

Terms of Subscription: In Nebraska, $2.50 per year; elsewhere in the United States, $3 per year, rate abroad provided upon request. All subscriptions payable in advance.

Entered at the postoffice in O'Neill, Holt county, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879. This newspaper is a member of the Nebraska Press Association, National Editorial Association and the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Ewing News

By Mrs. Harold Harris

The Tuesday evening meeting of the Young Matrons pinocle club was held at the home of Mrs. Leland Welke. Mrs. George Keller was a guest. Score winners were Mrs. Ray Funk, Mrs. Arthur Kropp and Mrs. Earl Wright. Mrs. R. H. Shain, co-hostess, assisted in serving lunch.

Visitors at the C. C. Hahlbeck home Sunday were Leon, Donnie and Sherry Hahlbeck, Owen Schmidt and Don Wright. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Butler made a combined business and pleasure trip to Norfolk one day last week.

Arthur Snyder Jr., Central City, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Snyder, while his wife and family visited her parents at Cedar Rapids.

Mrs. Loyd Angus is staying at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Angus and daughter in Lincoln. Mrs. Merle Angus recently underwent ear surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Shaw and children returned to Columbus Monday morning after spending the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Knapp.

Boies Conoco station celebrated 25 years of business in Ewing with open house. Prize winners were Mrs. Lyman Park, Page, Mrs. Melvin Napier, Ewing, and Harold Parks, sr. Ewing.

Mrs. Martha Hill was a recent visitor at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill and family near Page.

John Cork, Page, and Don Hahlbeck were overnight guests at the C. C. Hahlbeck home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Latzel returned to their home in Omaha Saturday after spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. George Latzel, and brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Latzel and family.

The project for the Cub Scouts for the month of March will have a circus theme. Costumes, stunts and other events will be planned for the Cub Scout meeting to be held in O'Neill in April. Saturday the Cubs met at the homes of their den mothers, Mrs. William J. Boies and Mrs. Ralph Munn and from here left to deliver Good Will bags to all the homes in Ewing. Due to the stormy weather, cars were provided by Mrs. Munn, Mr. Boies and Jim Rotherham. Mmes. Ray Funk, William J. Boies, Ralph Munn and James Rotherham went to O'Neill Thursday evening where they attended a Cub Scout meeting held at the United Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Angus made a business trip to Neligh Saturday.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Welke home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rodgers, O'Neill, and Mr. and Mrs. Milan Welke and daughters, Ewing.

Mrs. Bob Welke and son, Killen, Tex., are guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Welke and Bonnie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tucker were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Tucker, O'Neill Wednesday, February 28, when their son, Rickie, celebrated a birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Anson spent the weekend at the home of his mother, Mrs. Vera Anson. They returned to Battle Creek Sunday.

The Past Matrons' club and Star Kensington were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Wood. There was a small attendance and the hours were spent socially. Lunch was served by Mrs. Wood.

Thursday evening dinner and evening guests at the Aubrey Wood home were Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Davis and Marie.

Ben Larsen was able to come home Wednesday from St. Anthony's hospital and is now convalescing at his home from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pruden and J. H. Pruden were dinner guests Sunday at the Ben Larsen home. The occasion was in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Pruden.

Mrs. S. M. Burtwistle and son, JM, were callers Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pruden.

The Ewing community again was hit by a weekend snowstorm Saturday with the unofficial report of about four inches of new snow. This was followed by a strong northwest wind later in the day, continuing throughout the night and Sunday, blocking highways and country roads. Traffic was practically at a standstill. Temperatures rose slightly above the zero mark Sunday. Church attendance was small.

Weekend trips were cancelled by several Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eacker who had spent a few days at Sioux City, Ia., came home Friday and reported much blowing snow on the highways. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Billings returned home Saturday from Hastings. They too, found driving hazardous.

Guests at the Dewitt Gunter home are their children, Mrs. Max Graver and Mrs. Howard Plugg, both from Illinois, and Melvin Gunter, Odebolt, Ia.

Mrs. Leland Welke home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rodgers, O'Neill, and Mr. and Mrs. Milan Welke and daughters, Ewing.

Mrs. Bob Welke and son, Killen, Tex., are guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Welke and Bonnie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tucker were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Tucker, O'Neill Wednesday, February 28, when their son, Rickie, celebrated a birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Anson spent the weekend at the home of his mother, Mrs. Vera Anson. They returned to Battle Creek Sunday.

