

Cards Whip Greeley 65-30 Monday To End Seven Game Losing Streak

St. Mary's Academy bounced out of the doldrums in a game played here Monday night. The Academy quintet, losers of 7 straight, romped to a 65-30 victory over the Greeley Sacred Heart team.

The SMA team, whose previous high points in a game was 54 against Butte, finally started using the basketball for something other than a hot point and had 21, 18 and two 13 point quarters to provide the big scoring boost.

The game started out slow and Greeley made it close the first quarter 13-11, but the Cardinals started to hang onto the ball and this combined with a sharp passing attack that set up many shots for the Cards started the down fall of the visitors.

In the second quarter St. Mary's, reversing previous roles, lowered the boom and put 18 points through the nets, while limiting the hapless Sacred Heart team to 4 points in running up a 31-15 half time advantage.

With St. Mary's shooting at 47 per cent, the game was never in doubt. Greeley also had 21 fouls called against them to aid St. Mary's further. With 7 of Oetter's 17 points and 6 of Donohoe's 14 points coming in the third quarter, St. Mary's padded their lead and wound up with a 44-24 margin.

The last quarter was the big one for St. Mary's as they outscored the visitors 21-6. Ray Belina came in during the fourth quarter and hit 5 out of 6 shots and one free throw to toss in 11 points in his brief stint. Norm Madloff and Jim Spitzberger hit 11 and 8 points respectively to round out the scoring for the home team.

Warner, Thompson, and Whalton, led the Greeley team with 15, 10 and 9 points.
