ATKINSON - Baskets of white gladioli were used for altar decorations at the St. Joseph Catholic church, Atkinson, when Miss Margaret Ries, Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ries, Atkinson, and Mel Roy Stracke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Stracke, Stuart, were united in marriage Saturday, Aug. 19.

The Rev. Richard J. Parr officiated at the nuptial mass at 9:30 a.m. in the presence of 250 guests.

The bride was gowned in Chantilly lace and nylon tulle, fashioned with Sabrina neckline trimmed with iridescent sequins, and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt over stiffened featured scalloped lace panels in front and back with tiers of tulle, and extended to an aisle-wide train. A coronet with matching iridescent sequin trim held a bouffant veil of illusion. Her bouquet was of orchids and stephanotis, and she carried a crystal rosary.

Mrs. Del Ray Stracke, Omaha, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Ann Henning and Miss Carol Jean Ries. The attendants wore identical ballarina length gowns of silk chiffon in Nile green with scoop necklines, cap sleeves and tucked bodices with full billowy skirts. They wore matching coronets and veils, and carried colonial bouquets of white gladioli.
