

Orchard News

Mrs. Wilbur Mahood
Phone TW 3-3185

A prenuptial shower honoring Miss Holbeck was held Friday night in the basement of the EUB church with mothers of Orchard high school graduating class of 1959 as hostesses. Mrs. Clifford Erb was at the guest book. The program was in charge of Mrs. Jim Cooper and consisted of a vocal solo by Mrs. Glen Miller, piano solo, Genevieve Lautenschlager, reading, Mrs. Harold Mitchell, and girls trio, Lou Ann, Lorinda Erb and Valerie Dempster. There were 50 guests present. The decorations were pink and white. Miss Holbeck, a beauty operator in Ewing, and Terry Erb of Orchard will be married this summer.

Mrs. Flora Young was a patient in the Planview hospital from Friday afternoon until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dempster spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ross at Wessington Springs, S. D.

Ralph Whitely of Lancaster, Calif., and Wayne Dempster and Betty of Laurel were Monday visitors in the home of Oliver Dempster.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter LaFrenz of Orchard and Capt. and Mrs. Robert LaFrenz of Ames, Ia., attended the ceremonies at the Civic auditorium in Omaha for the graduates of Creighton University June 7.

Wilmer Young and Eddie McCarthy of O'Neill left Sunday morning on a vacation trip through Connecticut, New York and other Eastern states.

Thelma Drayton from Alvo is spending an indefinite time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Drayton.

Mrs. C. E. Everhart and Mrs. Gordon Drayton were Ewing callers Saturday morning.

Mrs. Millie Mahood was a business visitor in Neligh Thursday morning.

The Rev. D. Lenz visited T. A. Drayton Friday, who is a patient at the Memorial hospital, Sioux City, Ia.

Bridge met with Mrs. Howard Bradstreet, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Ted Berry, Mrs. Allen Hill, and Mrs. D. L. Fletcher won prizes in the playing of cards.

Bridgetts Bridge club met with Mrs. Glenda Walton, Mrs. Gyle Clifton was a guest, Mrs. Lily Schleusemer and Mrs. Duard Dempster won prizes. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Carl Ash June 20.

Worldway club met with Mrs. Hannah Johnson Friday afternoon to help celebrate her birthday with all members present. Bridge was played. Prizes went to Mrs. D. L. Fletcher, Mrs. Henry Drayton and Mrs. Millie Mahood.

Mrs. Mahood baked the birthday cake and furnished the lunch. Mrs. Blanche Fletcher furnished the prizes. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Blanche Fletcher July 24.

Mrs. Roy Goakey returned home from the Neligh hospital after spending a few days there.

Mrs. Harry Holbrook sr. entered the Memorial hospital at Lincoln the first of the week for minor surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown and son, Terry, from Liberal, Kan., were Sunday and Monday guests in the Mrs. Millie Mahood home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wilson and Mrs. Bertha Grove spent the weekend in Wayne visiting in the Deahn Grove and Cletas Sharer homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Butterfield and Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bruce spent the weekend fishing at Scout Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Noe of Morrill were weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mitchell. They attended the Nagel picnic Sunday.

At a special dedicatory service Sunday several memorials and gifts were dedicated at the EUB church. Four hearing aid phones in memory of J. Clifton sr., a large picture with light in memory of C. E. Everhart, three pictures for children's class rooms in memory of Craig Walmer, and two pictures for the youth room by the Youth Sunday School Class were presented and dedicated.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Buck of San Diego, Calif., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Buck.

Mrs. Ken Kohout and sons of St. Louis are spending a month visiting her mother, Mrs. Jennie Kohout, and with her sisters, Mrs. Burnard Kellogg and Mrs. John Arman Jr.

On Monday noon Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carpenter and Mrs. Ed Rettemier were honored at a picnic at the park. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Raff, Mr. and Mrs. Oris Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Sirek and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kellogg and family.

WSWS of the the Evangelical United Brethren church met Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors with 21 members present. Mrs. Harold Mitchell, president, presided over the business meeting.

The lesson leader was Mrs. Millie Mahood on the subject "United through the Study of His Word." The members were divided into two groups, Mrs. Lenz was leader of one group and the Rev. Mr. Lenz, leader of the second group. St. John 17 chapter and 14-24 verses were chosen for study. At the close of the study a joint group summary was given.