The Past Matrons' club and Star Kensington were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Wood. There was a small attendance and the hours were spent socially. Lunch was served by Mrs. Wood.

Thursday evening dinner and evening guests at the Aubrey Wood home were Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Davis and Marie.

Ben Larsen was able to come home Wednesday from St. Anthony's hospital and is now convalescing at his home from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pruden and J. H. Pruden were dinner guests Sunday at the Ben Larsen home. The occasion was in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Pruden.

Mrs. S. M. Burtwistle and son, JM, were callers Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pruden.

The Ewing community again was hit by a weekend snowstorm Saturday with the unofficial report of about four inches of new snow. This was followed by a strong northwest wind later in the day, continuing throughout the night and Sunday, blocking highways and country roads. Traffic was practically at a standstill. Temperatures rose slightly above the zero mark Sunday. Church attendance was small.

Weekend trips were cancelled by several Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eacker who had spent a few days at Sioux City, Ia., came home Friday and reported much blowing snow on the highways. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Billings returned home Saturday from Hastings. They too, found driving hazardous.

Guests at the Dewitt Gunter home are their children, Mrs. Max Graver and Mrs. Howard Plugg, both from Illinois, and Melvin Gunter, Odebolt, Ia.

Melvin canceled his trip home Sunday due to the storm and highway conditions. All spent as much time as possible with their mother who is a patient at St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Tessmer and sons spent the weekend at Rosalie with relatives.

The Rev. Mrs. Nina Haines and Mrs. Edna Lofquest started to Spencer Saturday morning to attend a prayer conference. Traveling conditions grew worse and driving hazardous, so they turned back, stopping at O'Neill to visit Mrs. Emma Closson at St. Anthony's hospital before returning to Ewing.

Mrs. Edna Lofquest, who has spent a few weeks visiting at the home of her son, Robert Lofquest and family at Fremont, returned home Tuesday.

(Last Week's News)
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kirschmer and family were guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brittle at O'Neill Sunday.

Guests Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Josie Versaw were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Auman, Orchard and her mother, Mrs. Siems of Kent, Washington.

Mrs. Helen Wright had as her guests Sunday her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Malene of Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hobbs visited Sunday at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Steskal near Clearwater.

Teresa Hobbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hobbs, is a patient at St. Anthony's hospital. Her condition shows improvement and she is expected home the first of the week.

Guests at the Wilbur Spangler home for supper Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Spangler and family, Ewing.

The Facts and Fun Home Extension club has postponed their meeting from March 1 to March 8 due to weather and road conditions.

Mrs. Ralph Eacker returned home Monday from Grand Island where she has spent the past three weeks at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Fuller, while they made a business trip to Arizona and Old Mexico.

Mrs. David Wright visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rotherham Sunday were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Donohue and Jerry, O'Neill. Duane Tinsley has been staying at the Roland Hord home and attending the Ewing public school due to the bad roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bartak and family were guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. Laura Spittler, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Regan and family are making plans to move into their new residence in Ewing during the weekend. The erection of this new home was started last summer.

Dean Pofahl spent Sunday with his family at the A. F. Seaman home in Norfolk.

Guests at the Alex Thramer home Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Tomjack and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Thramer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Thramer. Card games provided amusement.

Mrs. and Mrs. Curtis Roberts were Thursday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Latzel.

Try and Do Club
The Try and Do Home Extension Club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Merlyn Meyer. Nine members answered to roll call. The lesson on Fall Out Shelters was given by Mrs. Catherine Indra. Pamphlets and other literature on the subject was given to all present.

Mrs. Stanley Davis, president presided at the business meeting. The club voted to give five dollars to the Heart Fund. Mrs. Davis served refreshments during the social hour.

John and Mary Sanders, O'Neill, were guests from Wednesday to Sunday at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Mildred Bergstrom and family during the absence of their mother and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Larson, who had gone to Canon City, Colo., to attend the funeral of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hahlbeck were hosts for a family dinner party at their home Sunday in honor of the birthday anniversary of their granddaughter, Mrs. Terry Erb. Other guests were Terry Erb, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hahlbeck and family and Owen Schmidt. Leon Hahlbeck came to spend the evening. Mrs. Verie Tuttle was an afternoon caller the same day.

Monday callers at the C. C. Hahlbeck home were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Michael, Clearwater and Mrs. Ed Hoag, Ewing.

