

Mardelle Johnson
Weds Larry Johnson
At Norfolk

NORFOLK — A former resident of O'Neill, Miss Mardelle Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans, Norfolk, and Larry Randall Combs, South Charleston, W. Va., were united in marriage September 10 at 3 p.m. in the First Methodist church, Norfolk.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Melvin Ireland. Traditional wedding music was provided by the organist, Arne Sorensen, Tilden, and Miss Bobbi Annette Meriwether, Michigan City, Ind., vocalist.

Given in marriage by her step-father, Robert Evans, the bride appeared in a "Marie of Pandora" gown of glowing satin and alencon lace. The lines of the princess silhouette rose to a fitted bodice with shallow scoop neckline and long sleeves. Hand run alencon lace traced the bodice top, front and back. The princess lines flowed into an aisle-wide circular skirt on which the lace trim was repeated in a deep band. The satin skirt swept back to a chapel train topped by a butterfly bustle. Her bouffant two-tier veil was held by a tiny queen's crown of seed pearls and tear drop pearls. She carried a cascade of pink roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Glenda Bolvard, Detroit, Mich. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Rodgers, Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Norman Klasna, Lincoln. The bride's attendants wore street length dresses of sheer silk organza over tulle in shades of mint green, velvet and blue, respectively. The dresses were styled with deep

Exchange Vows

Saint Peter's Catholic church, Omaha, was the setting for the Saturday, Sept. 16, wedding of Miss Donna Lou Turner and Roger A. Riesing, Omaha. Monsignor O'Brien officiated at the 10:30 a.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Turner, O'Neill. Mr. Riesing is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lilly, Ralston.

A floor length gown of white chanted lace over satin was selected by the bride for her wedding. It featured a bodice with a Sabrina neckline, trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The long sleeves came to points over the wrists. The very bouffant skirt was of tulle, accented by panels of chanted lace. Her illusion veil was attached to a scalloped crown en-hems and full bouffant sleeves with matching accessories. Their bouquets were matching cascades of carnations with pink ribbon streamers.

Jonathan Levine, Ethica, N. Y., served as best man. Ushers were Thomas George and Bernard Sundberg.

Candlelighters were Robert Evans, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Frankum. Johnny Bob Watson was ring bearer, and Jacqueline Lockwood was flower girl.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in Westley hall. Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ptak were hosts at the reception. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Richard George and Mrs. John Stufberg. Presiding at the coffee service were Mrs. Robert Frankum and Mrs. William McIntosh. Mrs. Harold Lindberg and Mrs. William Armstrong served punch. Assisting with the serving were Mmes. William Burns, John Watson, Dale Wilson and Derald Graham, and Miss Karen Bridge.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill high school, and attended one year at Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Oberlin, O. She was graduated with a bachelor of music degree from Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y. She is affiliated with Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary sorority.

Mr. Combs is a graduate of South Charleston high school, and also received his bachelor of music degree from Eastman's. He is affiliated with Phi Mu Alpha, honorary music fraternity.

Following a wedding trip through the southern states, the couple will reside at New Orleans, La., where Mr. Combs will be playing this season with the New Orleans Philharmonic orchestra.

at the reception were the Misses Katherine and Agnes Schmitz, Kay Ambrose and Pat Jennings. Miss Leona Prochaska and Miss Linda Darnell had charge of the gowns, and Miss Pat Rice took care of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and is employed as an IBM auto-typist at Mutual of Omaha.

The bridegroom graduated from Cathedral high, and is office manager of the Charles Bruning company in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Riesing will be at home at 116 South 35th Street, Omaha after a wedding trip to Colorado.

Carol Hoffman
Weds D. Halligan
At Stuart

STUART — Miss Carol Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hoffman, Stuart, and Dudy Halligan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Halligan, Bassett, were united in marriage Sunday, Sept. 10, at 10 a.m. in the Stuart Community church.

Performing the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Herbert Young.

The bride wore a blue street-length dress with a white mink corsage and white accessories.

Attending the couple were Miss Darlene Hoffman, Lincoln, sister of the bride, and Bill Palmage, Bassett. Miss Hoffman wore a beige dress and her corsage was also of white mums.

A reception was held at the James Hoffman jr. home south of Newport and was attended by 75 guests. A dinner was served at 7 p.m. for the family.

Letters to the Editor

Atkinson, Nebr.
Sept. 18, 1961

Mr. Editor
On behalf of the American Legion of Holt County, I would like to thank you for the splendid news coverage and cooperation we have received the past two years, while I was Commander.

Our aim is to help the Veterans and their families. Also to help educate the youth of our country in the basic ideas of real Americanism. Without the publicity and help you have given us it would be nearly impossible to put our program over as big as we do.

I know if we work together for 100 percent Americanism, we won't have to worry about uncouth characters in Cuba and Russia.

Thank You
M. A. Coday

STUART — White gladioli decorated the altar in the Stuart Community church Sunday, Sept. 17, for the wedding of Miss Janet Fuelberth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Fuelberth, Stuart, and Robert Seegerbarth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Seegerbarth, Hadar.

The 8 p.m. candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gerald Free of the Emanuel Lutheran church, Hadar. Music was provided by the soloist, Lyle Droscher, who was accompanied by Mrs. Elmer Dinkle.

A white dulcetered satin gown was chosen by the bride for her wedding. It was fashioned with a fitted bodice which was accented by an Alencon lace insertion that outlined the scoop neckline and extended down the entire length of the center front of the dress. The floor-length bouffant skirt, worn over hoops, fell into an aisle-wide brush train. A jeweled cap held in place the bride's fingertip silk illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses.

Mrs. Marlin Winter, Norfolk, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor, and Miss Karen Meusch was bridesmaid. Mrs. Winter wore a bronze brocade tulle dress with beige hat and shoes. Miss Meusch was attired in a similar dress of beige with brown accessories. Their bouquets were of bronze mums.

Serving as best man was Robert Fuelberth, brother of the bride. Groomsman was Wayne Gnevuch, Plainview. Another brother of the bride, Don Fuelberth, and Marlin Winter, Norfolk, were ushers.

Miss Earla Newman and Douglas Seegerbarth, Hadar, brother of the bridegroom, were candlelighters.

Around 150 guests attended the reception following the ceremony in the Stuart auditorium. Mrs. Joe Hall, Miss Janice Myers and Miss Gail Seegerbarth arranged the gift table. Mrs. Wayne Gnevuch, Plainview, sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book.

The bride graduated from Stuart high school and Wayne State Teachers college. She is employed by the Hartington public schools as a teacher.

Mr. Seegerbarth is a graduate of Pierce high school and is presently engaged in farming near Norfolk where the couple is residing.
