Photo above shows the carpet at the time it was installed on the drive of the New Deal Oil company station in West O'Neill, clean and bright except for a couple of tire tracks.

Here the carpet is after one week of heavy traffic, including trucks, cars, mud, sand and soil. The heavy black spots are oil that has dripped from cars while being serviced.

Here is the final picture, showing the carpet with one-half of it cleaned by Bill's cleaning service. This carpet has undergone two weeks of torture, including snow, rain, mud and hundreds of cars and trucks, yet the cleaned side looks as good as new. Stop in and see it at our store.

Seeing is Believing!

Here Are The Results Of Our

TORTURE TEST

BARWICK 100% DUPONT NYLON

Come in and inspect this still beautiful 100 per cent nylon carpet taken up after this unparalleled test made locally. It is now on display at Meyer's Midwest in O'Neill, Nebraska.

It was down in front of New Deal Oil company for two weeks, exposed to dust, snow, rain, bright sun and all other elements. It had gas, oil, grease, anti freeze, battery acid spilled on it and cigarettes stomped out on it.

ASK YOURSELF... WILL THIS BE THE CARPET FOR ME?

The Answer—"YES" Because

1. Permanent Textures; more permanent than wool, cotton or rayon.
2. Resists abrasions and scuffing. Will outwear comparable carpeting made from any other fiber.
3. Resists crushing and matting. More crush resistance and less matting than comparable wool, rayon or cotton floor coverings in service.
4. More resilient. More resilient than comparable wool, rayon or cotton floor coverings after continued usage.

5. Cleanable. Nylon is an easy-to-care for fiber. The round smooth nylon fibers prevent dirt from clinging. May be spot cleaned and shampooed. Dries quickly.
6. Economical. The strongest and toughest of all carpet fibers nylon will outwear comparable wool and rayon fabrics, thus be actually less expensive in the long run.
7. Mothproof, insect resistant. Never a worry about moths! Carpets beetles cannot attack nylon carpeting.
8. Decorator colors. Nylon can be dyed in lasting colors and an attractive range of shades.
