

Rita Hoehne Weds Phillip Smith In Omaha Dec. 27

Red and white poinsettias decorated the altar of St. Margaret Mary's church in Omaha December 27 for the wedding of Miss Rita Hoehne, Omaha daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. O'Donnell, O'Neill, and Phillip Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Missouri Valley, Ia.

The Rev. E. Noonan officiated at the 11 a.m. double ring ceremony. Soloist was Donald Beck.

The bride's gown was of silk brocade, styled with a molded bodice featuring a portrait neckline outlined in jewels. Long sleeves tapered to traditional bridal points at the wrists and were fastened with tiny matching buttons. The modified bell shaped skirt was accented with a puffed bustle back with roses emphasizing the skirt which swept into an aisle wide train. Her veil of English silk illusion was elbow length and gathered into a bouffant fullness from a pearl Swedish crown. She carried a cascade of red roses with a detachable gardenia insert.

Miss Sylvia Ball, Bellevue, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Nyla Jaskowski, O'Neill, Patricia Meyer and Mary Schlenz, both of Omaha. Their gowns were of delustered satin in a ruby shade. The street length design featured fitted bodices with a high scoop neckline in front and a V in back. Quarter-length sleeves emphasized the slender bodices. The lines of pencil slim skirts were softened at the top by two soft pleats at either side of the front. Detachable flared overskirts were open in front with tailored bows at center. They wore white hats and carried white fur muffs decorated with holly.

Pat Brookhouser, Missouri Valley, Ia., served as best man. Groomsmen were Charles Smith, brother of the bridegroom, David Olive, Leavenworth, Kan., and Larry Vetter, Salem, S. D. George Thompson, Bellevue, and Jim Wanken, Eagle Grove, Ia., were ushers.

The bride's parents entertained at a luncheon and reception in the Cameo room at Fireside restaurant following the ceremony. A pre-nuptial dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents at the Town House following the rehearsal.

The bride attended St. Mary's academy graduating in 1958, and the College of St. Mary's, Omaha. She has been employed as a teacher by St. Margaret Mary's.

Mr. Smith graduated from Missouri Valley high school and is a senior at Creighton university, Omaha.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at Missouri Valley, Ia.

Sandra Klinger, Lonnie Sandall Exchange Vows

ATKINSON — A candlelight ceremony was used for the wedding of Miss Sandra Klinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Klinger, Atkinson, and Lonnie Sandall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Sandall, Stuart, December 31 in the First Presbyterian church, Atkinson.

The Rev. Raymond F. Kersting officiated at the ceremony which was performed beneath an archway decorated with poinsettias and Christmas cactus. G. I. Medcalf was the vocalist, accompanied by Miss Donna McClurg at the organ.

A white satin gown was worn by the bride and it was fashioned with an overskirt of nylon net and Chantilly lace in floor length, and sleeves of wrist length. She wore a white Chantilly lace veil attached to a crown of mother of pearl sequins. Her flowers were red carnations.

Mrs. Ray Risor, O'Neill, was maid of honor and she was attired in a blue taffeta dress, street length, with matching hat and veil. She carried a white Bible with blue and white ribbon streamers.

Ray Risor, O'Neill, served as best man. Ronnie Laible, Stuart, ushered.

Seventy guests attended the reception which followed the ceremony. It was held in the church fellowship hall and was given by the bride's parents.
