

Many Contests Tuesday For Holt County Offices

Voters will go to the polls Tuesday to select candidates for the fall election in a primary that has more competition for county offices than any or many years.

Contests are evident in the Republican races for clerk of district court, county treasurer, county sheriff, county assessor and for supervisor of the first district.

In the clerk's race Keith A. Abart is opposing incumbent Howard D. Manson for nomination. No one filed for the office on the Democratic ballot.

J. Ed Hancock, incumbent county treasurer, is opposed by Arthur W. Kopp.

Three men are bidding for Republican nomination for sheriff. Chris McGinn, O'Neill Police chief, Earl C. Billings, Ewing, and Lloyd Thurlow, Stuart, are seeking to oppose the incumbent, Democrat Leo Tomjack. No one is bidding for the Democratic nomination against Tomjack.

Charles R. Fox, Inman, is trying to unseat incumbent William F. Wefso, Atkinson, for the post of county assessor.

In the first district supervisor's race Arlo A. Hunt and Ralph H. Walker are seeking the Republican nomination. The winner will oppose incumbent Democrat Ed Flood in November.

No other races are shaping up in the primaries for supervisor, but each party has a candidate for each supervisor post in which a term expires except the seventh.

In the third district Republican Clarence Ernst, incumbent, will be opposed in the general election this fall by Democrat Ray A. Bosn.

Republican Harlan Dierking, incumbent, will be running against Democrat Lawrence Pribil.

The seventh district has only one candidate, incumbent Eli McConnell, who is seeking re-nomination on the Republican ballot.

In the county attorney's contest, each party has one candidate. Incumbent William Griffin is on the Republican ballot while John R. Gallagher is running on the Democratic slate.

On the state level candidates are more numerous. Each party has three candidates for governor.

On the Democratic ticket for governor the Democrats have the incumbent Frank B. Morrison, Mrs. Ralph G. Brooks and Tony Mangiameli, while the Republicans list Fred A. Seaton, George A. Clarke and Louis H. Hecter.

Two candidates are listed by each party for lieutenant governor. They are Democrats Rudolph Andersen and Robert A. Dison and Republicans Dwight W. Burney and Lester H. Anderson.

On the non-political ballots Frank Nelson is running for re-election for member of the legislature for the twenty-eighth district. He is unopposed.

Three candidates are seeking nomination for chief justice of the supreme court. They are Herbert A. Ronin, Paul White and Clarence S. Beck.

For university regent three candidates are offered. Roy E. Blixt, Jack G. Elliott and Max Brown are seeking the office.

County Judge Frank Cronk and County Superintendent Alice L. French are unopposed.

Polls in O'Neill will be open as follows: First ward, court house basement; second ward, KC hall; third ward, police station; fourth ward, City hall.

Page Junior Class to Present Play Friday

PAGE — The junior class of the Page high school will present their play, "No Bride for the Groom" Friday night at the Page auditorium.

The cast of characters for the three act comedy include Connie Nissen, Bruce Bowen, Diane Kemper, Caroline Max, Dick Linder, Bonnie Heiss, Randy Stauffer, Peggy Crumly, Juanita Ragland, Larry Summers, Karen Harris, and Sandra Alberts.

Between the first and second acts the kindergarten and first grades will entertain with their rhythm band.

Funeral Services Held Monday for Mrs. W. McIntosh

Mrs. William McIntosh, 39, passed away Friday morning, May 4, in St. Anthony's hospital, following a lingering illness.

Funeral services were held Monday in the Methodist church in O'Neill with the Rev. Glen Kennicott in charge. Burial was in Prospect Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were: R. E. Evans, John Waisan, Ben Grady, Dr. George Carstensen, Melvin Marcellis, Dale Wilton and Hugh Kruse.

Violet Willamae Beatty was born April 10, 1923 in Madison, the daughter of George and Mabel Beatty. She spent her childhood in Madison where she graduated from high school in 1940. Following graduation she was employed in Madison and Omaha.