The meeting closed with a consecration service. Hostesses were Mesdames Boyd Mitchell, Leon Mitchell, Clyde Van Ostrand and Alfred Cleveland.

Sunset Chapter, No. 300, Order of the Eastern Star met Thursday evening with 24 members present. Mrs. Henry Drayton, worthy matron and Gordon Johnson, worthy patron, presided.

The Charter was drafted for the late J. W. Mahood, a member of the OES. Riley Rouse was soloist and Mrs. Riley Rouse was organist.

Edward Peppel spent from Monday until Wednesday in Omaha where he attended Grand Lodge and visited relatives and friends.

The Wild Rose Ramblers 4-H club and their families enjoyed a picnic supper June 4 at the Van Houtan farm. The children of the club hiked from the Keya Paha bridge to the VanHoutan farm, where they were met by their parents who came in cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kern and Lester Anderson and Gloria went to Yankton, S. D. Friday and brought Mrs. Anderson home from the hospital where she had been for minor surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewie Kormeyer and daughters and Joan Higgins left Thursday morning for Rapid City, where they visited with relatives. Their daughter, Marjorie, started working Friday at the Power House lodge at Key Stone for the summer. The rest of the family returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Katzer and family went to Lincoln Thursday to bring their daughter, Ruth, home from the University of Nebraska where Ruth attended the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rowgo of Lucas, S. D., came to the Philip Holmgren home Wednesday evening to visit with the Philip Holmgren family of Kearney.

A number of folks helped Mrs. Mary Nicalous celebrate her 93rd birthday at her home Friday afternoon. The honored guest was presented a cake that was baked and decorated by Mrs. Henry Stahlecker, which was served along with other lunch that was brought.

Mrs. Ed Stee and family of Long Pine and Cpt. Dorothy Nelson of Texas visited in the Lester Anderson home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davis were Friday evening visitors in the John Schonebaum home.

Norris Lowther and Howard A. Ragan of Waseca, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. John Silvers came by plane to the Carl Katzer home last Sunday for coffee. Dennis Katzer accompanied them back to the White Kitchen cafe for his first plane ride, where he was met by his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stoltenberg Sunday afternoon visitors in the Clarence Beam home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellwegger and daughter of Lodi, Calif., and the Hardman brothers arrived Thursday and spent until Friday in the Dave Fischer home.

Friday evening visitors in the Reinhold Fuhrer home to help Mrs. Fuhrer celebrate her birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schultz and Bob, Pat and Carolyn, Mrs. Anna Gosch and Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Stahlecker.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren jr. and sons of Kearney arrived Tuesday evening and spent until Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren.

Last Monday evening visitors in the Wayne Schonefeld home to help their son, Bruce, celebrate his first birthday and also the second wedding anniversary of the Schonefelds were Mrs. William Vogt and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zeisler and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vogt and family. They enjoyed some of the honored couple's wedding cake for lunch.

Miss Bonnie Vogt remained to spend a week's vacation with the Schonefelds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kramer and daughters of Lake Andes and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kramer and son, Randy, of Platte, S. D. were last Sunday afternoon visitors in the Pete Kramer home.

Edward Peppel spent from Monday until Wednesday in Omaha where he attended Grand Lodge and visited relatives and friends.

The Wild Rose Ramblers 4-H club and their families enjoyed a picnic supper June 4 at the Van Houtan farm. The children of the club hiked from the Keya Paha bridge to the VanHoutan farm, where they were met by their parents who came in cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kern and Lester Anderson and Gloria went to Yankton, S. D. Friday and brought Mrs. Anderson home from the hospital where she had been for minor surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewie Kormeyer and daughters and Joan Higgins left Thursday morning for Rapid City, where they visited with relatives. Their daughter, Marjorie, started working Friday at the Power House lodge at Key Stone for the summer. The rest of the family returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Katzer and family went to Lincoln Thursday to bring their daughter, Ruth, home from the University of Nebraska where Ruth attended the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rowgo of Lucas, S. D., came to the Philip Holmgren home Wednesday evening to visit with the Philip Holmgren family of Kearney.

