CARDS OF THANKS

I WOULD LIKE to thank all my friends and relatives for the visits, gifts and cards I received while in the hospital. Also thanks to Dr. Carstens and the wonderful nurses. Mrs. Jennie French 33p

I TAKE THIS MEANS of saying "thank you" to the kind friends who planned the surprise open house at my home Sunday and to all the telephone patrons who came to say "hello," making the afternoon such a pleasant one. A special thanks to all who contributed to the gift of the beautiful wrist watch and envelope of cash, to those who brought and served the lunch and to Hazel Ott who composed the poem "Operator, No. 7." It has been a privilege and a pleasure to serve you during the past few years, rejoicing when you get good news and shedding a few tears with you when bad news came. Mrs. Edith Andersen Amelia's Telephone Operator 33p

WORDS CANNOT EXPRESS our sincerest thanks to all our relatives, neighbors and friends for the messages of sympathy, the beautiful floral offerings and the many other acts of kindness, which helped to lighten our burden of sorrow in the death of our loved one. Mr. and Mrs. John Donohoe and family 33c

A Poem From Mrs. Eby . . .

—Lives Contrasts—
As we think of the difference between the desert land and the luxuriant oasis where palm trees stand,
Thinking of the hungry flocks on the desert fair and flocks that lie down in green pastures there,
And the difference between artificial irrigation and the abundant rains luxuriant vegetation,
These contrasts somehow help us to see in this sinful old world there's a way to be happy somehow.

Though Mr. K may in his way start a row,
These contrasts are true, some Christians are on scant measure,
Never seem to possess the greatest treasure.
Their spiritual life garments are threadbare and poor,
Their Christian life just something they have to endure,
They just come through by the skin of their teeth,
No abundant joy in their hearts underneath.

Contrasting Christians their love beareth all things, believe all things, too
Their service so free, glad His will to do,
Their lives reach out into faithless space,
Sailing out to sea on infinite grace.

Oh! where is such a life to be found just now,
In this troubled old world will God still endow?

Yes, He'll bring sweet peace in the inmost heart, and by faith His spirit will never depart.
"Hast thou entered into Fountains of the sea." Job 38:16
(Della Stuart Eby)
