

Largest Circulation
Newspaper Between South Sioux City
and
Casper, Wyoming

THE FRONTIER

Sixteen Pages
In This Issue

"The Voice of the Beef Empire"—North-Central Nebraska's BIGGEST Newspaper

Volume 81—Number 27

O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, Thursday, October 26, 1961

Seven Cents

Funeral Rites Monday for C. E. Worth

Funeral services were held in O'Neill Monday for Clarence E. Worth, 69, who died Friday at 3:50 a.m. in the St. Anthony's hospital.

The Rev. Ivan Christoffersen officiated at the services in the Assembly of God church. He was assisted by a former O'Neill pastor, the Rev. Robert Paul, Greeley, Colo. Interment was in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Clarence Earl Worth was born to Herbert J. and Georgianna Robertson Worth January 18, 1892 at Wayne. He grew up on a farm in the vicinity of Wayne and attended both high school and college in Wayne.

He was united in marriage June 7, 1916 to Ina Estella Karr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Karr, in the Methodist parsonage in O'Neill. He has been a member of the Assembly of God church since its origination here.

Survivors are his wife, Ina; seven children, Charles E., stationed with the air force at Wichita, Kan., Mrs. Daniel Page and Mrs. George Wetzler, San Bernardino, Calif., Mrs. Orville Miller, O'Neill, Mrs. Adolf Wetzler, Verdigré, Roy A., Carter Lake, Ia., and Clarence J., with the air force at Buzzards Bay, Mass.; 15 grandchildren, three brothers, George, Harold and Floyd, all of Dalton, and three sisters, Mrs. Otto Bossow, Tekamah, Mrs. Roy Karr, Spencer, and Mrs. Bud Gelster, Omaha.

A daughter, Victoria Carol, preceded him in death in 1951. A sister, Mrs. Fred Smith, and a brother, Ray Worth, also preceded him in death.

Winners Told For Atkinson Wool Contest

Nebraska's seventh annual "Make It Yourself with Wool" contest and style revue for District 4 was held Saturday at the Atkinson high school auditorium.

June Carson, Lynch, won first place in the senior division, and Dolores Tunender, Atkinson, was the second place winner.

In the junior division, Joanne Thurber, Burwell, and Janeth Keller, Elsmere, were first and second place winners.

Mary Elaine Reinert, Johnson, and Linda Bain, Ainsworth, won first and second places in the sub-divisions.

Miss Carson and Miss Thurber, winners in the senior and junior divisions, will compete in the state contest November 11 in Scottsbluff. Each girl entered in the contest personally cut and made her wool garment. Over 100 attended the style revue.

Mrs. David J. Leighton, Mrs. J. K. Schultz and Mrs. Ernest Gotschall, all of Atkinson, assisted with arrangements for the contest. Mrs. Gotschall is District director. Refreshments were by the Atkinson Chamber of Commerce with Atkinson FHA girls serving under the direction of their instructor, Miss Sharon Wall.

Florence Ponton Named To Board of Trustees

Florence Ponton has been named as a member of the board of trustees, District 28, for the Nebraska Society for Crippled Children.

Her appointment was announced at the annual meeting of the Society held at the Sheraton-Fontenelle hotel in Omaha October 13 and 14. It was also announced that 26 counties so far have requested the aid of the Easter Seal society in conducting hearing testing programs in the schools.

Horse Shot by Hunters Dies Wednesday Night

"Duchess" the quarterhorse belonging to Vickie Fletcher, died Wednesday night after being shot by careless hunters.

The animal was injured October 14 by a carload of hunters driving down the road by the pasture belonging to Vickie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Fletcher.

Booster Installed

ORCHARD — A television booster has now been installed and is in operation at Orchard.

The equipment was installed Tuesday by Lloyd's and John's TV Service.

School Dedication Held for Dist. 89

EMMET — A large crowd attended the dedication of the new two-room schoolhouse in the recently-organized rural District 89 Friday evening.

