A Poem From Mrs. Eby...

—His Mother's Song— Beneath the hot midsummers sun the men had marched all day; And now beside a rippling stream upon the grass they lay.

"I fear I cannot please", he said; "The only songs I know" Are those my mother used to sing for me, long years ago.

Then sweetly rose the singer's voice amid unwanted calm, "Am I a soldier of the cross, A follower of the Lamb?

Ending the song the singer said as to his feet he rose, "Thanks to you all my friends, good night, God grant us sweet repose".

We'll sing this old familiar air sweet as the bugle call, "All hail the power of Jesus name, Let angels prostrate fall."

The songs are done, the camp is still, naught but the stream is heard; But oh! the depths of every soul by those old hymns are stirred, And up from many a bearded lip in whispers soft and low, Rises the prayer the mother taught her boy long years ago.

Letters to the Editor

Every citizen of O'Neill will have the opportunity to strike a blow in the cause of liberty this Memorial Day, May 30, 1961, and such a blow can be struck from no further than each front door or lawn here.

Our nation is in the midst of troubled times. Because America's enemies believe that the Nation is suffering from disunity, we are the target of the threat of World Communism. Encouraged by any sign which might indicate internal weakness here, the forces seeking world domination have promoted a growing disrespect of other nations toward American Motives, and have initiated open attacks on the American way of life.

These challenges must be answered with a display of national unity unequalled in our country's history—if our Nation is to survive the present peril it faces. There can be no stronger evidence of this country's unity than the display of the flag of the United States by each and every household. This can be America's answer to those who believe we have weakened from our dedication to the cause of freedom and dignity of the individual.

We here in O'Neill can declare our part in this expression of national unity. Let's all display this symbol of America's unity and love on Memorial Day American Legion Post 93 Virg Tomlinson, Cmndr.
