

SPORTS

In The Batter's Box

Elkhorn Valley

In the Elkhorn Valley Little League Association, the league leading West O'Neill Braves romped over Emmet Sunday 35-5. Bruce Spittler smashed a grand slam homer for the winners, Jim Booth and Russ Johnson also contributed circuit clouts for the Braves. Bob Riley was the winning pitcher, Cole took the loss.

In other Elkhorn Valley play, Spencer's Havranek shut out East O'Neill 4-0, the loss was the first of the year in league play for the Cardinals. Randy Nickerson took the loss on the mound for O'Neill despite his pitching a fine game.

ELKHORN VALLEY LEAGUE

Team	W	L
West O'Neill	5	0
East O'Neill	4	1
Atkinson	2	2
Ewing	2	2
Spencer	2	3
Stuart	1	3
Orchard	1	3
Emmet	1	4

City League

In City League competition, the Braves defeated the Cardinals 5-2. Jim Booth was the winning pitcher, Rick Cradit took the loss. Wednesday, June 14th, the Indians were scheduled to play the Cardinals (details of this game in next week's paper) and this Friday the East O'Neill Cardinals will play the West O'Neill Braves at the Cardinal Field, game time will be 8:00.

CITY LEAGUE STANDINGS

Team	W	L
Braves	3	0
Cardinals	1	2
Indians	0	2

Junior Legion

An unearned run in the top of the sixth inning gave the Orchard Junior Legion a 5-4 victory over the O'Neill Junior Legion in a game played at Orchard Friday night. The loss was the second of the season for the local Legion in league competition.

Fred Cronk was the winning pitcher in the seven-inning contest. Norm Wettlaufer took the loss. Both hurlers went the distance in a tight mound duel. Cronk struck out eight while walking two, Wettlaufer fanned five and also gave up two bases on balls.

Orchard scored five runs on five hits, one of these a double.

MILLER THEATER
ATKINSON
One Show Nightly 8 o'clock
Thurs.-Fri.-Sat. June 15-16-17

JOE DAKOTA
with MARONEY and PATTON with MCGRAW and LAWRENCE
PLUS
Chartreuse Caboose
with MOLLY BEE
with BEN COOPER
with EDGAR BUCHANAN

Sun.-Mon.-Tues.-Wed. June 18-19-20-21
Where the Boys Are with DOLORES HART - GEORGE HAMILTON with JIM HUTTON - YVETTE MIAMET

by Tom Rundquist in the third inning. The visitors opened the scoring with three runs in the third frame, O'Neill came back and drove three across in their half of the fourth. Ray Belina accounted for two of O'Neill's four runs, the loser's five hits were evenly distributed throughout their lineup.

The O'Neill Junior played host to Burke, S. D., Tuesday night and was handed a 9-2 loss by the visitors. Denny Wentz went the distance on the mound for Burke while leading his teammates at the plate with three singles.

O'Neill scored two runs on only three hits, one of these a double by third-baseman Lyle Stewart in the fifth inning. Ray Belina started for O'Neill but lacked field support while giving up five hits and was relieved by Keith Reynolds with one down and two on in the third frame. The veteran lefty promptly struck out the side and the local nine went into the final four innings trailing 5-0. Reynolds finished the game for the losers, he struck out seven and walked only two in his four and two-thirds innings relief stint.

Mike Hammond collected three hits in three trips to the plate for the winners, two of these hits were doubles. Jerry Oetzer and Ivan Harley hammered triples and Jerry Donohoe scored four runs in the winning cause. The O'Neill boys racked opposing pitchers for 17 hits.

The winning pitcher was Joe Shoemaker. The loser started on the mound for Orchard. Bjornsen and Schuster came on to relieve. Shoemaker gave up only three hits while going all the way. Two of these hits were singles by Bjornsen, the other was a single by Von Seggren in the third inning.

The local Midgets backed Shoemaker with fine field performance in the five-inning contest.

T-Shirt League

In the first round of action in O'Neill's "T" Shirt League, the Yankees beat the Dodgers 10-5. The White Sox clobbered the Giants 24-4, and the Tigers romped over the Senators 22-2. The standings and more details of games will be featured as the league's season progresses.

Town Team

Hard luck in the form of tight pitching opposition slowed down the O'Neill Town Team this week. At Orchard Thursday night the local town teamers were held to two runs on three hits as they fell to the North Central Nebraska League leading Orchard Town Team 23-2. Larry Heiss was the winning pitcher, Lloyd Hillgas took the loss but his team-mates committed seven errors behind him. Darold Graham and Chuck Smith made relief pitching appearances for the losers.

