Helen Hynes Weds Gerald Schmaderer In St. Patrick's Rite

The wedding of Miss Helen Hynes, daughter of Mrs. Loretta Hynes, O'Neill, and Gerald Schmaderer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alois Schmaderer, Stuart, was performed Saturday, Oct. 21, in St. Patrick's church at 10:30 a.m. Officiating at the nuptial mass was Msgr. Timothy O'Sullivan. Robert C. Hynes, brother of the bride, and St. Mary's choir provided the music, accompanied by Sr. M. Flores. The bride, who was escorted by her brother, Robert Hynes, Minneapolis, Minn., chose a floor length gown of pure silk satin with re-embroidered Alencon lace. The elongated bodice featured a portrait neckline and long pointed sleeves. A wide panel of the imported lace extended from the neckline to the hem, accenting the front of the full, flowing skirt of satin. The skirt's fullness, held by unpressed pleats, swept into an aisle-wide train. Her tiered veil of imported illusion was caught by a jeweled crown. The bride's bouquet was a braided satin ring with cymbidium orchids and ivy. Miss Joan Becklin, Omaha, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Charlene Mahony, Omaha, and Miss Marlene Schmaderer, Grand Island, sister of the bridegroom. The attendants were attired in toast colored dresses, street length, with matching head crowns. They carried satin tall-man rings of bronze and yellow pompoms and feathered fuji in-moss. Maurice Schmaderer, Omaha, served as best man for his brother. Another brother, Richard Schmaderer, serving with the armed forces, was a groomsmen along with Jerry McGinn, Omaha, Ushers were Jack Sullivan, Wayne, and Jim Schmaderer, Stuart. One hundred and forty guests attended a reception held at the Tropical Gardens. Mrs. Jerry McGinn had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Kenneth Kulus and Miss Peggy Sullivan served punch. Taking care of the gifts were Mrs. James Carney and Miss Pat Berry. The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy, and is employed at St. Anthony's hospital. Mr. Schmaderer graduated from Stuart high school. He is employed by REA in O'Neill where the couple is residing following a wedding trip to the Ozarks.
