Junior Legion

The O'Neill Junior Legion drew a bye in the first round of tournament action this week so the local boys will play the winner of the Creighton-Wausa game Tuesday evening. So far this season, the local Legion has compiled an eight wins, nine losses record entering tournament play. They play Burke this Thursday (tonite) for their final pre-tourney battle.

Mound duties this season have been divided between southpaws Norm Wettlaufer and Keith Reynolds, between them they've accounted for 14 of O'Neill's 25 Tuesday evening wins and Rich Hill have seen mound action in relief, but to assign pitching chores to either of these would weaken the defensive lineup.

The O'Neill infield has the potential to be the best in the league, but throughout the season their play has sometimes been a major disappointment. On the right side of the diamond, Lyle Stewart and Ray Belina hold down the third base and shortstop positions respectively, and both of these lads are capable of turning in as fine a performance as can be expected in this calibre of baseball.

But the other half of the infield has been somewhat of a problem. Through the course of the season, Coach Ollendick has employed four players at the first base position. This position has been vacated through an injury to three-year veteran Ken Reynolds, whose slick fielding has been many times missed by the O'Neill nine. First base chores have been handed mainly to 6' 6" Rich Hill, and sometimes the big fella handles the bag real well. As can be imagined, he covers quite a bit of ground, but at other times his fielding has been an understandable headache. Southpaws Wettlaufer and Reynolds have also seen action here, but their mound duties are more of a responsibility.

The departure of Jack McGinn to the hayfield has left the second base position wide open.

Smooth-fielding Bill Pruss has been considerable play here but his tournament play will be limited to Midget ball. Rudy Clasen and or lefty Reynolds are present nominees for this tournament position.

Behind the plate the erratic catching of Terry Kurtz is a subject the author would just as soon not discuss, although sometimes the mask man can turn in an almost adequate performance. Rudy Clasen has also seen some action behind the mask so the catching chores are fairly well taken care of.

In the outfield Gary Brewster will undoubtedly see action in either right or left, with center field position being handed to Sam Knepper. Wettlaufer is probably the best-fielding outfielder on the squad, but his presence on the mound is almost certain. As to the other position (opposite Brewster), the return of McGinn would set a tight infield and adequate outfield, but as yet the problem remains unsolved.

At the plate the O'Neill team has prominent power in Belina, Hill, Clasen, and Stewart, but the clutch blows have been one of the main factors missing in the team's five two-run-or-less defeats.

Coach Joe Ollendick hopes to have a large crowd on hand throughout the tournament. Improvements are being made on the seating arrangements at the park and top notch action is promised.

The O'Neill Junior Legion played host to Coleridge last Thursday and was handed a 2-0 shut-out defeat. The Coleridge nine tagged losing hurler Keith Reynolds for five hits in the seven-inning contest, both runs were scored in the third inning on two walks and a single. Reynolds walked four and fanned three in his ninth mound appearance for O'Neill.

Winning pitcher Tom Morrison gave up only three singles while fanning seven and giving up seven bases on balls. O'Neill hitters left eight teammates stranded on the bases.

The local Legion will play Burke, S. D., here Thursday night at Carney Park. This game will conclude O'Neill's pre-tournament schedule. In the two clubs' previous engagements, Burke has come out on top both times by scores of 6-3 and 9-2.

Coach Joe Ollendick has tentatively set Sunday, August 13th as the date for the annual Junior Legion - Midget baseball picnic. This year Coach Ollendick hopes to be able to take the boys to Long Pine for an afternoon of relaxation and entertainment. If this date interferes with any of the boys' summer schedules, the boys are asked to notify their coach at the earliest convenience.

O'Neill Midgets

Coach Joe Ollendick's Junior Legion Midgets won two games and lost one this past week and posted their pre-tourney record at 10 wins and four defeats. At Bassett Sunday afternoon O'Neill clobbered their hosts 19-12 in a real slugfest. The winners collected 14 hits, four of these by Rich Hill. Centerfielder Jerry Donohoe accounted for three hits in his five trips to the plate. Right hander Joe Shoemaker was credited with the victory. Bassinger took the loss. Bassinger led Bassett's seven hit attack with two triples and a double.

O'Neill's only extra-base hits were triples by Hill and Bill Pruss and two baggers by Donohoe and Hill.

At Ainsworth Sunday night the tables were turned as Ainsworth turned down their weary visitors 19-5. O'Neill pulled within two runs in the sixth inning 7-5, but a 12-run final frame shattered the visitors hopes.

Keith Reynolds was the losing pitcher, he again was the victim of no support as his teammates committed eight errors behind him. The little lefty struck out 12 in his six-inning stint, Rich Hill came on in relief.

