Sally Glee Kotas Weds Donald Edwards At Spencer

SPENCER—Baskets of white gladioli and candelabra decorated the altar of the United Lutheran church in Spencer for the wedding Sunday afternoon, June 11, of Miss Sally Glee Kotas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kotas, Fort Collins, Colo., and Donald B. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Edwards, Spencer.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2 p.m. by the Rev. Hugh Dowler. The soloist was Mrs. Hugh Dowler, accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Pucelik, organist.

The bride appeared in a floor length gown of hand-clipped Chantilly lace, an original by Alfred Angelo. The snug-fitting bodice of lace featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline defined by a delicate sprinkling of iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The full, flowing skirt was fashioned with a front panel of cascading tulle ruffles edged in imported lace, ending in an aisle-wide train. Her triple-tier veil of imported tulle was accented with tiny seed pearls and was caught by a crown of iridescent orange blossoms. She carried a lavender orchid on a white Bible with cascades of lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Nancy Kotas, Fort Collins, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Roland Kersch, Miss Darlene Friedrich, Lincoln, and Miss Nancy Row, Omaha, wore identical frocks of silk chiffon, ballerina length. They were fashioned with surplice bodices, cap sleeves and full gathered skirts. With the gowns they wore hats of matching organza with halo veils, and carried colonial nosegays.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Dennis Edwards, Atkinson. Groomsmen were Dennis Damlar, Russell, Kan., Norman Klasna, Lincoln, and Roland Kersch, Danny Dahl and Ronnie Puppe, Scribner, were ushers.

Following the ceremony there was a reception for approximately 200 in the church parlor. Mrs. Ed Johnson acted as hostess, and Mrs. Ronald Grover, Fremont, cut the cake. Mrs. Manis Edwards, Omaha, and Miss Caroline Embody, Atkinson, poured. Mrs. Harold Hume, Norfolk, Miss Judy Dvorak, Fremont, and the Misses Donna and Judy Embody, Atkinson, served. Mrs. Dennis Edwards, Atkinson, had charge of the guestbook, and Miss Jeanette Osborne, Atkinson, and Mrs. Norman Klasna, Lincoln, looked after the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of Spencer high school. She is presently employed by Anderson's Jewelers, Fremont.

Mr. Edwards, who is associated with the Apco Oil company of Fremont, attended Midland college, Fremont.

After their wedding trip to Estes Park, Colo., the couple will reside at 340 E. 9th Street, Fremont.