A number of folks helped Mrs. Mary Nicalous celebrate her 93rd birthday at her home Friday afternoon. The honored guest was presented a cake that was baked and decorated by Mrs. Henry Stahlecker, which was served along with other lunch that was brought.

Mrs. Ed Stee and family of Long Pine and Cpt. Dorothy Nelson of Texas visited in the Lester Anderson home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davis were Friday evening visitors in the John Schonebaum home.

Norris Lowther and Howard A. Ragan of Waseca, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. John Silvers came by plane to the Carl Katzer home last Sunday for coffee. Dennis Katzer accompanied them back to the White Kitchen cafe for his first plane ride, where he was met by his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stoltenberg Sunday afternoon visitors in the Clarence Beam home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellwegger and daughter of Lodi, Calif., and the Hardman brothers arrived Thursday and spent until Friday in the Dave Fischer home.

Friday evening visitors in the Reinhold Fuhrer home to help Mrs. Fuhrer celebrate her birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schultz and Bob, Pat and Carolyn, Mrs. Anna Gosch and Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Stahlecker.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren jr. and sons of Kearney arrived Tuesday evening and spent until Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren.

Last Monday evening visitors in the Wayne Schonefeld home to help their son, Bruce, celebrate his first birthday and also the second wedding anniversary of the Schonefelds were Mrs. William Vogt and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zeisler and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vogt and family. They enjoyed some of the honored couple's wedding cake for lunch.

Miss Bonnie Vogt remained to spend a week's vacation with the Schonefelds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kramer and daughters of Lake Andes and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kramer and son, Randy, of Platte, S. D. were last Sunday afternoon visitors in the Pete Kramer home.

Edward Peppel spent from Monday until Wednesday in Omaha where he attended Grand Lodge and visited relatives and friends.

The Wild Rose Ramblers 4-H club and their families enjoyed a picnic supper June 4 at the Van Houtan farm. The children of the club hiked from the Keya Paha bridge to the VanHoutan farm, where they were met by their parents who came in cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kern and Lester Anderson and Gloria went to Yankton, S. D. Friday and brought Mrs. Anderson home from the hospital where she had been for minor surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewie Kormeyer and daughters and Joan Higgins left Thursday morning for Rapid City, where they visited with relatives. Their daughter, Marjorie, started working Friday at the Power House lodge at Key Stone for the summer. The rest of the family returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Katzer and family went to Lincoln Thursday to bring their daughter, Ruth, home from the University of Nebraska where Ruth attended the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rowgo of Lucas, S. D., came to the Philip Holmgren home Wednesday evening to visit with the Philip Holmgren family of Kearney.

A number of folks helped Mrs. Mary Nicalous celebrate her 93rd birthday at her home Friday afternoon. The honored guest was presented a cake that was baked and decorated by Mrs. Henry Stahlecker, which was served along with other lunch that was brought.

Mrs. Ed Stee and family of Long Pine and Cpt. Dorothy Nelson of Texas visited in the Lester Anderson home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davis were Friday evening visitors in the John Schonebaum home.

Norris Lowther and Howard A. Ragan of Waseca, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. John Silvers came by plane to the Carl Katzer home last Sunday for coffee. Dennis Katzer accompanied them back to the White Kitchen cafe for his first plane ride, where he was met by his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stoltenberg Sunday afternoon visitors in the Clarence Beam home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellwegger and daughter of Lodi, Calif., and the Hardman brothers arrived Thursday and spent until Friday in the Dave Fischer home.

Friday evening visitors in the Reinhold Fuhrer home to help Mrs. Fuhrer celebrate her birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schultz and Bob, Pat and Carolyn, Mrs. Anna Gosch and Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Stahlecker.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren jr. and sons of Kearney arrived Tuesday evening and spent until Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren.

Last Monday evening visitors in the Wayne Schonefeld home to help their son, Bruce, celebrate his first birthday and also the second wedding anniversary of the Schonefelds were Mrs. William Vogt and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zeisler and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vogt and family. They enjoyed some of the honored couple's wedding cake for lunch.

Miss Bonnie Vogt remained to spend a week's vacation with the Schonefelds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kramer and daughters of Lake Andes and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kramer and son, Randy, of Platte, S. D. were last Sunday afternoon visitors in the Pete Kramer home.

