

Joyce Strong Weds Gordon Kotrous

Joyce Strong, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Strong, O'Neill, became the bride of Gordon D. Kotrous, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kotrous, Orchard, on November 2 at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist church, O'Neill, with the Rev. Glenn Kennicott officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, William Strong, approached the altar in a floor-length gown of white lace over satin. The fitted bodice featured a net yoke with a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves. Her illusion veil was held in place by a circle trimmed with beads. She carried a white Bible with white roses.

Mrs. Earl Strong jr., O'Neill, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a turquoise nylon rounded neckline sleeveless street length dress and carried a bouquet of bronze and yellow pom-poms.

Earl Strong jr., brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Virgil Parks and Hermon Osborn, O'Neill.

Archie Bowen, O'Neill, accompanied Mrs. Grant Peacock who sang "I Love You Truly". Jeannie Strong registered the guests, Mrs. Raymond Lampman, Anoka and Mrs. Bernard Schmitz, O'Neill, were in charge of the gift table. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for 50 guests.

Mrs. William Strong cut the three tier wedding cake, decorated with white bells and roses, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Waitresses were Mes. Lloyd Whaley, Virgil Parks and Hermon Osborn, all of O'Neill.

The bride attended O'Neill school.

The groom is a graduate of Creighton high school and is employed in O'Neill.

The couple will make their home at 121 East Everett Street, O'Neill.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Schrage have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jeannette, to Arlyn B. Selting, Lincoln, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Selting, Elgin.

Bertha Harris Weds Darrell N. Neitzke In Lutheran Ceremony

Bertha Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Harris, Ewing, became the bride of Darrell N. Neitzke, son of Mrs. Esther Neitzke, Plainview, Saturday, Nov. 17, 1962 at the Zion Lutheran church, Plainview.

The Rev. V. L. Brack officiated at the 7:30 p.m. double ring ceremony. Mr. Leonard Wacker, soloist, sang "O, Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by A. R. Bohlman, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore traditional white, designed in Chantilly lace and nylon organza. The fitted lace bodice was accented by a Sabrina neckline, outlined in scalloped lace and long sleeves with bridal points. The bouffant skirt, worn over hoops, was highlighted by a lace overlay that formed deep points on each side. A Juliet crown of lace and seed pearls held the elbow length veil of silk illusion. Her only jewelry was a diamond-pearl set lavalier, worn by her mother at her wedding. She carried a bouquet of white carnations edged in blue with matching corsage accented with net and satin ribbon.

Miss Connie Weber, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina gown of blue with a lace bolero and matching head piece and slippers. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations with blue net and ribbon streamers.

Wayne Wagners, Farwell, Nebr. cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Lyle

Wacker, Osmond and Fred Dedlow, Plainview, friends of the bridegroom. All wore dark business suits and white carnation boutonnières.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom, wore gowns of blue shadow print Arnel Jersey with matching accessories and white carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors given by the bride's parents, attended by seventy-five guests. Decorations were carried out in the chosen colors of the bride, blue and white.

Miss Marie Davis, Ewing, registered the guests, Mrs. Wayne Wagner, Farwell, Nebr., poured. The tier wedding cake topped with an ornamental bell decoration, was cut by Mrs. Harold Ucker, Norfolk, aunt of the groom and served by Mrs. Edward Harting, Norfolk. Mrs. Clarence Lübbe and Mrs. Dannie Doerr, Plainview, friends of the couple, served the bride's table which was centered with a bouquet of blue and white flanked by matching candles in crystal holders. Miss Cheryl Neitzke and Mrs. Duane Klug, Battle Creek, were in charge of the gifts.

Out-of-town guests were from Norfolk, McLean, Farwell, Stanton, Battle Creek, Osmond, Royal, Ewing, Grand Island and Randolph.

The bride is a graduate of the Ewing high school with the class of 1961 and has been employed at the General hospital at Plainview as nurse's aid.

The groom is a graduate of the Nebraska State Teachers College and is an instructor at the Spencer high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Neitzke will make their home at Spencer, Nebraska.