A one-hour program was presented with Gilbert Posee serving as master of ceremonies. The new schoolhouse is the result of the consolidation of three Districts, 159, 155 and 89. The District is known as the Pleasant-view school.

District 89 was organized July 14, 1883; District 15 in 1884, and 159 March 30, 1885.

Highway 20 Association Plans Drive

Thursday afternoon and Friday morning and afternoon a drive will be conducted for funds to be used for Highway 20 promotion. The drive is being sponsored by the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the Commerce committee are George Janousek, chairman, Jim Earley, Bob Pappeheimer, A. L. Patton, Fred Appleby, Ben Bazelman, Gordon Johnson and Derald Graham.

A professional agency is handling the publicity for the promotion of Highway 20. A representative of the agency recently met with Chamber of Commerce members to explain the program and the desired results. It is hoped by this promotion to increase the traffic by 300 cars per day.

Winners Told For Atkinson Wool Contest

Nebraska's seventh annual "Make It Yourself with Wool" contest and style revue for District 4 was held Saturday at the Atkinson high school auditorium.

June Carson, Lynch, won first place in the senior division, and Dolores Tunender, Atkinson, was the second place winner.

In the junior division, Joanne Thurber, Burwell, and Janeth Keller, Elsmere, were first and second place winners.

Mary Elaine Reinert, Johnson, and Linda Bain, Ainsworth, won first and second places in the sub-divisions.

Miss Carson and Miss Thurber, winners in the senior and junior divisions, will compete in the state contest November 11 in Scottsbluff. Each girl entered in the contest personally cut and made her wool garment. Over 100 attended the style revue.

Mrs. David J. Leighton, Mrs. J. K. Schultz and Mrs. Ernest Gotschall, all of Atkinson, assisted with arrangements for the contest. Mrs. Gotschall is District director. Refreshments were by the Atkinson Chamber of Commerce with Atkinson FHA girls serving under the direction of their instructor, Miss Sharon Wall.

Name Officials for Government Day

St. Mary's academy students have conducted a campaign and election for officials at County Government Day Friday.

Following is a list of the juniors who won the election and their offices: Ruth Muff, clerk; Emily Dusatko, assessor; Marvin Peter, surveyor; Carmen Benze, judge; Donna McGinn, register of deeds; Carol Jo Holly, clerk of the district court.

Jim Sullivan, sheriff; Mildred Schmitz, treasurer; Judy Sullivan, superintendent; Jim Wilson, attorney and Rosemary Mahony, supervisor.

Earl Beelaert, Joann Hoffman and Beverly Steskal are electives to the appointive offices.

Burk Farm Home Burns at Ewing

EWING — The farm home of Mrs. Pat Burk and family, 12 miles south of Ewing, was totally destroyed by fire early Saturday evening with all contents a complete loss.

This is the second tragedy for Mrs. Burk as her husband was killed in a tractor accident while working on the farm in May.

The fire started in a trailer house located near the Burk home and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Porter and infant daughter. Mrs. Burk and children found the trailer on fire when they returned from Clearwater about 9 p.m.

She went to the neighbors to call the Ewing Fire department, however the fire had progressed to such an extent that the firemen were unable to save the building. Clearwater firemen also were called.

Two trailer houses were moved on Mrs. Burk's property Sunday to provide homes for the Burk and Porter families.

A miscellaneous shower has been planned for the two families at St. John's basement Friday evening at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

OHS Students Elected for County Offices

Election of officials for County Government Day was held this week at O'Neill high school and the winners will take part in activities at the courthouse Monday.

Following is a list of the OHS officials and their offices: Bobbi Mash, sheriff; Esther Young, treasurer; Judy Smith, clerk; Keith Reynoldson, clerk of the district court; Diane Graves, judge.

Ken Reynoldson, assessor; Juanita Warner, director of soil conservation; Sally Burney, superintendent; Betty Morrow, attorney; Larry Dobrovolsky, supervisor; Denny Drayton, agent; Gaileen Young, veterans officer; Ann Johnson, assistance; Kathy Perry, registrar of deeds, and Jeannie Foreman.