She married William W. McIntosh in Madison, May 5, 1944. To this union two sons were born, William Dean, 14, and Richard Ray, 10.

She and her husband moved to O'Neill in September, 1946, where they lived and operated the McIntosh Jewelry. Violet was a member of the First Methodist church, Wesleyan Service Guild, Symphony chapter 316, Order of the Eastern Star and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Besides her husband and sons she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Beatty, Madison and one brother, Richard, also of Madison. She was preceded in death by a sister, who died in infancy.

Funeral services were held Monday in the Methodist church in O'Neill with the Rev. Glen Kennicott in charge. Burial was in Prospect Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were: R. E. Evans, John Waisan, Ben Grady, Dr. George Carstensen, Melvin Marcellis, Dale Wilton and Hugh Kruse.

Violet Willamae Beatty was born April 10, 1923 in Madison, the daughter of George and Mabel Beatty. She spent her childhood in Madison where she graduated from high school in 1940. Following graduation she was employed in Madison and Omaha.

She married William W. McIntosh in Madison, May 5, 1944. To this union two sons were born, William Dean, 14, and Richard Ray, 10.

She and her husband moved to O'Neill in September, 1946, where they lived and operated the McIntosh Jewelry. Violet was a member of the First Methodist church, Wesleyan Service Guild, Symphony chapter 316, Order of the Eastern Star and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Besides her husband and sons she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Beatty, Madison and one brother, Richard, also of Madison. She was preceded in death by a sister, who died in infancy.

Funeral services were held Monday in the Methodist church in O'Neill with the Rev. Glen Kennicott in charge. Burial was in Prospect Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were: R. E. Evans, John Waisan, Ben Grady, Dr. George Carstensen, Melvin Marcellis, Dale Wilton and Hugh Kruse.

Violet Willamae Beatty was born April 10, 1923 in Madison, the daughter of George and Mabel Beatty. She spent her childhood in Madison where she graduated from high school in 1940. Following graduation she was employed in Madison and Omaha.

She married William W. McIntosh in Madison, May 5, 1944. To this union two sons were born, William Dean, 14, and Richard Ray, 10.

She and her husband moved to O'Neill in September, 1946, where they lived and operated the McIntosh Jewelry. Violet was a member of the First Methodist church, Wesleyan Service Guild, Symphony chapter 316, Order of the Eastern Star and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Besides her husband and sons she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Beatty, Madison and one brother, Richard, also of Madison. She was preceded in death by a sister, who died in infancy.

CRAZY DAYS crazy costumes winners went all out to make Friday's promotion a success. The winners (left to right) are: Gary Stowell, Penny store, first; Emerson Steele, Gambles, second, and Marie Smith, Lee Stores, third.

Expect Nearly 400 Tracksters Here Friday

A total of 389 athletes from 34 schools will compete in the Class C and D district track meet in O'Neill Friday.

Leaders in the Class C events are: 120 yd high hurdles, Larson, O'Neill, 15.7; 180 low hurdles, Larson, O'Neill, 21.5; 440 dash, Farnock, Verdigre, 53.4; 100 yd dash, Kilcoin, O'Neill and Kilmont, Wausa, 10; 220 dash, Kilcoin, 22.3; 800 run, Darrel Steckelberg, Osmond; mile run, Kumm, Osmond, 4:52; 800 relay, O'Neill, 1:35.8; mile relay, Verdigre, 3:43.3; broad jump, Kilcoin, 21 2/4'; high jump, Timmerman, Verdigre, 5' 9"; pole vault, McGinn, 10' 11"; discus, Hill, 136; shot put, Liska, Niobrara, 48' 7".

Tops in class D are: 120 high hurdles, Lanman, Lynch, 15.6; 180 low hurdles, Lanman, Lynch, 21.7; 440 dash, Reicks, Spalding, 54.2; 800 run, Crumly, 2:18.7; mile relay, Staart, 3:51; broad jump, Reicks, Primrose, 19 9/16"; discus, Jones, Hartington, 134' 11"; 100 dash, Micaneck, Lynch, 10.5; 220 dash, Reicks, Primrose, 23.4; mile, Demuth, Creighton, 4:49.5; 800 relay, Cedar Rapids, 1:38.6; high jump, Lanman, Lynch, 5' 11"; shot put, Mulhair, Lynch, 50'; pole vault, Payne, Bartlett, 10' 9".

