Mrs. Mark Hendricks

Bobby, Becky and Ricky Hendricks spent the night at their grandparents, the Mark Hendricks home Saturday night while their parents were in O'Neill, Atkinson and Stuart on business.

The Wesleyan Methodist Prayer meeting group met at the Robert Hendricks home on Wednesday evening.

A party was held at the John Sicheneder home on Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hitchcock, who will be moving to their new home soon.

Those present at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hendricks and children, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Beck and children, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lauridson and son, Mrs. Vic Frickel and children, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hitchcock and son and Mr. and Mrs. John Sicheneder and children.

The Hitchcocks were presented with a lovely gift from the Celia Homemakers club of which Mrs. Hitchcock is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hendricks were in O'Neill on business Thursday and were dinner guests of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cole. Ricky stayed with Grandma Hendricks.

The Wesleyan Youth group met at the Leonard Chaffin home Thursday for a late Halloween party. There were 19 children present besides their president, Mrs. Vivian Vaughn, the Rev. Elmore Blain and family and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hendricks.

Mrs. Emil Colfack and Mrs. Dorothy Hoffman attended the Holt County Rural Teachers Association in O'Neill Tuesday evening. There were several films on "Helping the Slow Learner" shown. Lunch was then served.

The Celia 4-H boys and girls held a roller skating party at the Crystal Ballroom in Atkinson Friday evening. Joan Straka fell and broke three fingers on her right hand. She was taken to the doctor and later returned to the Ballroom to be with the group for lunch which was served by the 4-H mothers. There were several guests including George and Doreen Wadsworth, Jerry Gotschall, Juliene, Nancy and Clair Beck.

Mrs. Emma McKathnie was an overnight guest at the home of her son, Milton McKathnie. She returned to her home in Atkinson Tuesday with her granddaughter, Mrs. Ernie Wonder-check, who later took the bus for her home at Potter, Nebr.

Little Julie Dobias came to the John Sicheneder home on Tuesday to spend about a week while her mother is in the hospital with a new baby boy.

John Sicheneder helped Norbert Dobias pick corn Friday, the 9th. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Heiser and children attended the housewarming party at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Rauterkus near O'Neill on Sunday evening.

Ed Heisers attended the funeral of Mr. Dwight Raymer in Atkinson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Chaffin, Linda and Edith, were Sunday dinner guests of the Mark Hendricks. Mrs. Richard Klinger was also a guest.

Mrs. Hans Lauridson called on Mrs. Elmer Stearns Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Macho, Lee Center, Minn., were last Sunday visitors at the Alex Frickel home. Mr. Macho is an uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lauridson and sons and Mr. Jim Lauridson were last Sunday dinner guests at the Louis Lauridson home at Spencer. The occasion was the 12th birthday of Linda Lauridson, daughter of the Louis Lauridsons.

Miss Dorothy Scott was a supper guest at the Duane Beck home Friday, the 9th.

Cheryl and Sandra Beck, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Beck spent Saturday night with their grandmother, Mrs. Helen Beck, Atkinson. Mrs. Beck brought them home Sunday and stayed for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Anderson visited in Butte one day this past week.

The Wesleyan Missionary Ladies met at the home of Mrs. Herman Meyer sr. on Tuesday. On Thursday Mrs. Meyer was hostess to the Atkinson Country Women's club.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Tindall, Atkinson, were last Sunday dinner guests at the Herman Meyer sr. home.

A number of the 4-H'ers from this community and their parents attended the 4H fun night in O'Neill on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Focken jr. were Sunday evening supper guests at the Clarence Focken sr. home. Miss Dorothy Scott was a dinner guest the same day.

Mrs. Emil Colfack, teacher, and her pupils entertained the patrons of their district at a Patrons Day, on Monday evening.

Bill Kretzman visited at the Robert Hendricks home Sunday evening.
