A Poem From Mrs. Eby . . .

And He took them privately aside into a desert place, (Luke 9:10)

Quietness
Sometimes in order to grow in grace, He takes us aside into a desert place,
Though we can't understand it if it is His will just rest in His love and be still.
It's not in society a soul makes most vigorous growth, though to go aside we are sometimes both,
But in a quiet hour of prayer more progress is made than in presence of others when a burden is laid.

For it's in the desert that the dew is freshest, and the air out there is always purest,
So come ye apart and rest awhile. God will restore your happy smile.
Weary! "I know it" of the press and throng, so wipe from your brow the sweat of toil and in His quiet strength "Just be strong."

Peace thy inmost soul will fill, by just being quiet in His presence "just be still!"
Della Stuart Eby

Hospital Staff Expresses Thanks

In a public statement this week officials of St. Anthony's hospital commented on the first 10 years of the hospital's service and reminded patrons and visitors of ways they can help make the hospital of greater service to the community.

The statement follows: "St. Anthony's hospital wishes to thank its auxiliary and its many patrons for their help in making these past ten years so pleasant and successful."

"It is our desire to be as helpful as possible in the future to all who may need hospitalization and are at St. Anthony's. We shall appreciate your continued co-operation.

"To make our service of greater benefit to all concerned, may we ask your assistance in the following points:

1. Visiting hours, 2-4 p.m. and 7-8:30 p.m. only.
2. Only two visitors at a time for each patient. A 10 minute visit suffices.
3. Phone calls to patients during visiting hours only - to allow doctors and nurses to give patients the necessary care and rest. Employees on duty should not be called.
4. Leaving promptly at close of visiting hours.
5. State hospital regulations require that children 14 years and under be excluded from visits to patients.

Your co-operation is requested."

Specializes in Trucks

Early success in truck sales interested Tenborg in the vast potential of trucking. He has concentrated in truck sales ever since, with the exception of a short period during which he sold farm tractors and established dealerships in Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Armed with promising managerial and sales ability, Tenborg accepted a position in 1940 from White Motor Co. The Ohio-based firm appointed Tenborg wholesale manager of White Kansas City division, which handled Kansas and half of Missouri.

He was named Kansas City branch manager after a few years in White's employ and in 1943 was transferred to St. Louis, Mo., as branch manager. Success in the Missouri districts earned Tenborg a position in 1945 as branch manager of the huge Chicago, Ill., White district.

After establishing a sales record in Chicago, Tenborg was moved to Houston, Tex., to direct White's operations in that booming Texas city. A year after arriving in Houston, Tenborg decided to quit the sales game and retire to a farm he had bought near his birthplace.

Farming wasn't the life for Tenborg, who got bored with his agricultural activities after a few years and went looking for another sales executive post.

He was hired by Mack Trucks Inc. in 1956 at Omaha and named wholesale manager of the Kansas City branch at Kansas City, Tenborg singled out Wichita as his future home and began his program to go into business for himself.

Mack Truck Sales of Wichita Inc., was founded in 1957 in a two-man shop at 21st and Topeka. The 10,000-square foot South West building was acquired in 1960. Fifteen persons are employed at the new office.

Tenborg was married Oct. 9, 1940, to the former Kathleen Kelly of Omaha. They have three children, Mrs. Susan Correa, Council Bluffs, Ia., and Jim and Linda at home.

A parishoner of St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic church, Tenborg is affiliated with the Knights of Columbus, Rolling Hills Country club and the Kansas Motor Carriers Association.
