Bethany Church Will Celebrate Anniversary

The Bethany Presbyterian church near Chambers will celebrate its 75th anniversary this coming Sunday with services to begin at 10:45. The Rev. Oliver B. Proett, Wayne, will give the sermon.

Following the service a pot-luck dinner will be held in the church basement. In the afternoon, entertainment will be given by a male quartet. There will also be an informal time of greetings from former members and ministers and a closing worship by the Youth Fellowship.

Rev. T. L. Sutton and Rev. John C. Sylvanus founded the church on Feb. 17, 1887 at the home of L. F. Angel. It was at that meeting that the church received its name and applied to Nebraska Presbytery to put the church under its care and supervision. The church was supplied by the Rev. John C. Sylvanus of the Presbyterian church in Inman. The first place of worship was in a schoolhouse and later in homes of the members. Later a small church was built four miles east of Chambers but wet years of the early 1900's made this place inaccessible and services were held in the East Valley Center Schoolhouse.

In 1912 under the Rev. Samuel Light the church was moved just east of the schoolhouse which was one mile south and two miles east of the present Chambers corner. The church was supplied for many years by Methodist and Baptist ministers from Chambers, and at times by the Presbyterian ministers from O'Neill. The present church, two miles south and two east of the Chambers corner was completed in 1953.

Scout Century Club Led By L. D. Putnam

For several years the regular community finance campaigns for boy scouting have been supplemented by the special support of the Century club for $100 yearly donations. Many feel that this is the most effective and far reaching investments in youth. In a large and sparsely settled Boy Scout district such as the sandhills district, this kind of special giving is necessary to help pay the costs. L. D. Putnam, a long time friend of Scouting, has announced that in addition to himself, Judge D. R. Mounts, William Froelich, James Earley and Esther Downey have renewed membership for 1962.

The Community Campaign will kick-off October 2.