Mrs. Dewitt Gunter, who is suffering from a heart ailment, entered St. Anthony's hospital, at O'Neill Saturday for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turay and children were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Yell.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hord visited Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery.

The Frontier
On Sale each Thursday morning at
Safeway Store — O'Neill
Golden Hotel — O'Neill
Stannard's Superette — O'Neill
O'Neill Drug — O'Neill
Devoy Drug — O'Neill
Johnson Drug — O'Neill
Wilson Drug — Atkinson
Munn's Store — Ewing
McGraw's Store — Inman
Newhouse Sundries—Chambers

Deloit News

By Mrs. H. Reimer

Mr. and Mrs. Don Spahn and three children and Mrs. Spahn's mother, Mrs. Verhune, left Sunday, Feb. 25, by car for their new home in Oregon. Their furniture was taken by truck.

Mrs. Mary Stearns and Mrs. Maynard Stearns called at the Will Conner home Monday, Mrs. Mary Stearns spent Thursday afternoon at the Conner home.

The snowstorm and heavy wind Saturday night caused a number of people to be stranded in town Saturday night and Sunday. The milk trucks, etc., were unable to make their routes. The snowplows were taken off the roads until the wind went down Sunday. And Spring only two weeks away!

The Durre family of Chambers is moving to the late Fred Schmidt farm which he purchased. The Kryger ranch owners purchased the land on the west side of the road. Mrs. Schmidt is making her home in Elgin following the death of her husband.

Mrs. H. Reimer spent part of the weekend at her home, returning Saturday to Ewing when the storm hit here.

The shower for Mrs. Charlotte Wright which was to have been Sunday afternoon was postponed for the third time.

Mrs. Myrtle Jewell, Dallas, S. D., is snowed in at the Johnny Bauer home.

Charles Bartak made a business trip to Norfolk Saturday. Iris Van Ostrand, who is employed at the Bartak's spent the weekend in her home in Ewing.

One farmer's wife started to Neigh with a carload of hatching eggs several times Saturday. The storm was so severe and visibility so poor she was forced to give up the trip.

Chambers News

By Mrs. E. R. Carpenter

A party honoring the American Legion members of Post 320 and their wives was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walter. About 20 guests were present. The evening was spent at games. Lunch was served by the hostess.

World Day of Prayer will be observed at the Chambers Methodist church Friday at 2 p.m. with members of the Bethany Presbyterian Women's Federation, the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Chambers and Amelia Methodist churches present. The Amelia women will be in charge of the service and the fellowship and lunch following.

There were no services at the Chambers Methodist church and St. Paul's Lutheran church Sunday. The Memorial Baptist church had services both morning and evening. St. Paul's church is without a resident pastor at present. The pastor of the Clearwater Lutheran church comes to Chambers for services each Sunday when weather permits. Furnace trouble at the Methodist church caused canceling of services there.

Richard S. Sockman, Missionary from India, accompanied by his wife, a native of India, and their two children will present

Missionary work there in message and color slides Thursday from 7 to 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Brion, Ewing, were visitors in the J. W. Walter home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Walter and daughters, Norfolk, were Friday night guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walter.

A group of young people of the Memorial Baptist church with their sponsors went to Ord Saturday evening to attend a "Youth for Christ" meeting.

The Don Lines Farm Sale, postponed from February 21 was held February 28. Due to road conditions and the severe cold, a smaller than usual crowd was present. The family reports that prices, with the exception of a few things, was quite satisfactory.

Keith Halsey accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Eugene Halsey, and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Grimes drove to Milford Saturday. The Halseys visited Mrs. Halsey's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Read and daughters, and the Grimeses visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grimes and family.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will be held May 29 in the new high school gymnasium.

There was no school in District 137 Monday. This includes the town school and six county schools. Mr. Batenhorst came to Chambers from Stuart Sunday evening and Mr. Chronopolus came from Grand Island Sunday evening.

Mrs. LeRoy Holcomb, student at Kearney State Teachers college, spent the weekend at home. Due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Floyd Whitaker, she was unable to return to her school duties until Wednesday.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Steve Shavlik in charge of the worship. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Glen Adams with Mrs. Shavlik in charge of the worship. The meeting closed with prayer followed by lunch served by Mrs. T. E. Newhouse and Mrs. Eugene Halsey.

An Extension club trainer meeting was held Friday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Grimes. All clubs from the Chambers Center were represented.

The Alumni committee reports that plans are developing for the annual Alumni banquet which will