B. Hoffmans Visit Former Chambers Folks

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hoffman returned Saturday night from a trip through the Black Hills and a visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Schake at Edgemont, S. D. At Rapid City they visited the Harry Myers family, the Richard Farrier family and with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore, all former Chambers people. On their way to the Hills Tuesday they stopped in Winner, S. D., to see Dean Farrier who operates a store there. They reported that Mr. Myers, who served as pastor of the Chambers Methodist church a few years ago, was very busy with church and civic work in Rapid City. Their daughter, Andrea, had just returned from the hospital where she had a small tumor removed from her left leg. The Hoffman children remained with friends here while their parents were away.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beed drove to the Snake River Falls and Dam south of Valentine Sunday. Accompanying them from Long Pine were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds and Diane, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bejot and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bejot sr. They enjoyed a picnic dinner at the dam and were supper guests in the Russell home at Long Pine.

Kenneth Damme arrived here Tuesday night from Ft. Sill, Okla., where he is now stationed. Kenneth expected to be sent to school for a few weeks special training but found there had been a change of plans and that he would remain at Ft. Sill. He and his wife and two children departed Sunday for his base where they have an apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tangeman returned Friday from Manhattan, Kan., where they had spent several days with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Stanton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cox and baby daughter, Lincoln, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Tangeman, and his father, the Rev. Charles Cox, a few days last week and until Thursday of this week.

Irwin Peltzer, Stanton, has been a recent visitor in the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Peltzer, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Walter. Mrs. Dora Townsend returned to her home at Page the first of last week after spending a few days with Mrs. Sarah Adams. She was accompanied by Mrs. Adams, who will spend a few days there.

Mrs. Marie Lybolt returned the first of the week from Brunswick where she had been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ansley Barrett. Mrs. Lybolt's son, Jerry Lybolt, and family, Chicago, were also guests in the Barrett home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Papke and family drove to Stuart Sunday where they were dinner guests of his sister, Mrs. Jim Hoffman and family. In the afternoon they attended a wedding reception for his niece, Mrs. Dudley Halligan and Mr. Halligan. The wedding had taken place earlier in the afternoon. Mrs. Halligan is the former Carol Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Wilkinson were Thursday evening callers in the Les Miles home.

Friday evening callers in the Vern Wilkinson home were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hertel, Charles and Dean Green and Mrs. Ralph Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jarman took their son, Douglas, to Lincoln Monday where he has enrolled at the State university. They were overnight guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ringle in Omaha.

Several friends and neighbors gathered at the Emerson Loeske home Sunday evening to help Mr. Loeske celebrate his birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Blair and family, Omaha, were weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. Ralph Blair, and grandmother, Mrs. Whidden.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lidgett received a letter recently from their son, Kenneth, who enlisted a few weeks ago in the service. He is stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. The other two Chambers boys, Day and Rickard, who left at the same time, are also at Ft. Leonard Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Shavlik and Pam returned Sunday evening from a week's vacation spent in Colorado. They visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Shavlik at Denver, and spent four days sightseeing through the southern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Rouse and family were Sunday dinner guests of the William Turners at a "cook out" dinner.

Arriving Sunday at the Art Miller home were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Miller and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Goddard, Portland, Ore. Lowell Miller and Mrs. Goddard are brother and sister of Art

Miller. Eighteen members and one visitor, Alice Johnson, were present at the regular meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service which met at the Methodist church Thursday afternoon. Following a brief prayer service, the leaders, Mrs. Eugene Halsey and Mrs. Darrell Gillette, presented the lesson. The president, Mrs. Gaius Wintermote, presided at the business session. The Fall Seminar at Ewing September 26 was announced. Mrs. Raymond Shoemaker read a letter asking for a special donation to the "Upworth Village" home at York for supplies. It was voted to send $10. The meeting closed with a prayer followed by lunch by Mrs. Alvin Tangeman and Alice Johnson, who assisted in place of Mrs. Arthur Tangeman. The Rev. Charles Cox drove to Ericson Sunday to perform a wedding ceremony for Jan Shaw and Jeannette Barbee, both of Ericson. The ceremony was at 4 p.m. at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Thomson and daughter, Jean Marie, were Norfolk visitors Friday afternoon. Several members of the Chambers Garden club attended the district meeting at Stuart Monday. Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ollendick sr., September 3 were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ollendick jr., and family, and Mr. and Mrs. James Ollendick and son, O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gibson and son, Fremont, and Mr.

and Mrs. Nell Walker and daughter, Chambers. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Newhouse met their son, Kieth Newhouse jr., and son, Norman, and granddaughter, Nancy, Lincoln, at Bartlett Friday evening where they enjoyed supper together and later attended the football game between Bartlett and Chambers. Mr. and Mrs. Z. X. Marshall, Stuart, and Mrs. George Marshall, Norfolk, were Thursday visitors in the Andrew Gilbert home. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crawford and family were Sunday guests in the "Bud" Mitchell home at Redbird. The Rev. Norman Walter was in charge of the services Sunday morning at St. Paul's Lutheran church during the absence of the pastor.