Sunday night Battle Creek scored six runs in the bottom of the first inning and coasted to a 20-1 romp over the local Town Team. Lambert Belina and Al Carson each had three hits apiece in the losing cause, Jerry Reeves and Tom Stover led Battle Creek with three hits each.

Carson started on the mound for O'Neill and took the loss, he was relieved by Hillgas and Gene Couch. The winners collected 17 hits to O'Neill's seven. Edwards was the winning pitcher, he went the distance for Battle Creek.

They Meant Well

AMELIA — Sally Landrum had a pleasant birthday surprise last week. A telephone call from her mother, Mrs. Gloria Landrum, who is attending medical school in St. Louis, Mo.

The call was arranged as a birthday gift from Miss Landrum's aunt, Mrs. Margie Sammons, and it was indeed welcome to Sally, her mother and Mrs. Sammons enjoyed a long conversation.

Only one thing went wrong—they forgot to wish Sally a "happy birthday."

Box Elder Trees Hit By Worms in Royal Area

ROYAL — Much concern is being expressed in Royal and vicinity over the loss of foliage on box elder trees.

According to reports, worms cause the foliage loss by stripping the leaves and leaving the bare branches.

Morrison Visits Atkinson on Tour Of Tourist Spots

ATKINSON — A chartered bus carrying the Governor and Mrs. Frank Morrison and a group of about 25 other state dignitaries arrived in Atkinson Monday morning and was greeted by Atkinson Chamber of Commerce members and other local business leaders and their wives.

Coffee and rolls were served to the group at the city park in north Atkinson.

This was one of many stops on the planned five-day 1,000 mile tour to the various tourist spots in this section of the state which carries them through north-eastern, central and western Nebraska. This tour is for the purpose of studying the possibilities of a chartered or scheduled tourists route.

Sunday the group visited the Niobrara State park and had dinner with the Crofton Chamber of Commerce. They spent Monday night in Valentine and then proceeded to other communities.

Charles Chace, former Atkinson attorney, was with the group.

Special Prices NORCO

40% Hog Supplement as low as $99.00 per ton through June 24, 1961
Complete Beef Starter Creep Feed
As low as $53.00
Through August 1, 1961
Tompkins Livestock
Headquarters
Inman, Phone 34

8-9c

OES Holds Meeting; 67 Guests Attend

Approximately 67 Order of Eastern Star members and guests attended a regular meeting of the Symphony Chapel No. 316 in the IOOF hall Thursday evening.

Guest chapters were present from Butte, Stuart and Ewing, as well as guests from Columbus. J. Audrey Wood, Ewing worthy patron assisted in the initiatory work.

A report on grand chapter held recently in Lincoln, was given by Mrs. Ceacil Osenbaugh and Mrs. James McMahan, Inman who attended the convention as did Mrs. Evelyn Gray. Mrs. Osenbaugh was elected president of the Rose association of secretaries and treasurers in Nebraska.

Noffke Joins SWCD Staff

Milvern H. Noffke started work at the Holt Soil and Water Conservation District office last Monday.

Mr. Noffke will be working in the District with other Soil Conservation service employees during the summer. He is taking part in the student training program of the Soil Conservation service.

Mr. Noffke will be a senior at the University of Nebraska next fall where he is majoring in range management. He is president of Alpha Gamma Sigma, a professional Agricultural fraternity. He spent last summer working for the Soil Conservation service in Colorado.

He is single and a native of Grand Island where he has a farm background of both irrigated farming and ranch operations. He is a member of the Lutheran church and is living at the Bower Apartments at 705 East Douglas Street in O'Neill.

A. Robertsons To Observe 25th Anniversary

ORCHARD — Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Robertson will hold open house at their home in Orchard June 25 in observance of their golden wedding anniversary which occurs on January 25.

The event is being held this month as their children are unable to get here during the winter.

They have seven children, Glenn, Scottsbluff, Mrs. Roy Young, Ewing, Dale, Plainview, Minn., Mrs. Stanley Porter, Wayne, Mrs. Gale Orr, Lebanon, Ore., and Mrs. Clayton Johnson, Verdigris; 20 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. A daughter, Fern, and one grandchild are deceased.

Mr. Robertson was born in Craig January 23, 1892 to Franklin and Sarah Broadstone Ellis. The family moved to Antelope county in 1909, locating at Orchard. Mrs. Robertson has lived in Antelope county since 1909 except one year in Colorado.