Womans Club Elects Officers for Year

New officers were named for the coming year by the O'Neill Women's Club at their meeting held Monday evening.

The officers are: Mrs. John Osenbaugh, president; Mrs. Gil Poese, vice president, and Mrs. L. A. Burgess, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. H. J. Birmingham showed slides and gave a talk on her travels.

Scouts Honor Harry Spall for Cubmaster Work

Cub scouts of O'Neill Pack 210 held their pack meeting at the American Legion Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. The retiring cubmaster, Harry Spall, was presented a plaque in appreciation for his work the past year.

The new cubmaster and committee members were introduced by retiring committee chairman, Roy Humrich.

The committee members are: Vern Reynolds, Harry Spall, Dr. Harry Gildersleeve, chairman, Sam Dierckson, membership chairman, Lee Jackson, treasurer, Jean Jackson, secretary, cubmaster, William Ware and assistant cubmaster, V. K. Peterson.

The following boys received awards: Russel Derickson, Jim Farrier, Billy Ware, Donnie Klusman, Bruce Wecker and Richard Gallagher.

4-H Public Speaking Contest Held in O'Neill

Six 4-H club members participated in the Holt county 4-H Timely Topics Speaking Contest in O'Neill.

Margie Gilg, Atkinson, the only contestant in the senior division, received a purple ribbon on her talk "4-H in the Space Age". Margie will compete in the district contest at the Nebraska State 4-H Camp at Halsey on May 31.

Contestants in the junior division, the title of their talk, and the ribbon they received are as follows: Susan Taylor, Ewing, "The Education 4-H Has Given To Me"; Billy Gilg, Atkinson, "The 4-H Star"; blue; Janice Vequist, O'Neill, "Do You Know How to study?"; blue; Walter Fick jr., Inman, "My 4-H Story"; red, and John Mathis, Atkinson, "Leaders Push", white.

Judges for the contest were Mrs. Edgar Stauffer, Page and Mr. James Rooney, O'Neill.

Set Fund Drive for Friday to Buy Senior Citizen Home Site

Claire Hickey Is Named To State CDA Post

Agnes Claire Hickey, O'Neill, was named state monitor at the 20th biennial state convention of the Nebraska Catholic Daughters of America held Saturday at North Platte.

Other state officers named for the 1962-64 term were: Mrs. Emil Janssen, Croton, state regent; Regina Siren, Hastings, state vice regent; Inelda Nolan, Omaha, state secretary, and Mrs. Adam Dubas, Grand Island, state treasurer.

Approximately 150 members were present for the two day convention. Attending from the local court were Agnes Hickey, Carolyn Neiers and Kathleen Warnke.

The convention was keynoted by the presence of the supreme regent, Margaret Buckley, Chevy Chase, Md., who gave the principal address Saturday evening.

State regent, Mrs. B. J. McShane, North Platte, conducted the convention.

Rites Planned Here Today for Mrs. B. Conway

Mrs. Bertha Conway, 85, died Wednesday morning in St. Anthony's hospital. Rosary services were held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Biglins Chapel. Funeral services are today in St. Patrick's church at 10 a.m. with the Rev. Robert Duffy officiating. Burial will be in Calvary cemetery. Pallbearers are Harry Donohoe, Leo Burival, Clarence Gokie, John Jansen, Jim Earley sr. and John Cleary.

Bertha McAllister Conway was born September 1, 1876 in Dunlap, Ia., the daughter of Bernard and Catherine McAllister. She was united in marriage to Martin Conway October 10, 1900, in Panama, Ia. Nine children were born to this union.

In March, 1914, they moved to a farm north of O'Neill where she has since made her home.

