O'Neill Legion To Begin District Play Sunday

The O'Neill Junior Legion will travel to Plainview this Sunday to take part in the State District Junior Legion Baseball Tournament. They will play Bloomfield at 6:00 and, if they win, they'll take on Plainview Monday evening at 8:30. Tournament finals will be played Friday evening with the winner competing in the area tourney to be held in O'Neill.

The team, under the coaching of Joe Ottendick, has a season record of 15 victories and nine defeats thus far, with four losses in games decided by one run.

The local Legion boasts its finest team in six years, going by their record and the competition they have been up against.

O'Neill's infield, although erratic at times, can be the best in the district. The infield:

First Base: Ken Reynoldson (17), southpaw first sacker is veteran of six years at position, will be OHS Senior this Fall.

Second Base: Bobby Givens (18) of Stuart, switch hitter with speed and hustle, combines with Belina for fine double play combination. Graduated this year, plans to attend Colorado State University.

Shortstop: Ray Belina (18), SMA graduate, O'Neill's best long-ball hitter although inconsistent, covers territory with authority and has come up with outstanding plays at times.

Third Base: Lyle Stewart (17), probably the best hitter, is most consistent singles hitter with a touch of power at times (three triples). Lynch graduate is top third baseman in area.

Catcher: Dwight Stewart (15), younger brother of Lyle, also of Lynch. Blessed with catching chores due to injury to veteran Terry Kurtz, will make up for experience with determination and hustle.

The O'Neill outfield has come up with some startling performances this season, topped by Rich Hill's one-handed stab of a long liner to preserve one of Wentz's two no-hitters. Positions are uncertain, depending mostly on "who shows up." When in full force, most probably:

Left Field: Rich Hill (17), strike zone and hitting range surprisingly resemble each other in area. Has best arm in outfield, Big Rich will be a senior at OHS.

Center Field: Sam Knepper (17) has returned to baseball after a year's absence, surprised everyone by becoming one of leading hitters. Adequate arm with some remarkable catches to his credit, Sam has often been the difference in the outcome of O'Neill ball games, one way or the other. Will be OHS senior.

Right Field: Gary Brewster (17) has developed into one of team's most consistent hitters. Reliable arm combines with limited range for sometimes bad, recently and usually good performance.

Other outfield possibilities: Lefty Keith Reynoldson (17), twin brother to Ken is most dependable of pasture crew and may come up with starting position in outfield if not on mound. Will be a senior at OHS this year, pitched a no-hitter against Stuart on July 15th, one-hitter on June 24th. Keith Reynoldson, Terry Kurtz, Ken Reynoldson, Rich Hill, and Sam Knepper have played on the same team together in all seven of their years in organized ball.

Richard Frost (17), moved to O'Neill from Grant, Nebr., will be OHS senior this fall.

The pitching performances have been outstanding throughout the season, with three O'Neill hurlers credited with four no-hitters.

Donny Wentz (18) has chalked up two of these, one against Ainsworth and the other at the expense of Creighton. With a record of seven wins and two losses, is team's winningest pitcher. Should the mound chores be turned to someone else, Wentz will undoubtedly see action in the outfield or at third, depending on who else pitches. Naper graduate.

Keith Reynoldson tossed his no-hitter against Stuart, but his mound contribution was his relief stint against Creighton in the finals of the O'Neill Invitational Tourney. Has season record of five wins, four losses.

The most envied performance of the season has been Lyle Stewart's perfect game against Bassett on July 3rd. Stewart will be counted on for his dependable performance on the mound should Reynoldson or Wentz suffer, his limited record stands at one win, one defeat.

The only other team members with pitching experience are Rich Hill (0-0) and Ray Belina (0-2). Tournament possibilities are doubtful for either, unless in a relief role.

Junior Legion Loses Two During Week

Two losses this week brings the O'Neill Junior Legion's record to 15 wins and nine losses. The slumping trojans have dropped six of their last eight decisions.

Bloomfield handed the Legion a 5-1 loss Sunday afternoon. Ray Belina started for O'Neill, but two early errors in the first inning gave Bloomfield a quick 2-0 lead.

Both teams could collect only four hits. Gary Brewster singled twice to lead the local losers.

Cardinals Lose To Atkinson 12-3

Doc Mancuso's Atkinson Little Leaguers took advantage of six errors and seven singles to rout the Cardinals 12-3. Rick Hamik was the winner, Larry Davis was the victim of poor support and was charged with the loss.

In other Elkhorn Valley games played Monday evening, Ronnie McKay pitched the Indians to an 11-4 triumph over Orchard, and Jerry Schmidt's Braves rallied to a 10-0 win at the hands of Stuart.

O'Neill Loses 2-3 to Plainview Tuesday Night

Denny Wentz came out on the short end of a pitchers' duel at Plainview Tuesday evening. His teammates out-hit the winners five hits to four, but an outburst of errors handed Plainview two runs and cost O'Neill the contest.

Dale Lortz struck out ten while being credited with the mound victory. Wentz fanned nine.

Pony League Chalks Up Two During Week

The O'Neill Pony League chalked up two victories this week, with fine pitching performances high-lighting both games.

At Elgin on Sunday, right-hander Jim Troshynski retired the first 19 men he faced in order. With one out in the seventh, he finally allowed a runner to reach base, and ended the game with a sparkling one-hitter as the Pony Leaguers dropped the previously undefeated Elgin team 7-0.

Bruce Spitzer had a big evening at the plate, pounding out two triples and a single to lead the winners' offensive assault.

Back on their home field Monday evening, Rick Credit pitched his team to an 8-1 win over Chambers. Pony League Manager Junior Adamson received assistance this week from Fred Appleby at the Elgin game and Clyde McKenzie serves as assistant coach.

Midgets Win One Lose One In Past Week

The O'Neill Legion Midgets played only two games this past week, but both of them were on Sunday and the result was a 5-2 afternoon victory over Bloomfield and a 16-3 Tournament loss to Elgin in the evening.

At Bloomfield, Ivan Hurley knocked two doubles and came on in relief to pick up the pitching victory as the Midgets won 5-2. Bill Pruss and Larry Krugman tripled, and Danny Wolfe added a double to the winners' seventh-inning spurge.

Joe Shoemaker started for O'Neill. Newton was Bloomfield's losing pitcher. Hurley fanned six in the three innings he pitched, Shoemaker whiffed four in the first three frames.

In the finals of the Elgin Invitational tournament, played Sunday evening due to rain during the latter part of the week, the Midgets fell 16-3. Dan Wolfe started and was charged with the loss, he was followed on the mound by Ivan Hurley and Jack Kelly.

Jerry Kennan was the winning hurler, he had strong backing throughout his mound stint as the Elgin infield didn't commit an error.

Jim Troshynski collected two of O'Neill's eight hits. The winners touched local Midget hurlers for five doubles and six singles.
