

Elkhorn Valley Finals To Be Played Friday

Tom Coker's bases-loaded triple in the fourth. The losers scored all seven runs on two walks and four singles in the third.

Orchard ..... 007 000-7 6 3
Indians ..... 022 40x-8 7 1

The real thriller of the evening was the O'Neill Braves come-from-behind victory over Ewing in a 5-4 decision. Trailing throughout the game, Jerry Schmidt's crew waited until there were two down in the final frame to drive across three runs.

Center-fielder Mike Gleeson was the game's big hero. With two outs and the bases loaded, the Braves were trailing 4-2. After fouling off six pitches, Gleeson cracked a double up the middle that drove in three runs and won the game.

Jim Booth picked up the win in relief of Ronnie Riley. Morris Hahlbeck was the loser despite his four-hit pitching performance. He struck out 11. Right-hander Booth fanned eleven in the final four innings he pitched.

Ewing ..... 220 000-4 5 6
Braves ..... 100 103-5 4 1

In semi-final games played Sunday evening in the lower bracket, Ewing beat Orchard 11-5 with Morris Hahlbeck pitching a five-hitter for the winners. Mitchell was the losing pitcher for Orchard.

The O'Neill Braves squeezed by the Indians 2-1, again scoring the winning runs in the final inning.

Ted Fritton socked a first-inning homer to put the Indians out in front. Bill White led off the top of the sixth for the Braves with a single, Ronnie Riley was hit by a pitch, and singles by Mel Schmidt and Mike Gleeson pushed across the deciding tallies.

Jim Booth struck out 14 in picking up the victory. Fritton's homer was the only Indian hit of the game off the right-hander. Tom Coker was the loser, he fanned nine and gave up six singles.

Braves ..... 000 002-2 6 0
Indians ..... 100 000-1 1 0

Emmet and Stuart battled out a 4-4 tie into the last inning of their Elkhorn Valley tourney game Monday night when an unearned run gave Emmet a 5-4 victory in the sixth game of the meet.

Mattern was winning pitcher in the consolation stint, striking out eight and walking three. Wedge was the loser though he fanned eight and walked only one.

Emmet batsmen picked up five hits with no errors while Stuart had 3 hits and two errors. Kent Cole led Emmet batters with two hits for three trips to the plate. Wedge had one for three for Stuart.

Atkinson bunched five hits in the fourth inning Monday to break a tie game and win from O'Neill Cards 9-3 in the semi-final game of the Elkhorn Valley Little League tournament.

Legion Midgets Drop Out Of District Tourney

Fred Appleby's O'Neill Legion Midgets dropped out of contention for District Tourney honors when they were beaten 6-2 by Battle Creek at Battle Creek on Thursday.

Big Ivan Hurley scattered three hits through the first five innings, but an error, three singles, a walk, a hit batsman, and another single brought on all six Battle Creek runs. Jack Kelly relieved Hurley in the sixth, and Joe Shoemaker followed on the hill in the seventh.

Mike Hammond and Jack Kelly both tripled and singled in O'Neill's losing game, accounting for four of the losers' seven hits.

Tournament semi-finals, Thursday evening:
Battle Creek ..... 000 006 0-6 7 1
O'Neill ..... 000 010 1-2 7 2
