Twin Sisters Wed May 12 In Double Rites at Verdell

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Halstead

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hull

A 6:30 p.m. double wedding ceremony May 12 in the Presbyterian church in Verdell united in marriage Joyce McGill and Jerry Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hull, Lynch, and her twin sister, Janice McGill, and Larry Halstead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Halstead, Lynch. The Rev. Robert Haas, Niobrara, officiated. Parents of the brides are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McGill, Verdell. The brides, given in marriage by their father, appeared in identical floor length gowns of chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The bouquets featured a scalloped neckline and long sleeves that tapered to traditional bridal points. The bouffant skirt of tulle featured scalloped lace panels. Ruffles of tulle accented the back. Their veils were caught in petal caps of lace with organza roses tucked with rhinestones. Judy McGill, sister of the brides, and Carol Dether were maids of honor. They wore Nile green taffeta dresses styled with scalloped neckline and pointed shaped princess style waists and matching net veils. Alen Boelter served as best man for Mr. Hull and Roderick H. Haas, Lynch, for Mr. Halstead.

Rodney McGill was ring bearer and Patty Jo McGill was flower girl. Mrs. Donald McGill sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love", accompanied by Mrs. Byron Lower. A reception was given by the brides' parents in the Legion hall in Verdell. Joyce's gift table attendants were Mrs. Russell McGill, Mrs. Leonard Havranek and Mrs. Neil Bjornsen. Mrs. Leo Kalkowski poured coffee and Mrs. Keith McGill poured the punch. Each bride had a three tier cake, decorated in yellow roses and daisies. They were baked and decorated by Mrs. Lloyd Tuch. Mrs. Leota Kayl cut the cake for Joyce. Janice's gift table attendants were Mrs. Gail McGill, Mrs. Rexford Carson and Mrs. Kem Leukens. Mrs. Joy Wilson cut Janice's wedding cake. Servers were friends of the brides, Kay Carson, Margaret Dryak, Mrs. Dale Wood and Marilyn Graham. Mrs. Deniece DeKay was hostess. Joyce and Jerry will be at home at Stewart A. F. B. in Tennessee. Janice and Larry will be at home at 225 West O'Neill.

Janet Stelling Weds William Miller in Lutheran Ceremony

Miss Janet Leah Stelling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stelling, Orchard, and William Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller, Oakdale, were married Sunday, May 20, at 2:30 p.m. in St. Peter's Lutheran church in Orchard. The Rev. Carl Pullman, Neligh, officiated. Richard Stelling, soloist, sang "The Lords Prayer" and "O Perfect Love", accompanied by Mrs. Robert Schwager.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of chantilly lace and nylon organza. The molded bodice of lace was accented by a scoop neckline and long fitted sleeves. The flared organza floor length skirt was highlighted by a deep scalloped chantilly lace yoke. A small jeweled crown held the bride's veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a cascade arrangement of red roses accented with white streamers.

Mrs. Robert Carley, Sioux City, was matron of honor and Sharon Stelling was bridesmaid. Their dresses were blue lace and chiffon with a bow accenting the V-neckline in the back with a scoop neckline in front. They carried bouquets of white daisies. Their head pieces were blue nylon flowered head bands.

Darrell Miller, brother of the groom, was best man and Bill Paul was groomsman. Ushers were Jim Cooper and Kenneth Short.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in the church basement by the bride's parents for 125 guests. Mrs. LeRoy Wortman, Mrs. Eldon Schacht and Janet Schindler presided at the gift table. Mrs. Kenneth Lush had charge of the guest book. Hostesses were Mrs. Bernard Schacht, Mrs. John Deines, Mrs. Cecil Moser and Mrs. Ferd Krutz. Mrs. Jim Cooper cut the cake. Mrs. Darrell Miller served and Mrs. Don Ryan poured the coffee.
