"A Christmas Card" was the theme of the lesson for the meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service Thursday at the Methodist church. The leaders, Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Charles Grimes took the group on an imaginative tour of Methodist Institutions around the World. Mrs. T. E. Alderson and Mrs. John Wintermote read the scripture. The president is Mrs. Gaius Wintermote. Eighteen answered roll call. Mrs. J. E. Grimes and Mrs. Raymond Beed gave reports. The meeting closed with prayer. Lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Raymond Beed and Mrs. Glen Grimes.

The Bethany Women's association met December 13 in the home of Mrs. Wayne Stevens with an attendance of 12 women and 3 children. Mrs. Mark Gribble led the lesson, "Gods Plan in Our Hands". Several took part in the prepared conversation about work which has been accomplished in far away lands, emphasizing that there is much to be done by "Willing Hands". These places were pin pointed on the World Map. It was voted to give $50 to "White Gift". The meeting closed with the "Lords Prayer". Lunch was served. The next meeting will be December 27 in the home of Mrs. Mark Gribble. There will be an installation of officers.

The Valley Center Extension club met Friday at the home of Mrs. E. R. Carpenter with 17 members and several children present. The president, Mrs. Lloyd Wintermote, presided at the business session. Roll call was answered by telling what each wanted for Christmas. The music period conducted by Mrs. C. V. Robertson was devoted to the singing of Christmas Carols. Names were drawn for "Mystery Sisters". The entertainment in charge of Mrs. Charles Grimes consisted of readings and games. There was an exchange of gifts with each member trying to guess who had been her "mystery sister". Lunch, carrying out the Christmas theme, was served by the hostess, assisted by the co-hostess, Mrs. Melvin Bell.
