

Helen Britt's favorite is America's favorite: Toll House Cookies. She varies the basic recipe by "marbleizing" the chocolate morsels into the cookie.

Ruth Andre chose Crepes for their breakfast — or main dish — or dessert versatility. Rolled up and served with orange sauce, they're a conversation-piece.

Grace Manney's cookie jar features Down East Fruit Cookies, a favorite with children. Molasses, cinnamon, nuts, raisins and glace fruit make them rich.

Bernadine Landsberg selected Herb 'n Spice Buns as one of her favorite yeast rolls . . . bakes them in two or three-inch muffin cups.

Marguerite Gustafson bakes a conventional one-bowl butter cake; slices, stacks 3 layers into 6, filled and frosted with buttery-rich chocolate custard.
