Wed in Omaha Rites The wedding of Helen Jeanne Gurnett, Omaha, daughter of Mrs. John M. Gurnett and Edward Erwin Gatz, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gatz, was solemnized June 23 at 12 noon in St. Margaret Mary's Catholic church,

Omaha. The Rev. Gerald Noonan performed the Nuptial Mass. The bride, escorted to the altar by her brother, Dr. T. J. Gurnett, wore a formal length gown of skinner satin. The Elizabethan bodice featured a bateau neckline trimmed in Alencon lace reembroidered in pearls and sequins, buttoning down the back with small covered buttons and loops. Long fitted sleeves carried the traditional bridal points to the wristline. Unpressed pleats gave exaggerated fullness to the skirt, sweeping back into an aisle wide chapel train. Lace appliqued motifs were scattered on the skirt and re-echoed on the bustle effect bow placed at center back. Her two tier ballerina length veil of imported English illusion was held by a double queen's crown of seed pearls trimmed with crystal bead drops. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. John Kerwin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Joy LeClair and Peggy Gurnett. They wore dresses of silk faced organza in turquoise. The bodice of the sheath dress featured shallow scoop neckline and three quarter sleeves. The pencil slim skirts extended from a natural waistline which dipped to a V in back. Tiny unpressed pleats on either side gave ease to the hips. An overskirt of unpressed pleats graced the dress. To complete the ensemble the attendants wore matching pill box head pieces with face veils. They carried cascade bouquets of white and turquoise mums. Jack Gatz served as best man.

Ushers were Albin Bosn and Master William Gurnett. A reception-luncheon was given by the bride's mother at Schimmel's Indian Hills Inn for about
