The bride given in marriage by her father appeared in a floor length gown of peach satin, styled with a molded bodice and long sleeves that tapered to bridal points over the wrists, featuring a jeweled chantilly yoke. The full skirt which had lace applique and polonaise draped hipline, flowed into a chapel train and a pleated satin bow finished the waistline in back. Her bouffant tiered veil of pure silk imported french illusion was elbow length and was held by an all pearl jeweled crown. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Jean Bonenberger, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, Delores Johnson and Ruth Hampal, Omaha, were bridesmaids. They wore identical street length dresses of emerald green. Their matching coronets topped with a single rosette were trimmed with blusher veils. They carried a crescent of white mums tied with a velvet ribbon.

Bob Gokie, brother of the bride, was the bestman. Bob Henning and E. Humpal were the groomsmen. Jack Ries and Larry Werwel, the ushers.

A buffet luncheon was held for 100 guests at the Knights of Columbus Hall at noon followed by the reception.

Mrs. Gene Ziska, O'Neill, registered the guests. The bride's cake was decorated and cut by Mrs. Don Gokie and the groom's cake was served by Mrs. Dean Gokie, both sisters-in-law of the bride.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Cheyenne, Wyo., where he is employed.
