Rain and Wind Here

The best news this week is that we had almost two inches of rain Thursday evening. However it was accompanied by strong winds that blew some of the corn over and many tree limbs were blown to the ground. Some of the oats were still to be harvested. The telephone has been out since the storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Neiderheide and family, Pierson, Mich., have been visiting relatives and friends in this community.

Mrs. Glenn Harpster spent Thursday afternoon at the Henry Reimer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tomjack returned home from Omaha Monday.

Mrs. Fred Harpster, Mrs. Glenn Harpster and Terry and Mrs. H. Reimer called at the Roy Johnson home in Neligh Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pahl and Mary, Oakland, spent the weekend with relatives here.

Waldo Davis has been carrying the mail for two weeks while Charles Rotherham and family were on vacation.

Harvesting and haying are almost done and many are planning trips and vacations before school starts in August.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bartak visited Mrs. Alice Lodge in the Carl Munson home in Norfolk Thursday. Mrs. Lodge's condition was unchanged.

There were over three inches of rain north and also east of here on Thursday. Water ran over the roadgrade in places.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Reimer were guests at the Don Starr home in West Point last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Gene Thama and baby daughter, Omaha spent the weekend at Keith Bartak's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gibbs spent this week at St. Louis. The children stayed at L. L. Bartak's.