Larry Zoerb and Bill Rose blasted homers to lead Ainsworth's 14 hit attack, Mike Hammond collected two singles to lead the losers at the plate. Bartholomew was the winning pitcher for Ainsworth, he whiffed nine and walked three while allowing four singles.

Town Team

The big bat and strong arm of Rollie Everett led the Atkinson Town Team to a 3-2 victory over O'Neill in NCNL competition Thursday night. Everett pitched seven-hit ball and slammed a two-run homer in the sixth inning that proved to be the margin of victory.

Lloyd Hilligas was the losing hurler, allowing only six hits. The local Town Team led 2-1 going into the sixth frame but Everett's smash put the visitors in front to stay.

O'Neill's hitting attack was led by Alvin Carson with three hits, he accounted for both of the losers' runs.

O'Neill picked up another easy victory Sunday evening when their scheduled game with Tilden was cancelled because Tilden's team has disbanded. Then Petersburg called Saturday and forfeited their final game with O'Neill, so the local squad will travel to Verdigris Thursday (tonight) for their final game of the season.

Pony League

Jerry Mundorf's Elgin Mobil Oilers walked away with the championship trophy in the finals of the Elgin Pony League Tourney played Friday evening. Terry Scannell tossed a no-hitter and Jerry Kinnan knocked a two-run homer as Elgin downed O'Neill 12-2.

Southpaw Danny Wolfe was the losing moundman, he was relieved by Chuck Bartak in the fifth.

The O'Neill nine earned their position in the finals by downing Humphrey 13-4 behind the one-hit pitching of Gene Bollwitt. Danny Wolfe clouted two homers in the Thursday night rout. Ivan Hurley, Bruce Appleby, and Mike Bealart also added round trippers in the semi-final action.

The tournament victory was the 38th victory won by the Mundorf crew in Pony League play.

Elkhorn Valley

In the Elkhorn Valley Little League action this week, Marty Mancuso's two-run home run led Alkinson over East O'Neill 5-3 and brought the two teams into a tie for second place in the League standings. Frank Mancuso was the winning hurler, Rick Cradit was tagged for the loss.

Monday night West O'Neill clobbered Stuart 20-4 with Ronnie Riley the winning pitcher. Bruce Spittler went three-innings and upped his average to .521 and Russ Johnson, the league's leading hitter, enjoyed a perfect night at the plate and hiked his average to .672 for the season. The Stuart victory was the 42nd straight win for Jerry Schmidt's West O'Neill crew.

City League

In the O'Neill City League last Wednesday evening, Jerry Schmidt's Braves downed the Cardinals 7-2 with southpaw Russ Johnson tossing a three-hitter to the winners. Johnson contributed to his own winning cause with two homers, his seventh and eighth of the season. The second of these circuit smashes set a new record in Little League play for round trippers in one season.

On the mound, Johnson fanned 15 and walked two in the six-inning contest. Lefty Randy Nickerson took the loss for the Cards.

In City League action next week the Braves battle it out with the Indians Wednesday evening.

T-Shirt League

Eddie Bright posted the first no-hitter of the season in the "T" Shirt League last Thursday when he white-washed the Senators 10-0. Leading the Rankses hitting attack was Mike Verzal with a home run. The losing pitcher for the Senators was Jim Davidson.

The Tigers drove across seven runs in their first inning and went on to defeat the Giants 16-7. Craig Hesson was the winner for the undefeated Tigers, Hallock took the loss.

In the other game played Thursday evening, Reggie Pinkerman's White Sox outslugged the Dodgers 14-1. Dick Streeter clouted a bases loaded triple in the final inning with two down to win the game for teammate pitcher Jed Wolfe.

This week the Tigers will play the Dodgers, the Senators will host the Giants, and Junior Adamsen's Yankees will battle the White Sox.

PEE-WEES

In out-of-town action this week, the Neligh Peewees downed Royal 4-0 despite the fine pitching of Royall's Holm. The young hurler fanned 14 opponent batters in the six-inning game. The winning pitcher was Bennett.

LITTLE LEAGUE

Bob Riley pitched the Braves to a 2-1 victory over Redbird Tuesday night in game played at the Cardinal Field. Russ Johnson belted his ninth round tripper in four trips to the plate to lead the winners' hitting attack.

Jim Booth relieved Riley in the fifth frame and held the opposition scoreless. Halsted opened the game for Redbird with a homer over the right field fence.

In this week's schedule Jerry Schmidt's crew will play the Sioux City League leading Kalin's nine at Sioux City Sunday. This will be one of West O'Neill's toughest tests in the past three years.

Then they play Ewing Monday, at Chambers Tuesday, and they take on the Indians Wednesday night in the City League.