She was preceded in death by her husband in December, 1939 and one son, Bernard, who died at the age of eight years.

Mrs. Conway is survived by five sons, William, Fred M., James F., Raymond J., and John P., all of O'Neill and four daughters, Sister M. Quentin, Kansas City, Kan., Sister M. Hortense, Antonio, Colo., Mrs. Charles Thompson and Clare Conway, O'Neill, one sister, Mrs. Ida Sullivan, Woodbine, Ia. and 12 grandchildren.

Burial will be in Pleasant View cemetery, north of Lynch. Loren Mulhair, John Weeder, Thomas Schunk, Russel Moffett, Dwight Micaneck and Harold Dean Micaneck are pallbearers.

Eleanor Lavern Barnes was born May 23, 1940, the daughter of Elmo and Ila Holz Barnes. She attended grade school in a rural school north of Lynch and graduated from the Lynch high school in 1958. Eleanor attended Wayne State Teachers College and taught school two years. At the present time she is a junior at Miltonvale Wesleyan College in Miltonvale. She became a member of the Lynch Wesleyan Methodist church in 1956.

She was a member of the a cappella choir, student council and housemother in Gathers Hill. Eleanor is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Barnes, brothers Marlin and David, grandfather, Guy A. Barnes, Lynch, and grandmother, Mrs. Anna Holz, Norfolk, and a number of aunts and uncles.

Hospital Auxiliary Contributes $550

A check for $550 was presented to Mother Francis toward the purchase of a binocular microscope by the St. Anthony's hospital auxiliary at their meeting Monday evening.

As their next project, Mother Francis suggested the purchase of a Gonco stomach suction machine. The auxiliary also voted to again sponsor the O'Neill dance revue to be held May 24.

Following the meeting a tour of the hospital was made.

St. Boniface School To Dedicate Building

Dedication services for the new St. Boniface school at Stuart will be held today (Thursday) at 3:30 p.m. Officiating at the ceremony will be the most Reverend John L. Paschang, Grand Island.

Confirmation will be held following the dedication with Archbishop Gerald T. Bergan officiating.

The new school building was started in May of 1961 and was first put into use in January of this year. Cost of the completely equipped structure was $124,000. Approximately 125 students now attend St. Boniface school.

Eleanor Barnes Dies Sunday In Kansas Hospital

Eleanor Barnes, 21, Lynch, died Sunday in St. Joseph's hospital, Concordia, Kan. She became ill with Diabetes Insipidus May 1 and went into a coma May 3 from which she never recovered. Funeral services were held in Miltonvale in the college chapel, Tuesday at 11 a.m. The body lay in state in Lynch Wednesday. Services will be held today at 2 p.m. in the Wesleyan Methodist church, Lynch, with the Rev. Glenn Dyer officiating. The Jones Funeral Home will be in charge.

Working the northeast quarter will be John Watson and Reed Herley; northwest quarter, Virgil Laursen, Bob Papperheimer and Dr. Wilson, southwest quarter, Gordon Johnson and Ray Eby, southeast quarter, A. L. Patton and Bill Richardson.

Clerk Warns On Absentee Votes

The county clerk's office will remain open until noon Saturday to receive applications and deliver absentee voter's ballots, Ken Waring said Wednesday.

Saturday is the last day for absentee voters ballots. Disabled voters have until 4 p.m. Monday to obtain their ballots, Waring said.

Both types of ballots must be postmarked before midnight Monday.

All persons interested in joining the Elks lodge may attend a meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Golden Hotel Don Becker announced Wednesday. Speaker will be Mike DeLay, Norfolk banker.

Last week, Orville Holt, a national officer of the Elks and a district director from York attended a meeting here.

Sale Dates Claimed

THURSDAY, MAY 10 — G. H. Jones personal property sale, at his home a block west of Harding crematory in O'Neill. Also in this issue of The Frontier for full details. Ed Thorin auction service.

