ruth A. Schaaf, Joyce Schafer, Thomas A. Scheinost, James L. Schmidt.

Larry D. Schunk, Barbara L. Seger, Randall D. Shaw, Sandra S. Slaymaker, Darrel M. Smith, Patricia A. Straka, Connie J. Summers, Larry Swanson, Leola Swanson, Judith G. Syffe, Marilyn J. Tagel, Douglas P. Taylor, Gregory Tenborg, Kathryn C. Thiele.

Joy M. Thompson, Linda L. Thompson, Marjorie A. Thurlow, Eugene B. Tunander, George Tudsworth, Janice K. Wells, Andrea G. Wettlaufer, Dan L. Wettlaufer, Jo Ann Williamson, Sharon E. Winings, Carolyn F. Witherwax, Arlene M. Zahradnick, Francis R. Zakrzewski, Lawrence P. Zakrzewski and Gerold R. Ziska.

Win Golf Swat Fest

L. A. Becker and Jake Hawley took the golf honors at the Monday night golf and "swat fest" golf game at the Country club.

There were 119 members present for the affair. Dinner was served by a catering service from Norfolk.

Chambers High To Graduate Ten Friday

CHAMBERS—There will be 10 graduates at commencement exercises Friday at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The seniors are Roseanne Blake, Darrell Elkins, Karen Farrier, Delbert Fleek, Douglas Jarman, Dean Smith, Larry Swanson, Judy Thomson, Dennis Walters and Arthur Wintermote.

Roseanne Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Blake, is valedictorian of her class. Roseanne has attended high school all four years at Chambers. She has maintained the scholastic lead in her class throughout high school. She will be enrolled at the Grand Island School of Business next fall.

Dennis Walters and Karen Farrier are co-salutatorians. Dennis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walters and during the four years of high school at Chambers, participated actively in all school activities. Dennis will attend Wayne State college this fall to prepare for the teaching field.

Miss Farrier is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hylas Farrier and during her four years of high school was a member of the volleyball team. She is interested in a nursing career and will begin college this fall.

The address will be delivered by R. C. Patterson and will be entitled "I Dare You." Presentation of the senior class will be by

Roseanne Blake

Karen Farrier

K. N. Weller and the awarding of diplomas will be by C. E. Wintermote. Mr. Weller will present the honor awards and scholarships and the American Legion auxiliary will present a citizenship award.

C. E. Wintermote will present diplomas to the following eighth grade graduates: Myrtle Burge, Dennis Cavanaugh, Arlo Crawford, Judy Garwood, Darrell Gillette, Jay Gustafson, Gayle Farrier, Gary Hertel, Dennis Hoerle, Gary LaRue, Maxine Mettschke, Jerry Robertson, Carolyn Rowe, Richard Tracy and Richard Walters.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening at the school auditorium with the Rev. Earl Schwenk of the Memorial Baptist church delivering the address. Vocal selections were presented by Mrs. Samuel Burtwistle and Zane Rowse.

Senior Class Holds Revue

Senior class night exercises were held in the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, using the theme, "The Senior Television Spectacular".

Members of the class presented humorous commercials, panel numbers, the class will, history and prophecy, and gave several musical selections.

Marion Rosenkrans, valedictorian, and John Harder, salutatorian, presented addresses. Special vocal numbers were by Susan Burns, Bill Frickie, Sherry Elbert, Sonita Wilson, Linda Seger, Joyce Krogh, Jim McClellan, Larry Godel and Roy Bridge.

The program was directed by Mrs. Lois L. Tompkins, sponsor of the senior class.

Jim Rooney Named Development Chairman

Jim Rooney has been selected as chairman of the local membership drive for the Elkhorn Valley Development association, a new organization which started last fall at Norfolk for the purpose of a complete watershed survey for flood control, irrigation and conservation, in the Elkhorn valley.

Men working on the O'Neill irrigation project urge all farmers, ranchers and businessmen to get their membership tickets for $1 from either Mr. Rooney or Dale Wilson, Chamber of Commerce vice president. This association and its work is extremely important to the development of the local area.

Future plans include getting a membership in the national and state Reclamation association, by the local project.

Graduation Exercises Held for 14 at Naper

NAPER—Commencement exercises were held for 14 seniors at the Community hall Tuesday evening, May 9, at which time R. C. Patterson, Stuart, delivered the address.

The valedictorian of the class is Gwendolyn K. Putnam, and salutatorian is Fern A. Vogt. High school diplomas were given by the school board president, Reo Ludemann.

Following are the graduates: Gloria Anderson, Betty Beem, Florence Bendig, Judith Benton, James Berg, Louella Dawson, Willard Drummer, Dennis Green, Judith Hoyt, Darrell Juracek, Gwendolyn Putnam, Carolyn Schultz, Fern Vogt and Judy Vogt.

