Jane Schwager Weds Lynn Larson At Orchard

ORCHARD — The Evangelical United Brethren church of Orchard was the scene Wednesday, July 12, for the wedding of Miss Jane Schwager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schwager, Orchard, to Lynn Larson, son of Ralph Larson, Page.

Officiating at the 7 p.m. double ring ceremony was the Rev. Duane Lenz, before an altar decorated with garden flowers and seven-branched candelabra. Ribbon decorated the aisle pews. Mrs. Harvey Holbrook sr., at the organ, accompanied Wayne Strope, the soloist.

The bride appeared in a gown of handpleated Chantilly lace and tulle. Natural scallops of lace, traced with pearls and iridescents, framed the Sabrina neckline of the lace basque which was designed with long sleeves tapered to bridal points. The bouffant skirt of lace featured an insert of tulle with pearl and sequin embroidered lace appliques and a brief scalloped back peplum of lace above a cascade of alternating ruffles of lace and tulle. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a crown sprinkled with pearls and sequins, bordered with a lace ruffle. Her bridal bouquet consisted of a white orchid on a white Bible.

Miss JoAnn Schwager, sister of the bride, served as her maid of honor. She wore a white dress of lace over tulle with a white taffeta cummerbund. She had blue accessories and carried a bouquet of blue and white pom-poms. Bridesmaids were Miss Rita Larson, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Karen Wehenkel. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Vicki Fusselman. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor and their accessories and flowers were pink instead of blue.

Dwaine Schwager served as best man. Marion Cederburg, Ent AFB, Colorado, and Harold Hesse, Page, were groomsmen. Ushers were Glen Miller and Willis Waring.

Mrs. Valerie Dempster was flower girl. Ring bearer was Sammy Schwager, brother of the bride. The Misses Doris Leidig and Charlene Fusselman were candlelighters.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 250 guests was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Johnny Schwager and Mrs. Claude Zimmerman cut the cake. Mrs. Duane Dempster and Mrs. Lyle Schleusener poured. Serving were the Misses Marvylene Eckler, Barbara Twibell, Patty Elliott and Shirley Kay. Miss Ickler also had charge of the guest book. Assisting at the gift table were Mesdames Hugh Brookhouser, Loren Wilson and Teddy Kallhoff, and Miss Barbara Twibell.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Orchard high school and Kearney Beutician academy. She was formerly employed at the Brunswick Beauty school.

Mr. Larson is a 1958 graduate of Page high school, and has served three years with the U.S. Navy. He is presently engaged in farming.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. Mr. Ross and the late Mrs. Edith W. Ross. The bridegroom is the son of Paul E. Van Horn, Montclair, N. J. At the marriage vows were spoken to the Rev. Hugh B. Jones, Rochester and the Rev. W. H. Ross, Ewing, father of the bride.
