

Aunnamarie Gilmore
Weds Glenn Miller

CHAMBERS—Arrangement of pink taffeta appointed the chancel of the East Lincoln Christian church Sunday, July 16, for the wedding of Miss Aunnamarie Gilmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence E. Gilmore, and Glenn C. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Miller, Chambers.

The service was read by the Rev. Jerry Peters. John Carter Cole, organist, played the wedding music. The vocal soloists were Mrs. Kenneth Bourne and Miss Phyllis Wadlow.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of tulle and taffeta, Pearl and sequin embroidered lace framed the scoop neckline. The lace was repeated over side fullness of the bell skirt which swept to a chapel train beneath a bustle bow. A crown of seed pearls and crystal teardrops held the veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

Wearing sheaths of pink taffeta shadowed with silk organza and carrying pink and white carnations were Mrs. Lena Williams, as matron of honor, and Miss Mary Gilbert, maid of honor. Costumed identically in the champagne tone were Miss Phyllis Wadlow and Miss Joyce Hatfield, bridesmaids, Miss Laura Kay Alcorn, Grand Island, junior bridesmaid, and Miss Denise Maureen Alcorn, Grand Island, flower girl.

Keith Halsey, Chambers, served as best man. Seating the guests were Loren Stewart, Page, Gleason Grimes, Milford, Ronald Obertmeier, Giltner, and Michael Alcorn, Grand Island, Dennis Alcorn and Gary Alcorn were candlelighters.

The couple will live in Millard after August 1 on their return from a wedding trip through western Nebraska and South Dakota.