MAY 21 — MARIE LYBOLT personal property sale two blocks west of Dankert's in Chambers. Watch for complete listing in next week's Frontier. Ed Thorin auction service, O'Neill.

MAY 26 — COMBINATION SALE. Legion hall in Chambers. Watch the Frontier for a complete listing. Merlin Grossnicklaus, auctioneer.

OHS '62 Commencement May 16 for 37 Seniors

Thirty seven O'Neill high school seniors will receive diplomas at commencement exercises to be held Wednesday evening in the O'Neill high school auditorium.

Baccalaureate services are scheduled Sunday evening in the auditorium with the Rev. A. S. Gedwill delivering the sermon.

Featured speaker at the commencement exercise will be Dr. Dale K. Hayes, chairman of the department of school administration and administrator of the community education project at the University of Nebraska.

Rev. John Hart will give the invocation.

Seniors receiving degrees are: Karen L. Bates, Richard D. Belin, Connie J. Brockman, Merna Butterfield, James L. Carr, Harvey L. Colback, Mary Jo Curran, Mike H. Fletcher, Raymond A. Fox, Helen M. Frerichs, Carolyn J. Fuhrer, Victoria M. Gedwill, Michael Hand, Lonna L. Haynes, Roland C. Johnson, Gail L. Johring, Jerry Kilcoin.

Ronald Knoell, Robert W. Kramer, Norma J. Kotrous, Curtis B. Larson, John M. McGinn, Judy K. Morrow, Irene F. Nelson, Joan C. Pease, Eileen Pribil, Kay Lee Rees, Starlyn Robinson, Fred E. Rosenkrans, Melvin F. Sanders.

Stanley Schmeichel, David J.

Schon, Donald P. Skopec, Ronald D. Snowward, Ruth Ann Walker, Larry G. Walton and Norma J. Widfield.

Forty four eighth graders will also receive their diplomas.

They are: Edmund R. Bright, Jolene K. Cleveland, Don L. Clyde, Richard L. Clyde, Lynda R. Coats, Richard E. Cradit, Vivian L. Dixon, Carol S. Donlin, Cheryl L. Donlin, Jurgen C. Eckhoff, Frances E. Eppenbach, Kathleen M. Farrier, Jerome J. Ford, Dorothy M. Gorgen, Francis G. Grenier, Patty L. Hand.

Nancy E. Harshfield, Terry A. Hesse, James L. Humrich, Cheryl J. Jackson, Linda L. Jenkins, Larry D. Krugman, Douglas S. MacKinlay, Michael L. McCoy, William D. McIntosh, Ellen L. McKay, Richard D. McKim, Joseph M. McLeish.

Jerry W. Nickeson, Shirley A. Park, Virginia M. Perry, Marilyn K. Petersen, Celia K. Peterson, Sandra K. Philbrick, Mary C. Pribil, Cheryl D. Redlinger, Judith M. Riley, John R. Sive-sind, Stanley E. Spangler, Walter J. Trant, Virginia L. Walker, Linda S. Walton, Paul W. Younie.

Names of the valedictorian and salutatorian and scholarship winners will be announced later.

Holt SWCD Sets Soil Program For Monday

The Holt Soil & Water Conservation District Supervisors will hold their pre-Soil Stewardship day for the clergy of the county on Monday, May 14, according to Merwyn French, sr., chairman of the Soil Stewardship committee.

The program will begin at 10:30 a.m. in the assembly room of the Court House Annex with a film and discussion of conservation work in the county. Bulletins and other materials for use of the churches for Soil Stewardship week will also be available at this time.

The group will attend a noon luncheon at the Tropical Gardens. The afternoon will be spent on a field trip. They will visit the Harvey Krugman farm where they will see such practices as conventional terraces, parallel terraces, waterways, jams, division and grass seeding. They will also view a grass seeding on the George Calkins place.

They will travel from there to the Robert Witherwax place where they will see a new irrigation dam plus terraces, native grass seeding, blowout control and other related conservation practices.