Edward Peppel spent from Monday until Wednesday in Omaha where he attended Grand Lodge and visited relatives and friends.

The Wild Rose Ramblers 4-H club and their families enjoyed a picnic supper June 4 at the Van Houtan farm. The children of the club hiked from the Keya Paha bridge to the VanHoutan farm, where they were met by their parents who came in cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kern and Lester Anderson and Gloria went to Yankton, S. D. Friday and brought Mrs. Anderson home from the hospital where she had been for minor surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewie Kormeyer and daughters and Joan Higgins left Thursday morning for Rapid City, where they visited with relatives. Their daughter, Marjorie, started working Friday at the Power House lodge at Key Stone for the summer. The rest of the family returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Katzer and family went to Lincoln Thursday to bring their daughter, Ruth, home from the University of Nebraska where Ruth attended the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rowgo of Lucas, S. D., came to the Philip Holmgren home Wednesday evening to visit with the Philip Holmgren family of Kearney.

A number of folks helped Mrs. Mary Nicalous celebrate her 93rd birthday at her home Friday afternoon. The honored guest was presented a cake that was baked and decorated by Mrs. Henry Stahlecker, which was served along with other lunch that was brought.

Mrs. Ed Stee and family of Long Pine and Cpt. Dorothy Nelson of Texas visited in the Lester Anderson home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davis were Friday evening visitors in the John Schonebaum home.

Norris Lowther and Howard A. Ragan of Waseca, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. John Silvers came by plane to the Carl Katzer home last Sunday for coffee. Dennis Katzer accompanied them back to the White Kitchen cafe for his first plane ride, where he was met by his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stoltenberg Sunday afternoon visitors in the Clarence Beam home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellwegger and daughter of Lodi, Calif., and the Hardman brothers arrived Thursday and spent until Friday in the Dave Fischer home.

Friday evening visitors in the Reinhold Fuhrer home to help Mrs. Fuhrer celebrate her birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schultz and Bob, Pat and Carolyn, Mrs. Anna Gosch and Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Stahlecker.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren jr. and sons of Kearney arrived Tuesday evening and spent until Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren.

Last Monday evening visitors in the Wayne Schonefeld home to help their son, Bruce, celebrate his first birthday and also the second wedding anniversary of the Schonefelds were Mrs. William Vogt and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zeisler and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vogt and family. They enjoyed some of the honored couple's wedding cake for lunch.

Miss Bonnie Vogt remained to spend a week's vacation with the Schonefelds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kramer and daughters of Lake Andes and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kramer and son, Randy, of Platte, S. D. were last Sunday afternoon visitors in the Pete Kramer home.

Edward Peppel spent from Monday until Wednesday in Omaha where he attended Grand Lodge and visited relatives and friends.

The Wild Rose Ramblers 4-H club and their families enjoyed a picnic supper June 4 at the Van Houtan farm. The children of the club hiked from the Keya Paha bridge to the VanHoutan farm, where they were met by their parents who came in cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kern and Lester Anderson and Gloria went to Yankton, S. D. Friday and brought Mrs. Anderson home from the hospital where she had been for minor surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewie Kormeyer and daughters and Joan Higgins left Thursday morning for Rapid City, where they visited with relatives. Their daughter, Marjorie, started working Friday at the Power House lodge at Key Stone for the summer. The rest of the family returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Katzer and family went to Lincoln Thursday to bring their daughter, Ruth, home from the University of Nebraska where Ruth attended the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rowgo of Lucas, S. D., came to the Philip Holmgren home Wednesday evening to visit with the Philip Holmgren family of Kearney.

A number of folks helped Mrs. Mary Nicalous celebrate her 93rd birthday at her home Friday afternoon. The honored guest was presented a cake that was baked and decorated by Mrs. Henry Stahlecker, which was served along with other lunch that was brought.

Mrs. Ed Stee and family of Long Pine and Cpt. Dorothy Nelson of Texas visited in the Lester Anderson home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davis were Friday evening visitors in the John Schonebaum home.

