For BETTER LIVING ELECTRICALLY you pay the 5th lowest bill in the nation...

just $6.26 for 250 KWH per month!

According to the latest Federal Power Commission survey of residential rates for electricity, Nebraskans are among a fortunate few in the nation. Residents of 45 states—including all of Nebraska's neighboring states—pay more per month for 250 kilowatt-hours of electricity than do Nebraskans. For all 50 states, the average monthly bill is $7.45. In 356 Nebraska communities, the source of low cost electricity is Consumers Public Power District—constantly at work to provide you with extra electrical value at no extra cost.