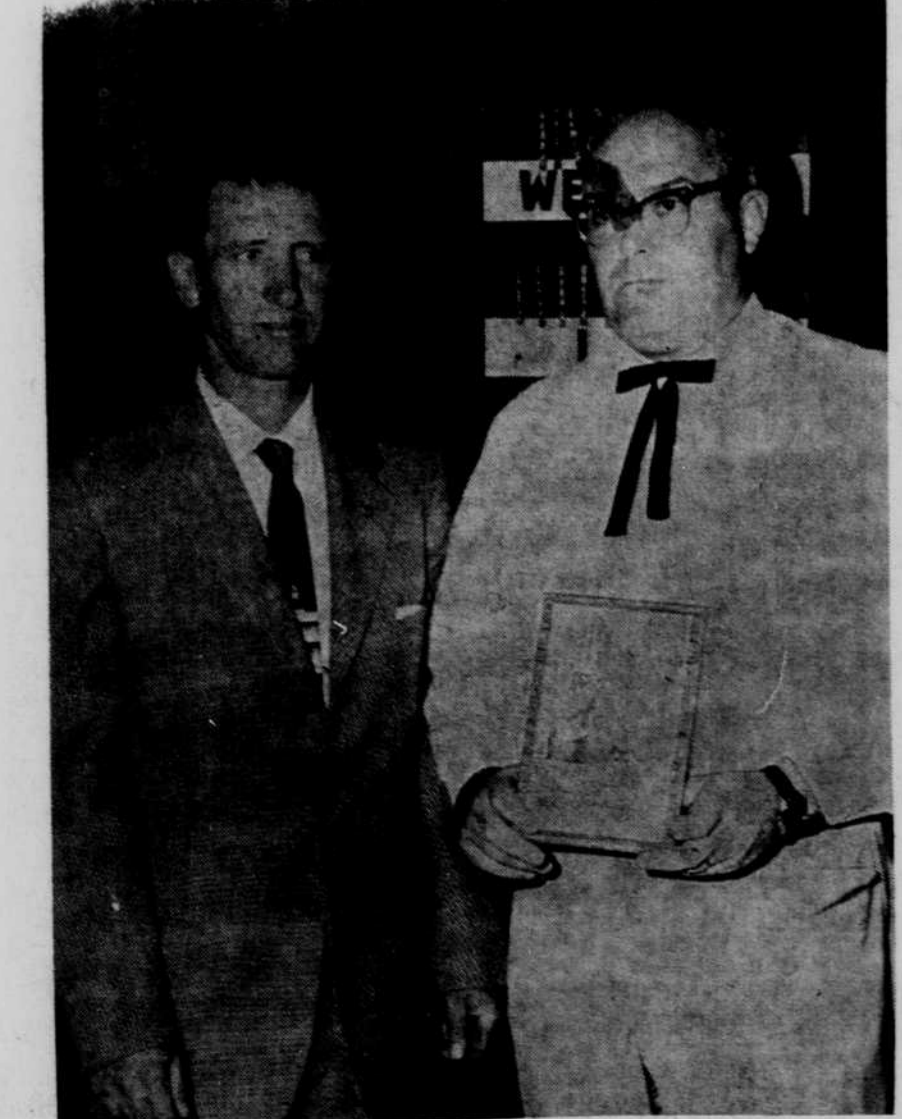

To Nursing School

Susan Burney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Burney has been accepted for the Clarkson Memorial School of Nursing in Omaha.

She will enroll in the September class. Miss Burney is a 1961 O'Neill high graduate.

LABORATORY TECHNICIAN Ron Partridge explains the various instruments in St. Anthony's hospital laboratory to members of the St. Mary's grade school as part of the program during National Hospital Week. Guided tours of the hospital were made available to school students during the past week. As a climax to hospital week an employee of the week will be chosen from St. Anthony's staff.

NEW CUBMASTER Bill Ware takes over from retiring cubmaster Harry Spall at the meeting held Tuesday evening. Mr. Spall was awarded a plaque in honor of his service to scouting.