Norris Lowther and Howard A. Ragan of Waseca, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. John Silvers came by plane to the Carl Katzer home last Sunday for coffee. Dennis Katzer accompanied them back to the White Kitchen cafe for his first plane ride, where he was met by his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stoltenberg Sunday afternoon visitors in the Clarence Beam home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellwegger and daughter of Lodi, Calif., and the Hardman brothers arrived Thursday and spent until Friday in the Dave Fischer home.

Friday evening visitors in the Reinhold Fuhrer home to help Mrs. Fuhrer celebrate her birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schultz and Bob, Pat and Carolyn, Mrs. Anna Gosch and Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Stahlecker.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren jr. and sons of Kearney arrived Tuesday evening and spent until Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmgren.

Last Monday evening visitors in the Wayne Schonefeld home to help their son, Bruce, celebrate his first birthday and also the second wedding anniversary of the Schonefelds were Mrs. William Vogt and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zeisler and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vogt and family. They enjoyed some of the honored couple's wedding cake for lunch.

Miss Bonnie Vogt remained to spend a week's vacation with the Schonefelds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kramer and daughters of Lake Andes and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kramer and son, Randy, of Platte, S. D. were last Sunday afternoon visitors in the Pete Kramer home.

Edward Peppel spent from Monday until Wednesday in Omaha where he attended Grand Lodge and visited relatives and friends.

The Wild Rose Ramblers 4-H club and their families enjoyed a picnic supper June 4 at the Van Houtan farm. The children of the club hiked from the Keya Paha bridge to the VanHoutan farm, where they were met by their parents who came in cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kern and Lester Anderson and Gloria went to Yankton, S. D. Friday and brought Mrs. Anderson home from the hospital where she had been for minor surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewie Kormeyer and daughters and Joan Higgins left Thursday morning for Rapid City, where they visited with relatives. Their daughter, Marjorie, started working Friday at the Power House lodge at Key Stone for the summer. The rest of the family returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Katzer and family went to Lincoln Thursday to bring their daughter, Ruth, home from the University of Nebraska where Ruth attended the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rowgo of Lucas, S. D., came to the Philip Holmgren home Wednesday evening to visit with the Philip Holmgren family of Kearney.

A number of folks helped Mrs. Mary Nicalous celebrate her 93rd birthday at her home Friday afternoon. The honored guest was presented a cake that was baked and decorated by Mrs. Henry Stahlecker, which was served along with other lunch that was brought.

Mrs. Ed Stee and family of day to spend several days visiting her sister, Mrs. Grant Reber.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus Seih accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Everett Smith Thursday to the Black Hills. The Seih stopped at Weeksville, S. D. to visit with his brother, John Seih. They also visited in his sister's home, the Jay Darnells, at Peardmond and in the Harry Paulsen home in Rapid City, while the Everett Smiths visited with Darwin Smith of California at Rapid City. Both couples returned home Saturday.

Rosedale News

Carol Mohlerdorf
Phone 7374

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson drove to Sioux City Tuesday and brought back Russel Anderson from the hospital. Russel is staying at the Oscar Anderson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Berg were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Harry Holmgren home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Johnson and family visited Sunday afternoon with Oscar Anderson in Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hedell of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. Lew Martinson visited at the Fred Nelson home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mahlerdorf, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mahlerdorf and Carol, Ronnie Wiedner, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Landholm, the Rev. and Mrs. D. Elroy Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Hikko Johnson of Emery, S. D. were Sunday evening visitors at the Duane Mahlerdorf home helping Norma celebrate her birthday.

The Johnsons are visiting there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Snider and family were Monday evening visitors at the M. B. Nelson home.

Mrs. Morris Johnson and Lavon and Miss Elvin Johnson were Monday supper guests at the Edwood Martinson home. Evening visitors were Mr. and Mrs. David Landholm and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sonnicksen and Dennis of Fresno, Calif.

The Rosedale Covenant church held its Bible school June 5-9. They presented the program Friday evening with a large crowd attending. Around 35 children attended. Teachers were Mrs. Edwood Martinson, Janice Anderson, Carol Anderson, Karen Anderson, Mrs. Kenneth Johnson, Mrs. Ivar Johnson, Beverly Anderson, Carol Mahlerdorf and Mrs. Duane Mahlerdorf.

