

Verdigré Couple Is Married Saturday In Catholic Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Charlene C. Chocholousek and Theodore J. Ondracek Jr. took place Saturday at St. Wenceslaus church, Verdigré. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chocholousek and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. Ondracek.

Rev. Charles J. Oborny officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Eldiva Jedlicka Pavlik was soloist and organist. The altar was decorated with two baskets of gladioli and daisies. The bouquet, presented to the Blessed Mother, consisted of white roses decorated with ice blue satin ribbon.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, chose a formal length gown of embroidered gossamer. The fitted bodice featured a portrait neckline and elbow length sleeves. The midriff, defined with two slim bands of satin, bowed above a sheath like front which burst into a dome shaped train. The bride's veil, held in bouffant lines by a pearl and crystal crown, was made of imported french illusion.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Merle Anderson, Hastings. Miss Beatrice Hospodka, Omaha, was bridesmaid. Their all white ensembles were short formal in silk organza styled in a line similar to the bridal gown. The bell shaped skirts were worn over stiffened petticoats. Their bouquets were of white french mums in cascade form accented with green ivy and ice blue ribbon.

Best man was Richard Ondracek, Omaha. William Chocholousek, Ralston, was groomsman. Ushers were Merle Anderson, Hastings, and Elmer Tharnish, Lincoln. Dinner for the immediate family took place after the ceremony. The couple took a wedding trip to New Orleans, La.

The bride and groom graduated from Verdigré High School and Wayne State Teachers college. The bride taught in North Platte and Omaha schools and will again teach next fall at the latter place.

The bride groom completed four years in the navy as a hospital corpsman and will teach in senior high school at Westside in Omaha next fall.

Tompkins, Kelley Wedding Solemnized In Inman Church

Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the Inman Methodist church Sunday afternoon, Aug. 5, for the marriage of Miss Linette Tompkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Tompkins, and Ned E. Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kelley, Inman.

Rev. Robert Linder performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Howard Manson, O'Neill, played the wedding marches and accompanied the vocalist, Mrs. James Forrest, Seward, who sang "The Greatest of These", "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a white floor-length bridal gown of embroidered silk organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice was enhanced by a scoop neckline and long sleeves which tapered to traditional bridal points. A low-cut, pointed back waistline accented the voluminous skirt of intricate unpressed pleating which swept into a soft chapel train. Her double tier illusion waist length veil fell from a queen's crown of seed pearls and iridescents. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis and a handkerchief of white linen edged in lace made for her by her maternal grandmother.

Maid of honor was Nancy Dahl, Lincoln. The bridesmaids were Kay Kelley, Inman, and Mary Jo Putman, Ogallala. The attendants wore street length gowns of shimmering deep rose pink nylon organza over matching taffeta fashioned after the bride's gown. They wore halo veils which fell from matching headbands and carried colonial bouquets of white daisies.

Flower girl was Kim Kelley, Norfolk. Lighting the tapers were Mrs. Thomas Potter and Mrs. James Barrett, Lincoln.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Don Kelley, Norfolk. Groomsmen were Roger Tompkins, Inman, and Neal Kelley, Camp Pendleton, Calif. Ushers were Sam Watson and Roland Hansen. Junior ushers were Allen and Neil Tompkins.

Following the ceremony a reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors. Miss Paula Reed, O'Neill, presided at the guest book. Dianne Gillespie, O'Neill, played music during the reception.

A round four tier white wedding cake decorated with pink rosebuds centered the reception table. Mrs. A. Neil Dawes, Fairbury, and Mrs. Grant Peacock, O'Neill, served the wedding cake. Mrs. James Kelley, Inman, and Mrs. Sam Kelley, Omaha, poured the coffee while Mrs. Don Kelley, Norfolk, and Miss Ann Kelley, Inman, poured the punch. Reception hostesses were Mrs. Ira L. Watson, Mrs. Clarence Hansen and Mrs. Thomas D. Hutton, Inman. Assisting the servers were the Misses Jean Sandall, Bassett, Judy Rickel, Neligh, Ruth Ann Hansen, Inman, Judy Wait, Stromsburg, Miss Betty Rodman, O'Neill, Sara Jensen, Weeping Water, and Lynn Nelson, Sidney, displayed the gifts. After a short wedding trip to the Black Hills the couple will be at home at Milford. The bridegroom is employed by the State of Nebraska Highway Department, Lincoln, and the bride has a teaching position in the Milford Public School.

The couple graduated from Inman high school in 1958. The bride graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University in June where she was a member of the Willard Sorority. The bridegroom was graduated from Norfolk Junior College and attended Doane College, Crete, and Nebraska State Teachers College at Wayne.