Inman School Kids Present Annual Program

INMAN — The sixth, seventh and eighth grade classes presented their annual program, "The Black Cat" Friday evening at the school auditorium and the proceeds from this event will go toward a field trip in the spring.

Taking part in the program were Gaylene Anthony, Nyla Reynolds, Donna Harte, Ann Kelley, Lavina and Pam Monical, Carolyn Kopejka, Jean Ann May, Sue Sholes, Phyllis, Marie and Francis Musil, Jim and Beverly Pribil, Karen Butterfield, Carol and Louise Kestenholtz, Glen and Arlie Sholes, Larry Peters, Dan and Charles Ferris, Mick Sawyer, Dick Koepcke, Mike Sheel and Robert Eaton.

Mrs. Rose Kivett is the teacher. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

St. Mary's to Serve Harvest Dinner Sunday

The Friends of St. Mary's academy will sponsor a "harvest dinner" Sunday from 4 to 8 p.m. at the St. Mary's gym.

Proceeds from the dinner will be used to help buy equipment and furnishings for the new high school now under construction. Mrs. George Janousek and Mrs. William Mattern are co-chairmen of the dinner.

School of Instruction Held at Butte Lodge

BUTTE — Ten lodges attended the Central School of Instruction held by the Grand Lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Nebraska at Butte Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 16 and 17, with the Gilead Lodge No. 233 as host.

Present were members from O'Neill, Lynch, Spencer, Niobrara, Atkinson, Stuart, Bassett, Long Pine and Ainsworth. Charles M. Frederick and Edmund D. Shaw were in charge of the school.

John R. Gallagher Cited by President

A Certificate of Appreciation has been awarded to John R. Gallagher, O'Neill, by President Kennedy in grateful recognition of five years of service to the Nation as a Government Appeal Agent of the Selective Service Local Board of Holt county.

Mr. Gallagher has given his time without compensation.

Clarence Stevens To Hold Open House

PAGE — Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stevens will observe their 50th wedding anniversary November 5 by holding open house from 2 to 4:30 p.m. in the Fellowship hall of the Page Methodist church.

They take this means of inviting their relatives, friends and neighbors to attend.

IT WENT THATAWAY! This pre-game shot shows team captains from Neligh and O'Neill grabbing for the Frontier-Neligh News traveling trophy held by World-Herald High School Sports Editor Gregg McBride. Neligh pounded out an 18-6 decision over O'Neill Wednesday night to capture the trophy. Shown here with McBride are O'Neill co-captains Kurt Larson, Jerry Kilcoen and Mike Hand. Neligh co-captains at right are Tom Brodersen and Tom Kirk. After a scoreless first half, both teams scored all points in the third quarter in a wide open game.

County Day Sponsored by Amer. Legion

The 13th annual Cornhusker Boys' and Girls' County Government Day will be observed by Holt county Monday at the county courthouse in O'Neill.

Registration for O'Neill public school and St. Mary's academy will be given by Mrs. Lawrence Hamrick, County Legion auxiliary president.

The students will report to their respective offices at 10 a.m. and will work until lunch time, 11:45 a.m.

Following is a list of the work to be done: office work and at 2:10 p.m. will reassemble in the district court room. District Judge Smith will conduct a round table discussion and report from 2:10 p.m. to 3:10 p.m.

Following a talk by Melvin Ruzicka, O'Neill Legion commander, showing the Legion's appreciation of participation, the Safety Patrol will give some time to the students. Dismissal will be at 4 p.m.

Escapes Injury In Truck Mishap

Ralph H. Lindberg, 30, and his load of cattle were uninjured in a one-truck accident Friday about seven miles southeast of Stanton.

The truck struck the soft shoulder of the road and rolled over, landing on its side. The owner of the truck is Everett Gorgen. Investigating the accident was State Trooper Daryl Bittinger.

