LaRoyce Blunt Weds Earl J. Schnebel Jr. In Clearwater Church

Miss LaRoyce Blunt and Earl John Schnebel Jr., were married at the Concordia Lutheran church in Clearwater Sunday, July 22. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blunt, Ewing and Mr. and Mrs. Earl John Schnebel Sr., Norfolk.

The Rev. D. L. Brauner, officiated at the 7:30 p.m. double ring ceremony. The Rev. Carl Pullman, Neligh, was soloist and Judy Filsinger was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of imported tulle and lace and a wide band of scalloped hand clipped border lace. She wore a crown fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of red roses centered with an orchid corsage on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Mary Ann Biddlecome, Norfolk, was matron of honor, Mrs. Judy Butterfield and Nancy Jo Sullivan, both of Norfolk, were bridesmaids. They wore identical ballerina length gowns of orchid net over satin and carried bouquets of white miniature mums with orchid streamers.

Beverly Meyer, Neligh, and Nancy Cary, Norfolk, were the candle lighters.

Milton Biddlecome, Norfolk, served as best man. Larry Blunt, Ewing and Dean Butterfield, Norfolk, were groomsmen. Merlyn Meyer, Ewing, and Joe Heger, Neligh, served as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's parents in the church parish hall for 150 guests with Mrs. Reuben Meyer, Neligh, as hostess.

Mrs. William Blunt, Elgin, had charge of the guest book. Linda Lih, Pat Finn, and Mrs. George Schnebel, all of Norfolk and Joyce Anderson were in charge of the gifts.

The wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Walter Westerhoff, Elgin and cut and served by Mrs. Dewayne Hamilton, Omaha. Mrs. Raymond Filsinger, Norfolk, poured coffee and Mrs. Inez Jaekle, Clearwater, served the punch.

Waitresses were Mrs. Merlyn Meyer, Mrs. Jackie Oleson, Thelma Spangler, Linda Lih, Lois Filsinger and Joyce Filsinger, all of Norfolk.

The bride is a graduate of the Ewing high school and attended Norfolk Junior college last year. The groom, a graduate of the Stanton high school, has served four years in the United States Navy.

The young couple will live in Norfolk, where the groom is employed by the Chicago North-western Railway Company.

Beverly Ann Krebs, Charles B. LeCates Are Wed in Denver

Miss Beverly Ann Krebs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Krebs, Denver, and A-C Charles B. LeCates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LeCates, Rhoadesdale, Md., were united in marriage June 21 at the American Lutheran Memorial church in Denver.

The altar for the double ring ceremony was lighted with white candles in gold holders and basket arrangements of white gladioli and violet carnations. The Rev. Harold Brokering officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a white gown of lace over satin. Arrangements of sequins and seed pearls covered the scalloped neckline. Her fingertip veil was caught by a crown with seed pearls and sequins. The bride carried a corsage of white carnations with a single violet orchid on lace.

Miss Karen Tschida, Denver, was matron of honor. She was attired in a violet lace ballerina dress with matching head piece. Her bouquet was of white carnations with violet sweet peas.

A-C Frank C. Warner, Newark, Del., was best man and Charles Krebs and George Henke were ushers. Fred Krebs served as the acolyte.

Mrs. Walker accompanied Mr. Al Haggerty who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Following the ceremony a reception was given in the parish hall for approximately 100 guests. Miss Linda Krebs had charge of the guest book and LaRae Moesta had charge of the gifts assisted by Linda Krebs and Linda Woldneck. A three tier wedding cake decorated with silver leaves and violet flowers and topped with a miniature bride and groom was served by the Altar Society.

The couple left for a honeymoon in the mountains at Grand Lake, Colo. Their home will be at Columbus, Miss. where A-C LeCates is stationed at the Missile Base.

Out of town relatives attending the wedding were Rosa Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Woldneck and girls, O'Neill.

Scholarships Available For County Teachers

All teachers in Holt county rural, city or parochial schools are eligible for scholarships to attend Conservation Short Courses for college credit.

According to Elmer Juraek, Secretary-Treasurer of the local Soil and Water Conservation District, the board has offered scholarships for the past several years. "Any teacher interested in attending the final session, August 13 to 24, at Jeffrey Lodge in the North Platte area, should contact the local District office as soon as possible for more information. The course there is sponsored by the University of Nebraska with Miss Ivah Green as Director. Miss Green conducted the Conservation short course in O'Neill for all rural teachers two years ago."

There were six courses offered this summer. Mrs. Rennie Gans, Atkinson teacher, will complete her course at Wayne this week. She was awarded a Conservation Scholarship.
