Servicemen's News Serving with the staff of Commander Seventh Fleet on board the heavy cruiser USS Saint Paul in the Western Pacific is Gary W. Holly, radioman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley N. Holly of 730 E. Clay st., O'Neill. The cruiser recently completed an extensive South Pacific cruise, visiting Taiwan, Hong Kong, Japan, Jesselton (North Borneo) and Port Swettenham (Malaya). Between Jesselton and Port Swettenham, members of the staff and crew of the Saint Paul were traditionally initiated at the Equator in "crossing the line" ceremonies. Completing a seven-week southern cruise in the Pacific aboard the Seventh Fleet heavy cruiser USS Saint Paul when she returned to Yokosuka, Japan, May 22, was Reed R. Tomjack, boat-swain' mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo S. Tomjack of O'Neill, Nebr. Highlighting the cruise was the crossing of the equator, the legendary domain of King Neptune. While in these waters, 550 of the crew "polliwogs"—sailors who have never crossed the equator—were subjected to various trials and tests of endurance in determination of their eligibility to enter Neptune's realm. The traditional rites were performed as the heavy cruiser steamed along the equator for 80 miles in a downpour of intermittent equator-
