They are the parents of one son, LeRoy, and have two grandsons, Gary and Gail Holcomb.

Jacquelyn Barnhart, Ronald Mott Are Married at Neligh

EWING — Miss Jacquelyn Barnhart, daughter of Mrs. Esthermae Barnhart, Neligh, and Ronald Mott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Mott, Ewing, were united in marriage Sunday, Mar. 11, at the First Methodist church in Neligh.

Performing the 2:30 p.m. double ring ceremony was the Rev. Leslie W. Mewmaw. Mrs. Marguerite Carnes was organist and she accompanied the vocalist, Mrs. Glen Carpenter.

An ivory satin strapless dress with long sleeved lace jacket was worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her great uncle, Harry Mulhair, Lynch. The jacket had a scalloped neckline and tiny pearl buttons at the wrists and front. A wide scalloped hem completed the floor length, full gathered skirt on the dress which was made by the bride's mother. She carried a white Bible centered with yellow roses.

Miss Sandy Baker, Neligh, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Mott, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Gloria Berg, Neligh. They wore identical dresses of medium blue lace over blue taffeta with cummerbunds.

Light blue hats and bouquets of blue carnations completed their ensembles. Serving as best man was Walter Miller. Groomsmen were the Rev. George Francis and Rolland Johnson, both of Neligh. Ushering were Dale McKnight and Lawrence Lange, also of Neligh.

Sisters of the couple, Velena Barnhart, Neligh, and Tammy Mott, were flower girls. Steve DeCamp, Neligh, was ring bearer. Candelighters were Kerry Barnhart, Neligh, brother of the bride, and Jim DeCamp.

Approximately 100 guests attended the reception held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Mrs. John Strode, Norfolk, cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Nizel Barkdoll poured the coffee and Miss Sharon Peterson served the punch. Servers were Miss Marietta Lange and Miss Gay Thompson. Mrs. Harry Mulhair was in charge of the guest book. Arranging gifts were Miss Ruth Mewmaw and Miss Sharon Peterson.

The bride graduated in 1961 from Neligh high school and prior to her marriage was employed at Wanek Drug store in Neligh.

Mr. Mott is a graduate of McPherson, Kansas high school and is presently employed on the Vern Huckfeldt farm where the couple is making their home.
