

Rita Ann Boyle Weds Kenneth C. Grosse In St. Patrick's Rite

Rita Ann Boyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyle, became the bride of A. Z. Kenneth C. Grosse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grosse, all of O'Neill on November 3 at a 10 a.m. nuptial mass at St. Patrick's church in O'Neill.

The Rev. Robert Duffy officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Nick Ramold sang "O Most Holy One", "Mary, My Mother" and "Full of Glory" accompanied by Miss Helen Gokkie.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore traditional white, designed in chintilly lace and nylon organza. The molded lace bodice was accented by a portrait neckline, outlined in scalloped lace and tiny sleeves. The bouffant floor length skirt of organza was high lighted by a lace over skirt that formed deep points on each side. Her elbow length silk illusion veil was held by a jeweled crown. The bride wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of white roses and feathered carnations.

Frances Boyle, O'Neill, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Robert Burival, O'Neill, was the bridesmaid. Her attendants were attired in sapphire blue velvet dress with matching head pieces and shoes, they carried bouquets of white mums with a blue ribbon.

Bridget Alice Ramold, O'Neill, and Carolyn Ramold, Ewing, nieces of the bride and Alan Hilke-meier, Orlando, Fla., nephews of the groom were flower girls and ring bearer.

Walter Grosse, O'Neill, brother of the groom was best man. Robert Burival, O'Neill, cousin of the bride, was groomsmen, ushers were Delbert Heikemeier and Patrick Boyle.

Following the ceremony a dinner was given by the bride's parents at the Legion Hall for 60 guests. The dinner was cooked by Mmes. Charles Mahony, Matt Beha, Ray Tunender, Dorothy Pribil, Hugh Carr, Leo Schneider, Ralph Van Horn, Frank Shell and Joe Kalina and served by Sandra Grosse, Cindy Brown, Rose Mary Mahony, Carol Goughenbough and Mary Pribil.

A reception for 110 guests followed in the afternoon. Mrs. Delbert Heikemeier, Orlando, Fla., registered the guests, Ann Barrett, Harrison, Nebr. Mrs. Walter Grosse and Mrs. Robert Hadik poured the punch and coffee. The cake which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Dan Schneider, Inman, sister of the bride, was cut and served by Mrs. Dennis Cunningham, O'Neill and Eileen Serres, Harrison, Mrs. Larry Matern, Norfolk, Mrs. Joe Ramold and Mrs. Harold Parks, O'Neill, was in charge of the gift table.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy and was employed at the O'Neill Photo Co. The groom was a graduate of Creighton high school and Dana college. He is now serving with the U. S. Air Force.

After a short wedding trip the couple will leave for Shreveport, La.

The Frontier
O'Neill, Nebr.

Dear Frontier:
I hope I am not too late in thanking you for the nice collection of groceries that I won at the Cooking School at your "Best of All Days".

I have been busy baking and trying out the products. The first was a batch of old fashioned molasses cookies, and when they were baking my thoughts went back to my childhood days, when we came home from school and mother had baked just such cookies. How good they did smell and taste.

I thought of the growing cane in those days, that was made into molasses each fall when pails, cans and even barrels were all filled with the dark, thick syrup that had many uses. Often times it turned in to sugar and we youngsters ate it like candy.

Another batch of cookies were made from the cook book that disappeared fast the night of Halloween when 89 goblins, ghosts and "what have you" dropped in for treats.

Again I want to thank you and hope to see you next year.
Sincerely
Mrs. Ella Ziemis, Ewing

Frontier Office
Thank you so much for your paper and all you did to make your "Best of All Days" a happy one for us all.
Yours Truly
Mrs. M. L. Sageser.

A Poem From Mrs. Eby . . .

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Heb. 11:1

Faith is so simple and yet we have a tendency to complicate it. Its just trust and believe and all our wills submit. Thus two little girls counting their pennies in hand. One said "I have five" but she couldn't understand when the other girl said, "I have ten. I can't see for you have only five like me. But the other girl quickly replied "I know" but my daddy said he would bring me five more tonight so I have ten. Her daddy's words were so real to the child. She could actually count ten and she smiled.

She knew she would have them. She accepted the fact, so she counted them now and did not subtract. Oh! This is simple faith just take God's promises as real. No matter how at the time we happen to feel.

We know God will do what He says He will. Our part just trust, believe His promises. He'll fulfill as if it were a reality we know. So let's just count our pennies as we onward go.

—Della Stuart Eby