She attended rural schools three years in Brownville and the same length of time in Orchard. It was in the Christian church at Orchard that she and Mr. Robertson met.

Mr. Robertson was born December 9, 1887 at Bee to William and Gertrude Bunion Robertson. His childhood was spent in Seward county and he attended school in town; also at Wayne Teachers college and business college in Lincoln.

The couple was married in the home of the bride's parents at Orchard with J. W. Mills, minister of the United Brethren church officiating. Attendants were Hazel Ellis and Arthur Robertson, both of whom are living. The wedding dinner was served at home.

Mrs. Robertson wore a white cashmere wedding dress fashioned with gored skirt, ruffled neckline, three quarter length sleeves, and with insertion trimming.

On June 25 the family will attend services together and the sermon will be given by Dale Robertson, a minister of the Church of Christ, Plainview, Minn. Following the service the family will have dinner at the American Legion hall. Open house will be at the residence from 2:30 to 5 p.m.

Services Held At Orchard for George Voorhies

ORCHARD — Funeral services were conducted June 4 at the Hamilton Mortuary in Orchard for George S. Voorhies, 71, Neligh who died May 31 at the Neligh hospital after an illness of three years.

The Rev. Duane Lenz officiated at the services. Burial was in the Orchard cemetery.

George Samuel Voorhies was born January 4, 1890 to J. W. and Laura Voorhies at Orchard. He was married to Elizabeth Voorman, Kent, Wash., one son, George Francis Elgin; three brothers, Wilber R., Olympia, Wash., Wilson A., Norfolk, and Walter C., Omaha; four sisters, Mrs. R. E. Trautman and Mrs. Clarence Curtis, Royal; Mrs. Glen Miller, O'Neill, and Mrs. Kenneth Miller, Neligh; seven grandchildren and one great granddaughter.

Rites Held for E. R. Girard in California

Funeral services were held June 8 in San Francisco for Edward R. Girard, 75, who died June 6 in Notre Dame hospital in San Francisco.

The funeral took place at the Mortuary of Carey and English and then at Cecilia's church where a requiem mass was offered. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery.

Mr. Girard, a retired communications executive who played a major role in the development of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, had many friends in O'Neill. His wife, the former Lenore Daly, was reared here and on a ranch near Mineola, and she attended St. Mary's academy. Her sister, Mrs. J. J. Harrington, lives in O'Neill.

Mr. Girard was a communications engineer for Chicago Automatic Electric company and first came to San Francisco in 1922 "on loan" to assist in the merger of the companies which later became Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

He was assigned in 1936 by the Chicago firm to the Orient, serving first in Shanghai and later in Manila, where he was interned 38 months in the Santo Thomas prisoner of war camp. He was liberated by our paratroopers and returned to the states (72 pounds lighter) in April, 1945.

After a brief rest he returned to the Chicago office. Shortly after, he took a leave from the Automatic Electric company, and shipped out for a 13-month rehabilitation job with the War Department in Seoul, Korea.

Mr. Girard was retired from the Automatic in 1956 and went to San Francisco, where he is survived by his wife, Lenore of 2261 Cecelia Avenue; a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Maring, San Francisco; a granddaughter, and two sisters in Oak Park, Ill.

O'Neill Locals

Out of town relatives attending the funeral of John Sullivan were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lavey, Mrs. Mildred Lavey, Joe Sparks, John Spellman and Ed Spellman, all of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dwyer and son, Kevin, Denver; George O'Brien and Dick Davis, Grand Island; Bob Hynes, Minneapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hynes and family, Glendora, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fraber of Omaha came Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Harrington, Sunday the Frabers left for a two week vacation in the Black Hills and Yellowstone Park. They will also visit Mrs. Fraber's aunt, Mrs. Paul Combs at Sinclair, Wyo. The Fraber's son, Kevin remained with his grandparents.

The daughters are planning a picnic in Ford park Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hoffman Entertains

EWING — The HHH Extension club met at the home of Mrs. Joe Hoffman Thursday with 12 members present, each wearing a hat they created. Following the reading of the creed and the singing of a song composed by the song leader, Mrs. Vearl Tuttle, roll call was answered by each member briefly describing some vacation spot visited in Nebraska. A history on hats was given by Mrs. Vincent Thiele. Lunch was served by the hostess. Next meeting will be in Neligh at the home of Mrs. Carl Thiele. Mrs. Herb Kurggweit, Clearwater, reporter.