Receives Injury on Playground Slide

AMELIA — Bruce Waldo seems to be having his share of accidents these days as he has paid two visits in a month to the doctor for stitches.

Friday evening he received a deep cut on the top of his head which required seven stitches to close. Bruce struck his head against a bolt on the underside of the playground slide. About a month ago he had to have stitches to close a cut above his eye received when he fell from his horse while riding to school.

John R. Gallagher Cited by President

A Certificate of Appreciation has been awarded to John R. Gallagher, O'Neill, by President Kennedy in grateful recognition of five years of service to the Nation as a Government Appeal Agent of the Selective Service Local Board of Holt county.

Mr. Gallagher has given his time without compensation.

Clarence Stevens To Hold Open House

PAGE — Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stevens will observe their 50th wedding anniversary November 5 by holding open house from 2 to 4:30 p.m. in the Fellowship hall of the Page Methodist church.

They take this means of inviting their relatives, friends and neighbors to attend.

Three Hospitalized by Car-Truck Accident

A car truck accident on highway 20 at Stuart sent three Newport residents to the hospital.

Injured were Elaine F. Ellis, 21, his wife, Lauralee, 17, and a passenger, Ronnie Young. All three were treated at the hospital and released.

The truck driver, Palmer Schle-dewitz, 28, Scottsbluff was not injured. Patrolman E. M. Hastroiter investigated the mishap.

New Pastor Announced for Lynch Church

LYNCH — Elder Mark Dickens, of the Texas conference, will arrive at Lynch in about two weeks to assume his duties as pastor in the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Announcement of Elder Dickens' appointment to the Lynch district was made on the Sabbath by Elder Trout, Lincoln, Nebraska Conference treasurer, when he was guest speaker here that day.

Elder Dickens is married and has three children.

Tom Lambert Transfers To Hartington Office

Tom Lambert has been transferred to Hartington where he will serve as assistant county supervisor of the farmers Home Administration office.

The transfer will be effective Monday. Mr. Lambert and his family recently moved to O'Neill from Chambers.

NOTICE

Late price changes for the Lee Store ad were received after the ad had already been printed. The ad with the correct prices will be found on page four of the first section.

FORTY SIX HEAD OF REGISTERED HEREFORD BULLS were sold Tuesday at the annual bull sale held at the Harry and Robert Van Horn ranch southeast of O'Neill. Everett Morris, Wood Lake, purchased the top bull for $1,000. Art Schlueter, also of Wood Lake, paid the second highest price of $850 and Tyler McKillip and sons purchased one for $600. Average price paid for the bulls was $538.

Extension Clubs Observe Achievement Day Today

Achievement Day activities for Holt County Home Extension Clubs and their guests will get under way with a covered dish lunch at noon today. The lunch and program are being held in the American Legion Hall in O'Neill.

The program will open with a 4-H demonstration on automotive safety. Dianne Gillespie and Lynn McCarthy of the O'Neill Willing Workers 4-H Club received a purple ribbon for this demonstration at the State Fair.

Mr. Ray Russell of the University of Nebraska will present a talk and pictures of his year's work with Agricultural leaders in South America.

Exhibits of activities and lessons will be made by the various home extension clubs. Group singing and installation of new officers for the coming year will be the additional features of the program.

The public is invited to attend the days program.

Dale Wilsons At Reclamation Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wilson returned Saturday from Billings, Mont., where they attended the National Reclamation Association convention Wednesday through Saturday.

Wilson is chairman of the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce Irrigation committee.

The convention was attended by 900 representatives from 17 western states. Speakers included Stewart Udall, Secretary of the Interior; Wayne Aspinahl, chairman of the house committee on Interior and Insular Affairs; Gov. Nutter of Montana; Senate Majority leader, Mike Mansfield; Floyd Dominy, Commissioner of Reclamation, and Dr. John H. Fabray, famed author and speaker.

Wilson has ordered a record of Dr. Fabray's speech which won the international platform award for 1961, and he will have it available in about a month.

