Ted Boyle, seaman apprentice, USN, brother of Edward J. Boyle, Route 1, O'Neill, is serving aboard the tank landing ship USS Windham County, a unit of the Pacific Fleet Amphibious force, headquartered at San Diego, which celebrated its 20th anniversary February 20.

Today, approximately 20,000 men assigned to some 70 ships and supporting units make up the force, commanded by Vice Adm. Howard A. Yeager. The Pacific amphibs are capable of transporting and landing combat-ready Marines and their equipment across the beaches of any trouble spot in the Pacific, the Far East or Southeast Asia.

ATKINSON — Roger D. Sterns, interior communications electrician fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Sterns, Atkinson, is serving aboard the tank landing ship USS Holmes County, a unit of the Pacific Fleet Amphibious Force, headquartered at San Diego, Calif., which celebrates its 20th anniversary Feb. 20.

Established on Feb. 20, 1942, the force spearheaded such World War II amphibious campaigns as Guadalcanal, Leyte, Iwo Jima and Okinawa.

Today, approximately 20,000 men assigned to some 70 ships and supporting units make up the force, commanded by Vice Adm. Howard A. Yeager. The Pacific amphibs are capable of transporting and landing combat-ready Marines and their equipment across the beaches of any trouble spot in the Pacific, the Far East or Southeast Asia.

James P. Barnes, aviation boatswain's mate second class, USN, son of Mrs. Ruth Barnes, Atkinson, is serving aboard the attack aircraft USS Hancock, which arrived, February 7, in the Hawaiian Islands enroute to join the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Upon reaching the islands, the carrier participated in "Operation Readiness" drills off the coast of Oahu. The vessel is carrying 10 tons of supplies that will be distributed to needy peoples overseas as part of "Operation Handclasp". Home-ported at Alameda, Calif., the Hancock is scheduled to visit Japan, Hong Kong and the Philippine Islands during the seven-month cruise.