Club Members Meet

EWING — The Sandhill Gals met at the home of Mrs. Archie Cleveland Thursday at which time Mrs. Leo Lydon gave the lesson on "Vacations in Nebraska". Mrs. Lydon also presided at the meeting. There were 10 members present. There will not be a meeting in July or August. Mrs. Cleveland served refreshments. Mrs. Marcus Pierson, reporter.

BBC Members Meet

Members of the Beginners Bridge club met June 7 at the home of Mrs. Donald Younie. In the playing of cards prizes were won by Mrs. Mary Ann Herrsen and Mrs. Robert Forwood, guests, and Mrs. Orville Nickerson.

Enjoy Fishing Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clauson and their houseguests, M/Sgt. and Mrs. D. L. Shaw and children, Duana Lou and Duane Jr., of Lebanon, Mo., spent three days at Ft. Randall in Clausons' house-trailer and enjoyed fishing at the lake. The guests arrived here Friday and returned to their home Wednesday morning. Mr. Shaw is a nephew of Mrs. Clauson, and is a former resident of this community.

SELL AT AUCTION

3 Bedroom House in O'Neill
Has full basement, large kitchen and living room, good lawn.
In cool quiet neighborhood at 225 W. Hancock, O'Neill.

Thursday, June 29 1:30 - 3 p.m.

LAVERN STEVENS, Owner

Ed Thorin, Licensed Real Estate Broker

House may be inspected by contacting owner at above address or Ed Thorin.

Annual Report

Members of the Waistline Whittlers club, started in August, 1959, have compiled a report of the club's activities. Nine members have lost 131 and one-fourth pounds since the club's beginning. Mrs. Durl Anderson lost the most, 55 pounds, and Mrs. Howard Vestman was next with 43 pounds. The average loss was 14 and one-half pounds per person. In the past six months, the members lost 66 pounds with Mrs. Newton leading with 23, Mrs. Don Cleveland with 19 and Mrs. Irene Frickel 11 and one-half pounds. New members are welcome in the club. The next meeting will be Friday at the home of Mrs. Anderson, 301 West Hancock.

Mrs. Jokumsen Honored

LYNCH—On June 3 a post-nuptial shower was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Jokumsen. Games were played and a program was presented. The bride, the former Joyce Holz, was assisted in the opening of her gifts by her mother, Mrs. Harlan Holz, and two sisters, Marlene and Virginia Holz. Guests were members of the Wesleyan Methodist church at Lynch and relatives of the bride.

Meet at Walter Fick's

The Grattan Hustlers 4-H club met at the Walter Fick home recently with 15 members present. Keith Krugman presented a talk about the range judging terms trip to Oklahoma and Gary Fick gave his 4-H contest speech. The garden project members were given a tour of Wally Fick's garden. Mrs. Fick and Mrs. McDonald served lunch. Michael Shell, reporter.

Visits Here

CHAMBERS—Roger Harley arrived Thursday evening from Long Beach, Calif., for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harley, Carolyn and Gerald. For the past three years Roger has been enrolled in the Orange Coast Junior college at Costa Mesa and Long Beach State college in California. He is majoring in mechanical engineering.

Miss Mary Venteicher of Norfolk returned home Sunday after visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Sauser for a week.

Miss Betty Schultz, who recently returned from a cross-country tour with the Covenant Youth Caravan for Christ, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. John Kersenbrock and Mr. Kersenbrock. She went to Hastings Sunday where she enrolled at Hastings college for summer classes.

Sunday guests of Mrs. William Gatz were Mr. and Mrs. Cahrls Gatz of Niobrara.

Little Taneau Klasna returned home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norm Klasna, Lincoln, Sunday after spending two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Miner.

Dorsey News

By Mrs. Harold Osborn

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mitchell were June 1 visitors at the Gordon Barta home; also with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carson and Jesse Carson, who has come to spend the summer at the Edward Carson home, after spending the winter in Missouri.

Mrs. Harold Osborn and Ruth and Claude Pickering were business callers at the Gordon Barta home Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Miller and Marilyn were Wednesday evening visitors there.

Mrs. Al Prenting (Elsie Wilson) from Hood River, Ore., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thea Hiseocks from Wednesday to Thursday evening. The Hiseocks then accompanied her to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Slack, where she visited until Saturday. They then all drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wells and visited. Mrs. Prinzing returned to O'Neill to visit other relatives and friends.