Prin. Robert V. Titus presented eighth grade diplomas to Norman Beem, Ernest Broekemeyer, Gary Doty, Myra Katzer, Henry Martin, Myra Muller, Dale Nicolaus, Nilo Reber, Stanley Stahlacker and Douglas Martin.

Inman Plans Graduation

INMAN—Commencement exercises will be held this evening (Thursday) at 8 p.m. in the Inman school auditorium at which time the following seniors will receive diplomas.

Senior graduates are Phillip Breiner, Karen Brown, Gene Butterfield, Bernice Colman, Conda Couch, Gary Fick, Georgia Herold, Keith Kivett, James May, Mary Morsbach and Marilyn Siders.

These eighth graders will also receive diplomas, Roger Banks, Lindel Boschult, Leonard Butterfield, Randy Colman, Kay Hutton, Delores Kopeitka, Sharon Morrow, Tommy Pribil, Sharon Reynolds, Mary Lou Sobotka and John Stamp.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening at the auditorium with the Rev. Robert Linder presenting the sermon. Invocation and benediction were by Elder Fred Horn. Musical selections were presented by Bill Coventry, Ruth Ann Hansen, Marilyn Siders, Mary Morsbach and Bernice Colman.

Rites Held for Leonard Bauer

Leonard J. Bauer, 47, of Clearwater died Monday in Janey Edmundsen hospital, Council Bluffs from injuries received in an auto accident. The accident happened Friday evening near Griswold, Ia., where Mr. Bauer was working as a carpenter with a construction company.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 10 a.m. at St. John's Catholic church south of Ewing with Rev. Francis Kurbat officiating. Burial was in the Vandernick cemetery southwest of Ewing.

The rosary was recited Tuesday evening at Sniders Funeral parlors in Clearwater.

Survivors are five children: Sons, Robert, Glendale, Calif.; James and William, Denver, Colo.; Roland and a daughter Mary of Hooper. Also his mother, Mrs. Angela Bauer; brothers, Gerald, Dallas, Tex.; and Sylvester, Clearwater; sister, Mrs. Otto (Marie) Kallhoff, Clearwater.

He was preceded in death by his father and a brother, Alfred. Pallbearers were: Charles Potts, Robert Clements, Bob Bauer, Louis Vandernick, Bernard Bauer and Bill Leahy.

O'Neill Men to Attend Meeting On Irrigation

Five O'Neill men will attend a banquet May 27 at 6:30 p.m. in Valentine at which time they will hear the main speaker, Mr. Holm, assistant secretary of the Department of Interior in charge of water and power.

Those planning to attend are Gil Poesse, Jim Rooney, Lyle Dierks, Howard Manson and Larry Peterson. They will meet following the banquet with Mr. Holm for discussion of irrigation development in this area.

Sunday morning an O'Neill delegation will go to Ainsworth to meet with K. T. Karabotsis, who represents Ainsworth project in Washington, D. C. Discussion will center about the possibility of getting Mr. Karabotsis to represent the O'Neill Irrigation project in Washington.

Rites Held at Spencer for John Nolan, 65

SPENCER—John Nolan, 65, who farmed 15 miles east of Fairfax, S. D., died Monday in the Veterans community hospital at Wagner, S. D.

Rosary was said Wednesday in St. Mary's Catholic church in Spencer. Mass was held at 10 a.m. this morning (Thursday) at St. Mary's with the Rev. Robert Steinhilber officiating. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery under the direction of the Jones Funeral home here.

John Nolan was born in Douglas, S. D., May 21, 1895 to James Lawrence and Catherine Crangan Nolan.

He is survived by his wife, Nora; four sons, Keith, Albion, Clayone, Fairfax, Dale, Spencer, and Eldon, Lynch; 18 grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Floyd Shoop, San Carlos, Calif., and Mrs. Katherine Pinney, Wagner.

Farewell Party Held For Nelsons at Butte

BUTTE—Bernice Catherine OES of Butte honored Mr. and Mrs. Gary Nelson at the regular meeting of the Butte Club Tuesday with a farewell gift. The Nelsons are moving in the near future from Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Gustafson presided at the meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Tom Scheinost and Mrs. Ben Nelson.

MRS. J. R. GALLAGHER learns how to use a fire extinguisher during the fire drill May 10 at St. Anthony's hospital. Other hospital personnel join her in fighting a fire which had been deliberately set in the hospital parking area to assist them in combating any fire which might start in the future.

Crumly Named Valedictorian At Page High

PAGE—Seven Page high school seniors received diplomas during the commencement exercises Tuesday evening in the Page auditorium.

Bonnie Crumly was announced as valedictorian of her class and was awarded a scholarship to Wayne State Teachers college. Dennis Ickes was named salutatorian and he received a scholarship to Norfolk Junior college.

In 1953 Mr. Harkins received a 30-year certificate from the Nebraska Lumber Merchants association in recognition of his long service.

Since baseball is one of Mr. Harkins' hobbies he likes to recall the no hit, no run game he pitched as a young fellow when pitching for a Webster City, Ia., team.

