THE THIN LINE THAT PROTECTS YOU

UP UP
DOWN DOWN WASHDAY NIGHTMARE

STOOP AND STRETCH...

Electric dryers put an end to the back-breaking muscle marathon called "hanging out the wash." It takes 220 bends and lifts to hang up an average wash load. In a year the dryer-less housewife lifts 5,000 pounds and 25,000 clothes pins.

CAN'T WASH IN BAD WEATHER...

Rainy, cloudy, and cold days are bad . . . and even sunny days are not ideal for outdoor drying because sun dried often means sun-faded. Thanks to modern ELECTRIC dryers, "indoor" clothesline clutter is fast becoming a thing of the past.