Jerry Thackston spent the week at the Marvin Drobny farm. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Derickson, called for him Sunday.

Sgt. and Mrs. Vernon Oleson and son arrived at the Harold Osborn home Friday for a visit. Sgt. Oleson is stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. The Olesons spent Sunday at Geddes, S. D., with the Charley Olesons and visited other relatives at Lake Andes.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Greene visited at the Harold Osborn home Friday evening.

Rodrick Hughes arrived home from Milford where he has been attending college.

Marion Rosenkrans spent the past week in O'Neill where she taught a class for Bible school at the Assembly of God church.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Caldwell and daughter were Sunday dinner guests at the Gordon Barta home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leman Huber and Mr. and Mrs. Buss Greene enjoyed a wiener roast and picnic supper at the Harold Osborn home Sunday evening.

Callers at the Marvin Drobny home Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Joe Hrbek and Kathy, Ed Hrbek and Larry and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wells took their little daughter, Donna, to Sioux City Wednesday for a check-up. Donna is coming along nicely but still must be under the doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graham and family visited at the Frank Derickson home Friday evening.

Arthur Hrbek was a caller at the Osborn home Thursday.

Chambers News

By Mrs. E. R. Carpenter

The Bible school program was held at the Methodist church Sunday morning from 10:30 a.m. to 12. There was a very good attendance and the program was well presented. Mrs. Duane K. Miller was the president and in charge. The Memorial Baptist church held its program Friday evening.

The annual school meeting of District 137 was held Monday evening at the school auditorium in Chambers. All members of the school board were present. The board reported that all teaching positions had been filled both in town and the six country schools in the district.

Diane Miller, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane K. Miller of Chambers, had her tonsils removed at St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Roe of Dana Point, Calif. came Memorial Day and are spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walter, and visiting brothers, Art, Louis and Eddie Walters and their families.

Mrs. Lella Grubb, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Adams, Roseanne Blake, Mrs. Stanley Elkins, Rod and Darrell and Mrs. Gaius Wintermute, all of Chambers, and Mrs. L. Wolf, O'Neill, attended the June 9 commencement exercises at Lincoln high school in which Patricia Grubb was a graduating senior. The commencement for the 475 senior was held in Pershing Municipal auditorium, Lincoln at 8 p.m. Relatives and several friends also attended a reception in the Bayne Grubb home after the exercises.

Mrs. Faye Pinkerman of O'Neill and Mrs. Elsie Prinzing of Hood River, Ore., visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reynolds and family Thursday evening.

ROYAL THEATER

Thursday, June 15
Entire Family $1.00
DAYS OF THRILLS AND LAUGHTER
Douglas Fairbanks Charlie Chaplin
Laurel and Hardy Houdini
Pearl White Harry Langdon

Fri.-Sat. June 16-17
THE SAVAGE INNOCENTS
Anthony Quinn Yoko Tani

Sun.-Mon.-Tues. June 18-19-20
THE TRAPP FAMILY
In Color

Wed.-Thurs. June 21-22
Entire Family $1.00
ELEPHANT WALK
Elizabeth Taylor Dana Andrews
Peter Finch
In Technicolor

INSURANCE

Hospitalization

Mutual of Omaha

LIFE

United of Omaha

Oscar Spitzberger

Box 667 Telephone 888

O'Neill, Nebr.

Office at

429 North 3rd Street

381f

NOTICE

Members of the O'Neill Cycle Club will assist in traffic control during the Rodeo Parade Friday

Evening.

The Public's Cooperation Will Be Appreciated

Chris McGinn

Chief of Police

POPULAR GIFTS FOR FATHERS DAY

SAUNTO'S

SHIRTS

TIES

SOX

HATS

SLACKS

JACKETS

SHOES

BOOTS

All Standard Brands

We carry a complete line of

Western wear for men

WELCOME TO THE RODEO

SAUNTO'S

Phone 197-W

The regular meeting of the Beautiful Valley Garden club was held June 6 at the home of Mildred Hoffman with 10 members present. The President read the May and June letter from the district director. The date for the club picnic is set for June 27. The Horticulture talk "It's Biennial time" was given by Delores Hoffman. Fight the Bill Board Blight" from the National Garden was given by Elsie Campbell. Door prize was drawn by Mildred Hoffman. Hostess' arrangement was judged and lunch was served. Elsie Campbell, reporter.

Inman News

By Mrs. James McMahan

Marilyn Siders spent from Wednesday until Saturday visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Juracek and family, at Orchard.