Mr. and Mrs. Harkins celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary June 4, 1960.

Bonnie Crumly

Dennis Ickes

Delivering the address was Lee DeBoer and his speech was entitled, "The $100,000 Jolopy." The Rev. Mina Smith gave the invocation and benediction.

Supt. Dale Lewis presented the class and Harold Melcher presented diplomas. Ron Park announced the awards.

Mrs. Faye Taylor presented the eighth grade class and Harold Melcher handed them their diplomas.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening with the Rev. Mina Smith as guest speaker. Aletha Rutherford was pianist for both evenings.

Rites Held for Clifford Leach At Sioux City

PAGE—Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Sioux City for Clifford P. Leach, 75, Page, who died Monday at his home after a lengthy illness.

Rev. Lyle Newman of Neligh conducted the services.

Mr. Leach was born November 9, 1885 at Running Water, S. D. He was one of the youngest pilots to operate boats on the Missouri river. He was associated with boat operation with his father, Capt. Jess Leach of Running Water, and was master mate and pilot on the excursion boat Josephine which operated out of Sioux City at the turn of the century.

He went to Sioux City in 1902 and was an engineer for the Milwaukee railroad before he retired, moving to Page. He was a member of the Page Methodist church and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Survivors include the widow, Celestine; two sons, Willard J. Cook Lake, S. D., and Jack R. Bellingham, Wash.; a daughter, Mrs. O. Jackson, Aurora, Ore.; 11 grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren and a brother, Willard, Bismarck, N. D.

John Moore Honored For Perry Infant

John L. Moore, native of Greeley and brother of Leo Moore of O'Neill, has been presented the President's Award of the West Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce.

Moore, administrator of the Federal General Service Administration, is on extended leave of absence as business vice president of the University of Pennsylvania.

Harkins Retires from Inman Lumber Business; Completes 63 Years

INMAN—Mark Harkins of Inman has retired after 63 years of continuous service in the lumber business, and is preparing to devote his time to gardening, baseball and fishing.

Mr. Harkins has worked 28 years in Inman for the Pink-bine Lumber company of Iowa, first becoming associated with this company in 1904 in Duncombe, Ia. His first lumber job was with the Fullerton Lumber company in Griswold, Ia., in 1898.

In 1953 Mr. Harkins received a 30-year certificate from the Nebraska Lumber Merchants association in recognition of his long service.

Since baseball is one of Mr. Harkins' hobbies he likes to recall the no hit, no run game he pitched as a young fellow when pitching for a Webster City, Ia., team.

Mr. and Mrs. Harkins celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary June 4, 1960.

Services Held At Bristow for Mrs. V. M. Bayne

BRISTOW—Mrs. Verne M. Bayne, 90, of Bristow died Friday in the Sacred Heart hospital in Lynch.

Services were held Monday afternoon in the Rosedale Covenant church here with the Rev. D. Elroy Anderson officiating. Interment was in the Gross cemetery at Gross, under the direction of the Jones Funeral home in Spencer.

Verne M. Headley was born December 4, 1879 in Ohio to Michael and Nancy Kinsey Headley.

She was married to Joseph Marshall Bayne October 27, 1895 at Gross. Mrs. Bayne moved to Bristow in 1955 and lived here until her death.

Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Olson, Gross; two grandchildren; five great grandchildren; two brothers, Charles, Bristow, and Ray, Wahoo, and one sister, Mrs. Clara Carrioco, Elgin.

Pallbearers were Ted Lauts, Wilbur Hume, Fred Fuhrer, Ivan Hatt, E. A. Choro and Stanley Prokop.

Rites Held for John Edwards At Ewing

ORCHARD—Funeral services were held here May 6 for John William Edwards, 73, who died May 2 in the Plainview hospital after a lingering illness.

The Rev. Mr. Burke officiated at the rites in St. Peter's Catholic church in Ewing. Burial was in the Orchard cemetery.

John Edwards was born at Newark, Wis., April 25, 1888 to John and Celia Edwards.

On January 24, 1912 he was united in marriage to Mabel Meuret in St. Peter's Catholic church at Ewing. To this couple were born six children, four sons and two daughters. In 1946 the family moved to Orchard.

Survivors include his wife; four sons, George, Council Bluffs, Ia., Delos and Arthur, Blair, and William, Lincoln; two daughters, Catherine Everhard, Blair, and Millie, Orchard; 14 grandchildren; 3 great grandchildren, and one brother, Delos, Shirland, Ill.

Pallbearers were Lloyd Twibell, Sam Trussell, Thomas Holliday, Lloyd Holliday, Rudy Cedarberg and Raymond Stevens.

Services Planned At Lynch for Mrs. Inger Levi

LYNCH—Mrs. Inger Levi, 77, of Lynch died Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart hospital here after a lengthy illness.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. in the First Methodist church at Lynch. The body will lie in state until Friday at the Jones Funeral home in Lynch.

She is survived by one son, Lloyd, Lind