The local Irrigation committee has been working on tabulation and work to be done preparatory to petitioning the state for reclamation district formation in this area.

Former Correspondent To Undergo Surgery

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marston left Thursday for Torrance, Calif., to be with her mother, Mrs. J. E. Wiley, a former Frontier correspondent.

Mrs. Wiley, who is 84 years old recently underwent surgery for gall stones. She had written friends she was planning a trip to Holt county when she became ill. She is a former resident of the Dorsey community.

District Jury Hears Damage Case

A district court jury Wednesday night awarded Glen Cobb, of Glen Cobb Chevrolet $1,000 damages in his suit against Paul Vaughn and Lyle Vaughn sr.

The jury deliberated from 2:45 p.m. until 8 before giving their decision.

Edward Hannan represented the plaintiff and Fred Deutsch, the defendant.

Dr. Sutcliffe's Father Dies at Vermillion

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. in Vermillion, S. D., for Ralph Sutcliffe, 63, who died Monday at his home in Vermillion following a long illness.

Mr. Sutcliffe was the father of Dr. L. R. Sutcliffe, O'Neill.

The services will be held in the First Congregational church. Interment will be in Bluff View cemetery.

School Closes Oct. 25; Teachers at Convention

School closed for most students in Holt county Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. so teachers could attend the Nebraska State Education Association District III convention at Norfolk Thursday and Friday.

Among the candidates for the presidency of the District is Marvin Miller, O'Neill high school principal.

Recommend Closing

A. F. Patton, chairman of the retail trade committee of the Chamber of Commerce, announced this week that the committee has recommended the closing of stores on Veterans Day, Saturday, Nov. 11.

Scouts Realize Half of Goal

With the Scout finance campaign a week old, about half of the goal of $1,200 has been turned in to Chairman Bill McIntosh.

This local campaign is being conducted to finance the activities of the Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorer units. Persons who have not yet been contacted may send their donations to McIntosh, Sandhills District Scout executive, Jerry Dempsey, states that "no man stands so tall as when he stoops to help a boy."

Martin to Speak in O'Neill Nov. 10

Congressman Dave Martin has announced his speaking schedule for the first half of November and included among the dates are four speaking engagements in this area.

November 9 he will appear at a dinner at Elgin, and the following day, November 10, Martin will be at Neligh in the morning and at O'Neill in the afternoon, arriving here at 2 p.m. Martin will also be present at a dinner here in the evening.

Congressman Martin will attend an American Legion meeting in Stuart November 11.

Sale Dates Claimed

TUESDAY, OCT. 31 — Elwin Rubeck farm sale, 25 miles south from O'Neill on Hwy 281 to Horle's station, 2 west and 1/2 north. 39 head of cattle, full line of farm machinery, 1954 Chevrolet 2 1/2-ton truck, milking equipment and household goods. Ed Thorin and Roy Kirwan, auctioneers, Chambers State bank, clerk.

See complete listing in this issue of the Frontier.

NOV. 14 — MR. AND MRS. E. L. "DICK" FERNAU CLOSING OUT SALE. 115 head of cattle, full line of machinery, lots of feed and hay. Sixteen miles north of O'Neill on Hwy 281 to Midway, 4 miles east and 4 miles north to the place. Ed Thorin Auction Service.

CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY OFFICIALS, alumni, parents of current Creighton students and others met Monday night in O'Neill to hear a special presentation showing the history of Edward Creighton, founder of the university. Shown here discussing the university's future are, left to right, R. J. Parr, pastor of St. Joseph's church in Atkinson; C. N. Gonderinger, president of the O'Neill Creighton Alumni club; Msgr. Timothy O'Sullivan, pastor of St. Patrick's church in O'Neill; Henry W. Linn, vice president of university relations, and Bernard J. Conway, university alumni director. Father Linn also discussed recent progress and future plans for the Jesuit school in Omaha. He accompanied his talk with a color slide presentation. Gonderinger had charge of arrangements for this meeting of the O'Neill club.