Now's the right time for a zesty chicken barbecue. Plump broilers and fryers are in heavy supply and at bargain prices. Take advantage of the outdoor living season and the abundance of ready-for-the-fire wood.

Treat your family and friends to the tangy goodness of juicy barbecued chicken.

"Golden Barbecued Chicken" made with a vinegar base sauce is packed with taste and eye appeal. Combine 2 parts vinegar, 1 part water, and 1 part melted butter. Salt to taste. Turn disjointed chicken parts frequently for even browning. Baste after each turn and serve piping hot.

On the spicier side, "Smoky Barbecued Chicken" will win words of praise. Brush the chicken lightly with liquid smoke. Barbecue as usual, basting often with a hot barbecue sauce of 4 parts lemon juice, 3 parts oil, and 2 parts packed brown sugar. Add hot pepper sauce and salt to taste.

Barbecued chicken is cooked to perfection when the meatiest part is fork tender and the legs and wings can be turned easily in their sockets.

Many of our readers will soon be packing their suitcases in preparation for their vacations. What- ever, the reason, the aims in good packing are the same—arrival at the destination with wrinkle-free clothing all ready to wear, and best use of as little luggage as possible to accomplish this.

The unique method of packing is based on using the garments themselves as the means of eliminating creases in much the same manner in which many people use tissue paper. To do this, first place all of the bulky and small items in the bottom of the suitcase as it lies on a flat surface. Plastic bags make excellent light-weight covers for shoes, gloves, and hose.

To pack a suit, button the jacket while it is still on the hanger. Put the jacket, button side down, into the suitcase with the bottom of the jacket at the far side of the suitcase, and the shoulders and sleeves drooping over the front edge of the case. Next, place the skirt on top of the jacket with the hem at the far side of the suitcase, and the waistband hanging over the shoulders.

Next, lay the garment that is most apt to wrinkle on the bed or any flat surface, stack as many as three or four more dresses on the first one, being careful to smooth out any wrinkles. Arrange the sleeves as though they are outstretched arms. On the top of the dresses spread your slippers, gowns, or pajamas. (If you will be overnight on the train, don't put your sleeping garments here.) Fold the sleeves over the dresses as though folding your arms. Then place one hand under all of the dresses and with the other hand at the waistline fold the entire lot in half and lift all into the suitcase. Fold the top of the skirt and jacket up and away from you over the dresses. Now fold the jacket sleeves in the same way as the sleeves on the dresses. You will learn to select clothes that minimize wrinkles, if you travel much. Remember, however, that clothes acquire fewer wrinkles when the bag is packed full but nothing bulging.

The following recipe was incorrectly submitted for publication and due to the many requests for this sour cream coffee cake recipe, it is being reprinted with the proper amounts of ingredients. Catherine Indra, Extension agent.

Sour Cream Coffee Cake

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 pint dairy sour cream
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 Topping
- 1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- 1/4 cup white sugar
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 cup pecans, finely chopped

Preheat oven to 325° F. Cream butter and sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well. Sift dry ingredients together. Add to creamed mixture alternately with sour cream, beginning and ending with flour. Stir in vanilla. Pour half of batter into buttered 9x9 inch baking pan, cover with half of nut topping, pour remaining batter over filling and top with rest of nut mixture. Bake approximately 40 minutes.

NOW'S THE TIME to save more truck dollars on the more-for-your-dollar trucks!

Your truck dollars are worth a whole lot more at your Chevrolet dealer's right now! First off, you get a head start on saving because summer's the saving season. Then, with a harder working, easier riding Chevy truck, you're set to save every mile you haul. And, finally, at trade-in time, you can expect an extra dividend because of Chevy's traditionally higher resale value. What could be better?

Summer's the season to get extra mileage from your dollars on the trucks built to give you extra miles of hauling. With Independent Front Suspension, Chevrolet trucks keep going thousands of miles longer because far less destructive jar and shake are transmitted through the truck. Chevy I.F.S. trucks work harder, too, in areas where other trucks have to be pampered. And, with Chevy's wide choice of thrifty 6 and hardy V8 power, you can tailor your truck exactly to your job. So how can you miss—especially now during the summer saving season?