William Mahlerdorf called at the Harry Mahlerdorf home Wednesday afternoon.

Verdigre News

By Vac Randa

Sunday Evening the Catholic Social club of Tabor, S. D. presented a Czech Comedy Operetta in the local ZCZB Opera house to a large audience. The play was entitled "Vojaci of Muzik". Members of the cast were Mrs. Raymond Kostel, Mrs. Leonard Cimpl, Anton Cacek, Ernest M. Wagner, Leonard Rokusek, Laddie E. Kostel, James Kuera, Mrs. Laddie Kostel, Emil E. Rezac, and Edward L. Petrick. In between acts were Czech songs and musical numbers on accordion. Years ago Verdigre had a Czech Club that used to put on Czech plays, the last play in 1935.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Eldiva Jeddlicka Pavlik, presented a recital of her pupils in piano and voice in the ZCZB Hall to a large audience. The program included Joseph Pavlik, Sona Prokop, Marlene Jeddlicka, Robert and John Marshall, Ione, Cheryl and Debra Kruse, Beth Woodard, Connie Schreier, Teresa, Phillip and Stephen Schreier, Janet Rudloff, Penny Jerman, Jerry and Michael Sandoz, Neva and Keith Bartos, Lynn Dvorak, Marcia and Roger Liska, Marie and Norman Vonasek, Diana and Carolyn Carlson, Connie Kreyck and Mary Dryak. Mrs. Pavlik has been church organist at St. Wenceslaus Catholic church for over 25 years.

Sunday morning a bolt of lightning struck and burned a feed rack with several stacks of hay. This was at the Frank Bartos stock ranch about 15 miles west of Verdigre. An inch and a half of rain fell that morning.

John L. Pavlik—HNT, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Pavlik of Verdigre, is home spending a 13-day leave with his parents. When he leaves he will be assigned to the United States Naval hospital at Great Lakes, Ill. Pavlik is a graduate, 1959, of Verdigre high school. He enlisted through the Norfolk recruiting station in August, 1959.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dobrichovsky celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at their farm home 17 miles west of Verdigre May 25. Their evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dryak and family of Verd, Nebr., and they were hosts at a supper honoring the couple. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boham, son-in-law and daughter of the Dobrichovskys.

A group of fishermen left Verdigre early Sunday morning on a week's fishing trip to Canada where some of them have been fishing before. Those that left from Verdigre are Leonard Vonasek, Melvin Thompson, Joe J. Jacot, Anton Chochoussek, Walter Dobrichovsky, Johnny Volquardsen, Robert G. Sheckler, Fredrick Dittrick and Clarence Sommer. From Omaha was Lysle Hansen.

A kitchen shower was held June 6 at the Bethlehem Lutheran church basement honoring Miss Pauline Johnson.

The hostesses were Miss Ellen Dryak and Miss Gloria Cernousek. The entertainment consisted of various games which was followed by the opening of gifts by the bride-to-be. Lunch was served by Mrs. Ben Dryak and Mrs. Alfred Cernousek. There was a large attendance at the shower. Miss Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson, will marry Jerome Mott, June 18th at Verdigre.

Virgil Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erven Miller, and Tracy Thrapp, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Thrapp, who had recently enlisted in the National Guard left last week for Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., where they will be for six months basic training. The two Verdigre boys enlisted in April at O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thrapp, attended the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Methodist church at Omaha. The Thrapps were delegates to the conference representing the Verdigre Methodist church Wednesday.

The Rev. David T. Gustafson was re-appointed as pastor of the Creighton Methodist church for a third year at the annual Methodist conference in Lincoln last week. The Rev. M. Gustafson attended the conference from Tuesday until Friday. He also served the Verdigre Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thrapp, attended the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Methodist church at Omaha. The Thrapps were delegates to the conference representing the Verdigre Methodist church Wednesday.

The Rev. David T. Gustafson was re-appointed as pastor of the Creighton Methodist church for a third year at the annual Methodist conference in Lincoln last week. The Rev. M. Gustafson attended the conference from Tuesday until Friday. He also served the Verdigre Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thrapp, attended the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Methodist church at Omaha. The Thrapps were delegates to the conference representing the Verdigre Methodist church Wednesday.

The Rev. David T