Junior Legion

The Gregory Junior Legion squad handed O'Neill their fifth loss of the year in a well-played game at Carney Park Tuesday evening. The local Legion out hit the visitors eight hits to four, but O'Neill wound up on the short end of a 5-2 final score.

Eddie Antelope hurled the win while Norm Wettlauffer again turned in a fine mound performance for O'Neill. Wettlauffer walked three and struck out two, Gregory's thrower fanned four and walked four.

Lyle Stewart and Rich Hill both collected a single and double to lead O'Neill at the plate, but the big blow for the losers was Ray Belina's two-run double with two down in the fifth. Wettlauffer scattered Gregory's hits with the bottom half of the batting order accounting for all four of their singles.

Despite the unwelcome company of a wide assortment of annoying insects, a fine crowd of O'Neill and Gregory fans was on hand to encourage their respective representatives.

O'Neill was able to put runners on base in all but one inning, but the final run-producing safety didn't appear until Belina's blast. The losers left seven runners aboard compared to Gregory's four.

O'Neill will play Stuart's Junior Legion here Friday night, their next scheduled engagement with Gregory will be at Gregory on Tuesday, July 18th.

Joe Ollandick's Junior Legion Midgets registered their sixth victory in Legion competition Sunday afternoon when they outslugged Niobrara 13-9. Gary Godel and Terry Tomjack both knocked doubles, and shortstop Mike Hammond contributed a first-inning triple to get things started in the regular O'Neill manner.

Joe Shoemaker started for the winners and was clobbered with the victory, he was relieved by Bill Pruss in the fifth and Keith Reynoldson in the seventh and final frame. Shoemaker struck out four in his four innings while walking four, Pruss came on and fanned three in his two-inning stint, and Reynoldson finished two in his short appearance.

O'Neill opened the first inning with six runs and Niobrara came back with four back-to-back doubles but they could only muster three runs. Pease led the Niobrara attack with a double and three singles, Pruss, Hammond, and Terry Tomjack, Godel, and Shiemaker all wound up with two safeties for O'Neill.

Mackay was the losing hurler for Niobrara, he fanned eight and walked six.

Southpaws Norm Wettlauffer and Keith Reynoldson combined their mound talents Monday night and held the Butte Legion hitless in an exhibition ball game played at Butte. Wettlauffer worked the first four innings and Reynoldson came on in the fifth frame of the seven-inning contest. O'Neill hitters pounded out 21 hits, Ray Belina led the way with a 3-run homer, a triple, and a single in the 25-1 rout.

Butte's only run came in the fourth inning on an error, a stolen base, and another error. Camin was the losing hurler.

O'Neill's big first-sacker Rich Hill accounted for four hits, Gary Brewster, Terry Kurtz, and Belina each collected three hits. Bill Pruss contributed a long double to the winning cause.

The winning hurlers combined for eight strikeouts, Wettlauffer walked three.

The O'Neill victory snapped a six game winning streak for Butte.

Pony League

In Pony League play this past week, the O'Neill Colts clobbered Atkinson 25-11 with Wayne Sindle and Jackie Kelly slugging homers for the winners. Jim Troshynski allowed only four hits in picking up the victory, poor field support was the main reason for Atkinson's 11 runs.

Most of the Colts' hitters fattened their averages with Sindle hitting safely five trips to the plate. Dick Larson was four-for-four, Kelly collected three hits in four plate appearances, and Troshynski contributed to his own winning cause with three hits.

The losing pitcher was Fred Van Fleet.

In other Pony League play, Ewing swept a Sunday double-header on their home field by downing Page 17-10 and Clearwater 8-3. Bollwitt was the winning pitcher in the first game while Kropp took the victory in the second contest.

Bollwitt also homered in the first game, Bartak tripled, doubled, and singled twice. Hobbs singled and doubled for Ewing in the second game.

Shaw took the first game loss for Page. Sanne went the distance for Clearwater in the second game.

Elkhorn Valley

The home run bats of Jim Booth and Russ Johnson led O'Neill's West Side boys Friday 14-1 in Elkhorn Valley Little League competition. Bob Litle was the winning moundman, he was relieved by Randy Schmeichel in the final inning. Havranek was the losing pitcher for Spencer.

Booth and Johnson unloaded back-to-back homers, Booth's blast came with two runners aboard. These homers gave Johnson and Booth a tie in that department with six apiece.

Riley and Schmeichel combined for nine strikeouts, each hurler allowed one hit.

The East Side sluggers smashed five home runs in defeating Stuart 21-6. Casey Tomlinson and Dave Craditt had two homers each, Joe Yantzi also clouted a circuit smasher in the Monday night romp.

Fly It Proudly!

"If you have a flag fly it proudly on the Fourth of July," is the appeal made to all homes and businesses by Virgil A. Tomlinson, Commander of St. monson Post No. 93 of the American Legion here.

Commander Tomlinson adds, "If you don't own a flag, try to get one before the Fourth to make this Independence Day the biggest mass display of the nation's colors ever seen in O'Neill."

He explains that the display of the flag serves two important purposes. "First," he says, "it offers a simple means for the adult population to set an example of patriotic concern for children and youth. We can't expect young people to be very concerned about their responsibilities to the nation if adults don't show enough interest to display the flag."

"Secondly, streets on which the flag flies before every home or business is one way of presenting visible evidence of national unity."

On July 4 will be the second anniversary of the 50-star flag, it is still entirely proper and correct to display a 48 or 49-star flag, Commander Tomlinson stated. "No American flag is ever obsolete as long as it is in serviceable condition."
