

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Carr, O'Neill, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon, to Larry Roach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Roach, Page.

Miss Carr is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy and is employed at the First National Bank in O'Neill.

Mr. Roach is a graduate of Page high school and is attending Radio Electronics Institute of Omaha.

A spring wedding is planned.

Clara B. Thurlow Weds James L. Patterson in Atkinson Church Rite

St. Joseph's church in Atkinson was the scene of the Saturday, Sept. 22, wedding of Clara B. Thurlow and James L. Patterson. The Rev. Donald Bartek officiated at the 10 a.m. rite.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Norton Thurlow, Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Patterson, Omaha.

The bride chose a floor length gown of nylon sheer and Chantilly lace over taffeta. The empire bodice featured a lace yoked portrait neckline trimmed in embroidered lace medallions, and long tapered sleeves. A self fabric tailored bow topped the voluminous skirt. A wide band of scalloped lace enhanced the skirt front and extended into a chapel length train. Her elbow length veil of illusion was held by a pearlized crown and she carried a prayer book topped with white roses and Stephanotis.

Sandi Patterson was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Marjorie Thurlow, sister of the bride and Jean Patterson, sister of the groom. The attendants wore identical street-length dresses of coral net over satin with matching hats and carried cascade bouquets of coral roses.

William Patterson was best man for his brother. Ushers were Donald Thurlow, brother of the bride, and Robert Weist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thurlow chose a light blue lace dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Patterson wore a brown crepe jacketed sheath with melon accents.

After a wedding trip to Colorado, the couple will reside at Omaha.

Chambers Church Scene of Weller, Lorenz Wedding

Memorial Baptist church, Chambers was the setting of the wedding Saturday, Sept. 29th which united Miss Larue Weller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Weller and Gordon R. Lorenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill.

The Rev. Earl Schwenk, pastor of the church performed the 7 p. m. double ring ceremony.

Baskets of fall flowers and white candelabra decorated the church.

July Beed, Grand Island, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Fern Burtwistle as she sang "Two Shall Be One" and the "Wedding Prayer".

Lighting the tapers of the candelabra were Rita Weller, St. Clair, Mo., and Kathy Searles, Lynch.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in an Alfred Angelo floor length gown of white nylon sheer over tulle and satin. The fitted bodice featured long tapered sleeves ending in bridal points over the wrist. Jeweled appliques of imported alencon lace was featured on the bodice front, scoop neckline and over the full gathered skirt.

A crown of pearls and crystals held the double tiered veil. The bride carried a bouquet of two cymbidium orchids surrounded by white daisies and yellow pom poms with green leaves and accents of gold.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Bernard Lorenz, O'Neill and bridesmaids were Velda Ernst, Lincoln and Mrs. Bill Logemann, Chambers. They wore identical street length dresses of mint green. The dresses were styled with short, set-in-sleeves and small pleats at the shoulders formed a draped neckline in front and dipped to a V in the back. The box-pleated skirt was accented by a bow on the front of the belts. Dyed to match shoes and crown headpieces completed the ensembles. They carried bouquets of bronze-orange and yellow pom-poms with green leaves.

The flower girls, Joy Rowse, Ewing and Debbie Connell, Omaha, wore identical mint green dresses with white lace midrifts. They carried baskets of daisy petals and flowers.

Carrying the rings on a heart-shaped white satin pillow, was Earl Weller, brother of the bride. Serving his brother as bestman was Bernard Lorenz, O'Neill. Groomsman were Nyal Rowse, Chambers and Dick Ernst, Lincoln. The groom and his attendants wore dark business suits. Ushers were Ledean Weller, brother of the bride, and Ivan Wayman, cousin of the groom.

In charge of the guest book was Patricia Fickler, Stanton.

After the ceremony a reception for 160 guests was held in the church basement by the bride's parents.

The five-tier white wedding cake, trimmed in mint, was topped with a miniature bride and groom surrounded by roses, lily of-the-valley and a bell above the bride and groom.

The cake, which centered the serving table, was baked and decorated by Wanda Smith, Chambers. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Ray Weller, St. Clair, aunt of the bride. Serving the punch was Mrs. Duane Ballagh, Wood Lake, and pouring coffee was Mrs. Nyal Rowse, Chambers.

Serving the bride's table and assisting with serving the guests were Loreen Lorenz, O'Neill, Barbara Ballagh, Burwell, Janell Ballagh, Amelia and Judy Searles, Lynch.

In charge of the gifts were Mrs. Ivan Wayman, O'Neill, Carolyn Rowse, Ewing, Patricia Ballagh, Burwell and Judy Garwood, Chambers.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will be at home west of O'Neill.
