

Judith Ann Thompson Weds Dale Leo Adams

On Sunday, Dec. 9, at the Methodist church, Chambers, Judith Ann Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomsen, became the bride of Dale Leo Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen H. Adams, all of Chambers.

The Rev. Earl Hess officiated at the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with white mums, red cardone heather and podocarpus and two seven branch candelabra.

Mrs. Ernest Durie jr, at the organ, accompanied Mrs. Letha Cooke who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride appeared in a floor length gown of lace and net featuring a lace bodice with long sleeves, tapering to points at the wrist and an illusion yoke with lace mandarin collar. Her illusion veil was held by a pearl crown. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white Fuji chrysanthemums, backed by sparkle net and red croton leaves, also a shower of looped pearls with a removable going away corsage of pom pom mums with seed-pearls clustered sprays.

Judy Smith was the maid of honor and Susan Thomsen, sister of the bride, bridesmaid.

The groom also graduated from Chambers and plans on enrolling in college next fall.

After a short wedding trip the couple will live in Chambers where the bride operates a beauty shop and he is employed by the county.
