Applications for Military Schools Wanted for 1963

Senator Roman L. Hruska announced today that this is the time for high school juniors and other interested young men to make application for admission to the Service Academies in 1963. Candidates should apply approximately one year in advance of admission in order that they may take the qualifying examinations given by the Civil Service Commission in July and November. The Commission has announced that the next exam will be held on July 9, 1962.

The Senator announced that he will have two vacancies to fill at the Naval Academy, one at the Air Force Academy, and can nominate 10 young men to compete for three statewide vacancies to the Merchant Marine Academy. He will not have a vacancy to fill at the Military Academy in 1963.

To be eligible a candidate must have passed his 17th birthday but not his 22nd on July 1, 1963 He must also be in good physical condition.

The Senator requests that all interested applicants write to him at 313 Senate Office Building, Washington 25, D. C.

Page Senior Nominated For Achievement Award Bruce Bowen, Page, has been nominated for the annual Achievement Awards program, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English. For the fifth year, the council is conducting the awards program, throughout the nation to grant recognition to cutstanding erans. high school seniors for excellence in English.

The writing abilities and lit erary awareness of each nominee will be judged by local and state committees. NCTE will announce the winners in December, 1962, and will send their names to every U.S. College and University with the recommendation that these students be considered for scholarship assistance.

So far the recognition extended to superior students of English has encouraged in them continued effort in the area of English studies. The fine example by these talented young people has promoted greater interest among students at all levels.
